Kindergartens In Newton to Have Two Sessions

In Several Schools Where The Enrollment Is Larger

Because of the expectation that so many children may attend kindergartens in a number of schools in this city, arrangements have been made for two sessions at the kindergartens in these schools if the enrollment necessitates such action. The schools where it is thought probable that two sessions may be held are the Angier in Waban, Davis at West Newton, Hyde at Newton Highlands, Rice at Newton, and the schools at Nonantum and Underwood at Newton.

Under the two-session plan the younger children, from 4½ to 5 years will attend the morning sessions from September 10, 1934 to January 25, 1935. From the latter date until the closing of the kindergartens next spring, these younger children will attend the afternoon sessions from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. The older children in the kindergartens, those above 5 years of age, will attend the afternoon sessions from September 10 until January 25, and the morning sessions from the latter date until the closing of the schools.

Schools where only morning sessions of kindergartens will be held during the coming school year are the Adams, Horace Mann and Clafin, Newtonville, Bowen, Thompsonville, Cabot, Newtonville, Burr and Williams, Abundant, Emerson, Upper Falls, Franklin and Peirce, West Newton, Lincoln, Newton Corner, and Ward, Newton Centre. Schools where the kindergarten session will be held only in the afternoon are the Hamilton at Lower Falls, and Oak Hill at Oak Hill.

Morning sessions in all kindergartens will be from 8:30 to 11:15; afternoon sessions from 1:30 to 3:30. Any child cannot be enrolled unless it will be 4½ years old by October 1, 1934. All children must be vaccinated before they will be admitted to the kindergartens.

New Catholic Parish Formed In This City

Announcement was made yesterday that two new Catholic parishes have been formed in this archdiocese by Cardinal O'Connell. One of these is the parish of St. Philip Neri at Waban. This church, erected several years ago, has been a mission of the Parish of Mary Immaculate at Newton Upper Falls. It is now a separate parish and will include territory heretofore in the Upper Falls parish and in the parish of the Sacred Heart Church at Newton Centre.

The first pastor of St. Philip Neri Church is Rev. Eugene Twomey who has been serving as assistant at St. Rose's Church, Chelsea. He graduated from Boston College in 1906 and from St. John's Seminary in 1911, and was ordained that year. Before going to Chelsea he served at St. Ann's Church, Neponset; St. Joseph's, Somerville; and Sacred Heart Church, Rosindale.

Dogwood Poisons City Employee

Alfred Coletti of Lincoln rd., Newton, employed in the City Engineer's Department was badly poisoned on the face last Friday by dogwood while working on Quinobeguin rd., Waban. He was confined to his home for several days.

Colby Will Run For Alderman

Mr. Clarence C. Colby of 31 Farlow road has announced his candidacy for Alderman at the coming city election.

Mr. Colby has resided in Ward 7, Newton, for the last 24 years. He is a lawyer, a member of the firm of Eaton, Blakemore, Russell & Colby of 27 State street, Boston, and was admitted to the bar in 1908.

In addition to his legal practice he has had 17 years' experience in business at the head of an electrical manufacturing company, and in 1926 and 1927 was the President of the Radio Manufacturers Association, the national organization of the Radio Industry, which at that time was the fifth largest industry in volume of sales in the United States.

He is a vestryman of the Grace Episcopal Church of Newton, a member of the Hunnewell Club and the Brae Burn Country Club and was formerly secretary of the Newton Republican City Committee.

Youths Made Error Of Cussing Police

Two fresh youths made a grievous error last Saturday afternoon when they hurled profanity at a couple of men riding in an automobile on Watertown st., Nonantum. Special Officer Charles Feeley was driving a car westerly along Watertown st. He was accompanied by Captain Richard Gode of the Newton police. Neither was in uniform. Feeley slowed his car when he reached Pearl st. to permit an other automobile to make a left turn onto Watertown st. A high powered automobile which had approached from behind passed by and two youths in it indulged in profane criticisms of Feeley and Gode because the former had used caution in slowing the speed of his car.

Feeley pursued the car from which the profanity emanated and caught it at the traffic light at Walnut st. He and Captain Gode alighted and placed two surprised youths under arrest. The pair were interned in cells at police headquarters for a couple of hours and then bailed. In court on Tuesday, Winfred Trow, Jr., 20, of 49 Marion rd., Watertown, driver of the car, was fined $5 for using profanity on a public street. His companion, Robert Brown, 20, of Lovell rd., Melrose, was fined $3.

Two Burglaries At Chestnut Hill

Two burglaries were discovered at Chestnut Hill on Monday. The breaks had been made during the week-end at the homes of James H. Baldwin, 90 College rd., and Gilbert King, 39 Kingsbury rd. The burglars had entered the houses by forcing a rear door at each residence. What articles were stolen from the Baldwin home will not be known until the family returns from their summer home. Apparently nothing of value was taken from the King's residence. This family was also away.

Youth Gets Jail Term for Assault

Angelo Tocci, 17, of 127 Linwood ave., Newtonville, was sentenced to serve 30 days in Middlesex County prison when he was found guilty on Wednesday by Judge Bacon in the Newton court of having assaulted Nicolo Finelli of 238 Nevada st., Newtonville. Tocci appealed. Finelli testified that on Aug. 12 he was assaulted by Tocci and was treated at the Newton Hospital for a cut lip. He also testified that Tocci stole a watch and some money from him.

Unemployment On Increase in Newton Again

The hoped for "return to prosperity" is not arriving if Newton is any criterion. More employment for Newton residents from private sources is not in evidence, if applications for work to local E. R. A. headquarters, are proof. Instead of Newton men who have been receiving aid from the E. R. A. getting employment from individuals and private corporations, men who obtained seasonal work last Spring are coming back rapidly asking for relief from the E. R. A. Many of these men in the past few years did not apply for relief until October. This year they started to apply in the middle of August.

Less and less calls for workers are coming through the Mayor's Relief Committee. Until about September 1933, for sometime the employment provided by private individuals or companies through the Mayor's Relief Committee averaged around $1000 weekly. Then the opportunities for work from calls sent to the Relief Committee office began to diminish, until now they provide only from $200 to $300 per month for the aid of Newton's unemployed.

This week 471 men and women are on the payroll of the E. R. A. in Newton and the payroll will amount to $6152. The projects are divided as follows—45 women with dependents are given work sewing and making clothing in the work shop at City Hall basement. Articles now made by these women instead of being distributed by local agencies, are sent to the E. R. A. district commissary at the Watertown Arsenal. At Edmonds Park, Newton, 100 men are working; at Cold Spring Playground, Newton Highlands, 62 men; at Thompsonville playground, 36; at Wellington playground, off Henshaw st., West Newton, 12; at Abundant playground, 59; at Upper Falls playground, 30. Six men have been at work in Hammond Brook at Newton Centre, 24 on the grounds of the Warren and Peirce schools at West Newton, 38 men are widening and deepening Cheese Cake Brook at Newtonville, 9 are repairing fences, 4 men are on tool maintenance, and 7 men experienced in construction work have been drawing plans of city buildings at the technical school building in Newtonville.

A new activity, started a few weeks ago is giving employment to 25 "white-collar men". They are making a survey of the streets and sidewalks of the city and turning in reports of those which are in need of repairs. These men are paid at the rate of $1 per hour, and the weekly wages they receive are limited according to their dependents. No man with less than two dependents is employed on this work, and the compensation allotted ranges from $14.25 for a man with a wife and one minor child upwards. The E. R. A. has men engaged on work such as this placed on a budget system of payments. For rent $5 weekly is allowed; for clothing, 75 cents weekly per person; for food and fuel for the household of such workers, $1.50 weekly at the present season; for food, $2 weekly for each member of the family over 16 years of age and $1.50 weekly for each member under 16.

Another activity which will start next week in Newton is an E. R. A. orchestra composed of 16 professional musicians; 4 women and 12 men. They will receive $18 weekly. E. R. A. relief for unemployed musicians has been similarly granted in other cities in this State for several months.

Edward F. Ryan Of Upper Falls
Dies Suddenly

Edward F. Ryan, a well known grocer of Newton Upper Falls, died suddenly of heart failure yesterday afternoon. He had gone to St. Mary's Cemetery in Needham to mow the grass on the burial lot of his cousin and had returned to his home at 368 Elliot street. As he alighted from his truck, Mr. Ryan collapsed and died almost immediately.

He was born in Newton Upper Falls 56 years ago, the son of the late Edward F. and Bridget (Carroll) Ryan. Upon graduating from Newton High School he became associated with his brothers in the conduct of the old established grocery business of J. H. Ryan & Company. He is survived by three sisters, Miss Ellen Ryan of Newton Upper Falls, Mrs. Patrick Linnahan of Newton Centre, and Mrs. Mark V. Croker of Newton Upper Falls. His funeral service will be held on Saturday morning at Mary Immaculate Church. Burial will be in Holyhood.

Sent to Jail For Drunken Driving

John Miskinis, 26, of Perry st., Stoughton, was found guilty in the Newton court last Friday of driving a car while under the influence of liquor, drunkenness and driving without a license. He was fined $100 by Judge Bacon on the first charge, $5 on the second and $20 on the third. These fines were suspended because Miskinis was returned to the Concord Reformatory from which he was out on parole. He had been sent to that prison for stealing an automobile.

Man Injured in Fall at Day School

Leo McDermott of Clarendon street, Newtonville, received a gash on his head when he fell from a platform at the F. A. Day School in Newtonville last Friday afternoon. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance and ten stitches were required to close the wound. McDermott was working as a steamfitter on the addition which is being built at the school.

Planning Board Would Rezone Nonantum

Industrial Changes Noted Since Zoning Was Adopted

When the zoning ordinance was passed in this city in 1922 the entire Nonantum district was placed in a manufacturing zone, with the exception of the area bounded by Pearl, Watertown and Washburn streets, and Jackson road. This was placed in a general residence zone. At that time the people of Nonantum were opposed to zoning restrictions being placed on property in their district. Their principal concern was the obtaining of employment and they wanted no obstacles placed in the way of more manufacturing enterprises coming to Nonantum.

Since the zoning ordinance was passed in 1922 the leading manufacturing industries of Nonantum have gone out of business or moved away because of changed conditions in the textile industry and the depression. These industries had given employment at good wages to two or three generations of Nonantum residents. They included the Saxony Worsted Company (formerly the Nonantum Worsted Company), the Silver Lake Cordage Mill and the Aetna Mills. Most of the buildings of the latter company were just across the river in Bemis, but hundreds of Nonantum residents had been employed in former years at the Aetna Mills. The Saxony Worsted Company went out of business in Nonantum several years ago. The Silver Lake Cordage Company moved its manufacturing activities to the South a few years ago. The Aetna Mills, after struggling against adverse conditions for years, ceased operations a couple of years ago.

The big plant of the Saxony Worsted Company was sold or leased so that the several buildings in the area between Chapel and Bridge streets are now used by companies engaged in various activities. The largest of these industries is that of the Raytheon Manufacturing Company, located on Chapel street. This company, making tubes for radio sets, employs between 700 and 1000 persons, mostly young women. At the present time about 1000 persons are employed there. Other manufacturing companies occupying parts of the former Saxony Worsted Plant are the Futurity Thread Company on Chapel street and the Rose-Derry Mattress Company on Chapel street. The former company makes cotton thread for shoes; the latter company, as its name indicates, manufactures mattresses.

The proposed rezoning of Nonantum is planned because much of that district is developed almost entirely in residential neighborhoods and according to the present zoning manufacturing or business enterprises can be started in the midst of such neighborhoods with the result that nuisances would result and property values depreciate. The plan of rezoning, as shown on the map prepared by the City Engineer and which will be submitted to the Board of Aldermen for consideration, is merely tentative. Undoubtedly, before any definite action would be taken, ample opportunities will be given property owners and residents of Nonantum to become acquainted with just what restrictions would result, and also to ascertain the views of the people of Nonantum.

The tentative plan of rezoning is as follows—The existing sites of manufacturing industries on Chapel street, Bridge street, the former cordage mill site on Watertown street, the Earnshaw Knitting Company on California street and the wool scouring plant on that street remain unchanged. The lumber yard and planing mill section on Crafts street is changed from manufacturing to business zone. Other changes from manufacturing to business zones include—Adams street, east side from Adams terrace to Watertown street; west side from Watertown street to Silver Lake avenue; Watertown street, north side from Faxon street to the property of the former cordage mill property; south side from Hawthorn playground to and including lot at northeast corner of Cook street; California street, south side from Jasset street to Los Angeles street; north side from opposite Jasset street to Riverdale avenue.

The remainder of Nonantum would be rezoned to general residence zones with the following exceptions which are planned to be placed in private zones—north side of Chapel street from California street to number 116; Bridge street, south side from Lincoln avenue to California street, north side from California st. to number 62, California street from Chapel street to Bridge street. In the sections of Nonantum which it is proposed to change to general residence zones are a number of stores and other business activities that would continue as non-conforming uses.

Purse Snatcher at Newton Corner

Mrs. William Kelly of 75 Morse st., Watertown, reported to the Newton police on Saturday night that as she was walking on Washington st. at Newton Corner her purse was snatched by a man in front of 241 Washington st. The robber escaped by running through the alley known as Hermon terrace, which is located adjoining where the robbery occurred. Mrs. Kelly reported that the purse contained $33.50 and was snatched by a man about 25 years old.

Newton Police Inspector Retires

Inspector John H. Shaughnessy of the Newton police department retired from active duty on Sept. 2nd after a service of 33 years. He was born at Newton Upper Falls, 58 years ago, and was appointed a patrolman in 1901. In 1918 he was made a special officer and assigned to the detective branch of the department. In 1920 he was advanced to the rank of sergeant and in 1923 to the grade of lieutenant. For the past few years his health has been poor and he asked for retirement because of this fact. His request was approved by Chief Hughes. Lieutenant Shaughnessy received a yearly salary of $2497.50 and his pension will be half this sum. Mayor Weeks has recommended an appropriation of $413.94 to meet this pension for the balance of this year and the Board of Aldermen will be asked to act on this matter at its meeting next Monday night.

Alleged Drunken Driver Blamed For Crash, 7 Injured

Achille Mosca, 26, of Frankfort st., East Boston, was arraigned in the Newton court on Friday charged with driving a car while under the influence of liquor and drunkenness. His case was continued until Sept. 10th. Mosca is charged with having been the driver of a car which shortly after midnight last Friday collided head-on with a bus on the Worcester turnpike near Langley rd., Newton Centre. Mrs. Mary Powers of Pleasant st., Roxbury, who was riding with Mosca, received a severe head injury and was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Patrolman McHugh was driving along the turnpike in a police car when he observed the automobile allegedly driven by Mosca going west without lights. McHugh pursued the other car, which at Langley rd. collided with a small Blue Way bus bound from Connecticut for Boston. Mrs. Louise Olney of Cambridge, one of the passengers in the bus, was taken to the Brigham Hospital for treatment. Five other passengers in the bus have claimed to have also received injuries.

Bigelow School Pupils Must Bring Lunches

Pupils in the Bigelow Junior High School at Park street, Newton, will have to bring their own, complete lunches for two or three weeks following the opening of this school on next Monday. Extensive additions and alterations have been made to the Bigelow School during the past few months, and although the work has been rushed it has not been possible to have the school cafeteria ready in time for the opening of the school.

Hearing on Gas Station in W. New.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen next Monday night a hearing will be held on the petition of John T. Burns for a permit to establish a gasoline station at 3 Waltham street, West Newton, corner of Cherry street. The locus is on the Newton-Waltham line. It is proposed to store 6000 gallons of gasoline and 1000 gallons of oil at this locus.

Murray States He Has Not Named His Successor

Aldermen Jamieson and Melcher to Make Selection

Former Alderman Joseph J. Murray stated this week that the report that he had named George E. Rawson of 22 Marlboro street, Newton to fill the position on the Board of Aldermen from which he resigned recently to become Water Commissioner of the City of Newton was without foundation. Mr. Murray's statement was issued due to the fact that this report was published in the GRAPHIC and other newspapers the latter part of last week. Mr. Murray also stated that the custom of filling vacancies in the Newton Board of Aldermen, due to resignation, death or other cause, has been for the two other Aldermen of the Ward to be accorded the privilege of suggesting the name of some resident of their Ward for the position. The Board would then act upon the nomination thus made.

Mr. Murray says that "I would not attempt to encroach upon the prerogative of Aldermen Jamieson and Melcher of Ward 7 and did not suggest the name of Mr. Rawson or any other resident of the Ward to fill the vacancy caused by my resignation. The fact that I now hold an appointive city office is another reason why I should not, and would not, attempt to name my successor."

In accordance with the established custom regarding the filling of vacancies in the Newton Board of Aldermen, the vacancy in Ward 7, caused by the resignation of Mr. Murray, will probably be filled at the meeting of the Board next Monday night. Some resident of Ward 7 will be nominated and seconded by Aldermen Jamieson and Melcher and subsequent action will then be taken by the Board. The two Ward 7 Aldermen have not announced the name of the person of their choice but among those considered for the position the name of Mr. George E. Rawson of 22 Marlboro street, who has long been active in Ward 7 affairs, is prominently mentioned.

All-Star Game At Cabot Park Tomorrow

Saturday will be a big day in sport at Cabot Park. There will be a double header in baseball and the first annual singles championship of the Newton Playground Horseshoe Pitchers Association.

The Newton Twilight League All Stars clash with the Y. M. C. A. Paul Revere champions at 1:30 sharp. The second game will be played between Newton A. C. and Y. M. C. A. at 3:30. This game is to settle the winners of the Silver baseball which go to the runners-up to the Abundant champions. The All Stars have been strengthened by the addition of "Bud" Gleason, "Coffee" Madden, "Dinky" Ryan and Murphy of the Abundant team.

At 1:00 o'clock the Horseshoe championship starts. Each contestant will throw 25 shoes and the eight with the highest totals will be paired off for match play. The semi finalists will play two out of three 25 point games and the finalists three out of five 50 point games. There is a 25 cent entry fee on this competition. Officers Jack Donahue and Mike Connolly of the local police force are expected to act as referees for these matches.

Lawless and Bridley will handle the ball games with Buck Donahue coaching the All-Stars.

An Important Announcement to all Edison Customers

Beginning September 1, 1934, in conformity with the order of the Massachusetts Department of Public Utilities, we discontinued the practice of furnishing lamp bulbs free of charge to our customers.

Accordingly, for your own protection, when you buy lamps either from us or from any reliable dealer, we make the following recommendations:

Remember these 3 points

1 Buy only lamps of standard quality, bearing the trade-mark of a reputable American manufacturer.

2 To assure maximum lighting efficiency, and long life, use only lamps marked "115 V" (volts).

3 Be sure to purchase adequate-sized lamps and thus avoid eyestrain and fatigue.

Expert Lighting Service

If in doubt at any time regarding the size of lamp or the type of lighting fixture you need . . . call the Company and we will send a lighting specialist to assist you, without charge.

Fall Fertilization

Every lawn or large area of grass should be well fertilized in the fall. It allows for a good growth now and will carry into the winter with a good root development. You will notice that Golf Clubs are strong users of fall fertilizer. They have studied the effects of fall and spring applications. Fall fertilization will stimulate the GRASS and spring fertilization will not only feed the grass but also the WEEDS. The weeds are now dormant, therefore it is the time to help the grass stage a come-back.

AN APOLOGY IS DUE

While it is our aim to furnish our readers with accurate news it is almost inevitable that occasionally errors occur. Last week we published a report to the effect that Water Commissioner Joseph J. Murray, Alderman-at-large from Ward 7 until his recent appointment, had named George E. Rawson to be elected to Mr. Murray's seat on the Board. This report, published elsewhere, we received shortly before going to press and believed the report accurate. Attempted verification since our last issue reveals the fact that Mr. Murray had no knowledge of the report. Furthermore the selection of the person to fill the vacancy is the responsibility of the other two Aldermen from Ward 7. Mr. Murray, as an appointed city official, could not properly name his successor. Neither would he encroach upon the prerogatives of his colleagues. In justice to Mr. Murray we willingly publish the true facts in our news columns this week and offer our sincere apologies to those concerned for any embarrassment the publication of the inaccurate report has caused. Referring to our editorial comment praising the probable selection of Mr. Rawson, who unquestionably is among those considered for the vacant seat, we would reiterate our belief that his election to the Board would meet with the approval of a large majority.

SCHOOL DAYS

School days are here again. Next Monday morning the schools of Newton will be open to receive some twelve thousand or more children who are again turning to the task of learning following the summer vacation. Their future is ahead of them. No one knows what the future may hold. We do know, however, that theirs will be a great responsibility. We have saddled upon them a great task—the task of paying for the follies of the present generation. Our supreme duty to these children is to provide them with the educational foundation to enable them to shoulder the burdens of the future.

AUTO INSURANCE RATES

The announcement of the new automobile insurance rates brings a little joy as well as a little grief to Newton automobile owners. Those possessing heavy cars will enjoy a reduction of two dollars while those possessing medium and light-weight cars will pay a dollar more for their insurance. Once again we urge automobile drivers to use caution and care in driving. The surest way to reduce insurance rates is to reduce the number of accidents.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE PRIMARIES

It is one day less than two weeks before the biennial State Primary election. During the next ten days political candidates will strive to attract the attention of the voters. The first qualification any candidate must have in these times is that of being "tax-conscious". It would seem that many of the candidates are unconscious in this regard while the "forgotten man" is fast becoming the "forgotten tax-payer."

A Bi-Weekly Series of Political Articles of Local Interest
Written Exclusively for the Graphic by P. W. C.

High Spots of the Primary Election

There is a sharp contrast between the Republican and Democratic State tickets. Four of the seven positions on the G. O. P. ticket will be uncontested on September 20th, and only twelve candidates are now presenting their claims to the voters. The Democrats, on the other hand, have contests for every position but one. State Treasurer—and twenty-two candidates are in the field. There is, however, one striking similarity. The leaders of both parties, with the notable exception of James M. Curley, are backing the slates endorsed at the pre-primary Conventions at Worcester, and are doing all in their power to laugh off or to brush aside any and all other candidates.

It remained for a relatively obscure candidate, Elmer P. Atherton, of Revere, who is running for State Auditor on the Republican ticket, to cite one highly significant fact, namely: that the delegates to the pre-primary Convention were elected by approximately ten per cent of the registered voters of the State. In other words, about ninety per cent of the voters were either indifferent or else were deliberately withholding judgment until September 20th, so that they might survey the entire field intelligently, listen to all the candidates, weigh their qualifications, and then decide whom to vote for. More about Elmer later.

Now, what are the high spots of the present campaign? As I see it, they are the candidacy of the stormy petrel of the Republican party, Frank A. Goodwin, Boston, for both party nominations, and the extremely bitter contest between General Charles H. Cole and former Mayor James M. Curley for the Democratic nomination as Governor. It is pertinent to suggest to those Republicans who instinctively admire Gaspar G. Bacon and who will vote for him as a matter of course in the November election, that there is a chance, however remote, that Goodwin might beat him on September 20th. Absurd, you say—perfectly ridiculous! Well, let us look at the record. In the State primary election on September 18, 1928, Goodwin polled 171,167 votes, while Frank G. Allen, subsequently elected Governor, polled 270,022. Not bad for Goodwin, who was playing a lone hand against the entire State organization, and practically all the newspapers. Turn now to the State primary on September 20, 1932, when the Republicans nominated the late William Sterling Youngman of Brookline for the Governorship, with a vote of 209,372. Running under substantially the same conditions, although Youngman was admittedly a weaker candidate than Allen, Goodwin rolled up 178,676 votes. A little over 30,000 votes less than Youngman. Again not so bad.

The question before the house is, will Goodwin fare better or worse against Gaspar G. Bacon? Many politicians incline to the belief that Goodwin is weaker to-day; that the stormy petrel is petering out. May be! Don't forget, however, that he has the support of thousands on thousands of small-car owners due to his auto insurance plank—thousands of State employees, and thousands of independent voters who sincerely believe the truth of his oft-repeated charge that the organization of both political parties in this State is directed by skillful hands operating from a well-known and highly respected law office located on State Street. Again, Goodwin is a two-fisted fighter, who neither asks nor gives quarter. (Salem papers please copy.)

My purpose now is merely to warn the typical stay-at-home Republican that he or she may conceivably cause disaster by being over-confident and refraining from voting on September 20th. Bear in mind, also, the fact that regardless of the outcome of the G. O. P. primary, Goodwin will run independently on November 6th. He seems sure to poll a fair vote in the Democratic primary. His political hopes are based on his expectation of holding at the November election his supporters in both the party primaries and, in addition, attracting to his standard a large group of regularly independent voters who seldom attend the primaries of either party. Remember, too, that Goodwin may be the beneficiary of the votes of the losing candidate in the Democratic primary. If Curley loses—which I rather doubt—his supporters may knife Cole at election time by voting for Goodwin. In my opinion, this is more plausible than the knifing of Curley by Cole, in case Cole should lose.

Before covering the other high spot of the campaign, let me say a word about the other two contests in the G. O. P. ranks. Oscar U. Dionne, of New Bedford, will probably defeat Thomas M. Vinson, of Winchester, for Treasurer, although I am frank to say that a stronger and more appealing candidate than Vinson might conceivably have defeated Dionne. It is an unfortunate fact that thousands of Republicans invariably present the appearance on the State ticket of a candidate obviously selected for the purpose of attracting support from some particular racial group.

However, Dionne is such an outstanding candidate, his so much personal appeal and is such an effective speaker, that I shall be greatly surprised if he is not nominated.

For State Auditor, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Pigeon, of East Boston, has the poll. Alonzo B. Cook seems to be definitely out of the picture. The present Auditor, Francis X. Hurley, defeated him by 50,000 votes in the 1930 election, and swamped him by 122,000 votes in the fall of 1932. Irma Adelaide Rich, of Boston, can be dismissed very briefly. She was a worker in Cook's department while he held office, and according to those on the inside, she hardly carried her own weight. Her votes will be negligible. As for Elmer P. Atherton of Revere, previously mentioned, the chances are that he will not poll a very large vote. His chief assets are his youth, his enthusiasm for the cause, and his ability to speak effectively. He is running entirely on his own, and has been labelled "the mystery candidate" because no one has been able to find out who, if anybody, is backing him. Mrs. Pigeon is the only woman on the ticket, and received an enthusiastic endorsement at Worcester, although I seriously question whether she can be elected in November over her Democratic opponent. I believe she will win on September 20th with a very large majority. She is a splendid woman and very effective on the stump.

Finally, a few comments on the Cole-Curley fight. If the election were held today, most political observers believe that Curley would win by a substantial margin. Many feel that he would win by as much as two to one. For some reason, which is not entirely clear to many of us, Cole lacks appeal on the stump or elsewhere. He is a splendid citizen and has held numerous public offices, most of them apointive, however, and no one seems inclined to criticize him. In a word, he lacks color and appeal. Curley has gone so far as to call Cole a "shopworn nonentity," but this is rougher than the situation calls for. Cole is as handicapped by the fact that he never wanted the nomination, and when it was placed in his lap at Worcester, it is my guess that his innermost feelings resembled those of a father holding his first infant and waiting for help from the nurse. In this case, there are two nurses.—Governor Ely and Senator Walsh, and they have taken a very long time coming to Cole's aid. Senator Walsh did not arrive until September 5th, but from this point on he will undoubtedly prove extremely effective. Whether or not the combined Ely-Walsh efforts can save Cole from being beaten by Curley on September 20th remains to be seen, but I suspect that Curley will win out.

Curley has all the color and appeal that Cole lacks, and is a practical fighter without a stump speaker. He is playing a very shrewd game by extolling President Roosevelt and the N. R. A., regardless of how bitterly he may feel in his heart over the treatment that the Administration has accorded him, and he is putting Cole in a very embarrassing position, simply because Cole cannot afford to be anything but pro-Roosevelt, even though Governor Ely runs around the country taking potshots at the N. R. A. If I were a Democrat I would prefer to be in Cole's position, in spite of everything I have said about him, because Cole is practically certain to be appointed to some influential State position, if he should be defeated, whereas Curley can only be sure of a large and enthusiastic political funeral.

Rotary Club

The Watertown Rotary Club was host to the Newton Club on Tuesday of this week at the Windsor Club in Watertown. Stanley P. Lovell, of the Watertown Club, and a resident of Newton Highlands, gave a very interesting account of his impressions of Europe during a recent business trip. In beginning with Austria, when one surveys the unhappy state of affairs in that country, one feels that the devil could not have made a worse job with the European map than did President Wilson. But, nevertheless, Mr. Lovell found the Austrians still gay in spite of all their economic and political trouble and as charmingly hospitable to the stranger as ever. Shortly before the assassination of Dolfuss, the speaker met the chancellor one night at the old home of Schubert, walking about the place in a fit of insomnia brought on by the troubles of state. At Munich the speaker had a visit with that remarkable author of the "Decline of the West," Dr. Otto Spengler. The questions that he asked showed his profound knowledge of America. Here in Germany, in Munich and elsewhere, the speaker got an insight into the recent political upheaval when Hitler put a stop to a pro-kaiser conspiracy by wholesale execution. From Jewish merchants one learns that the Jewish troubles have apparently ceased, as, aside from politics, the law and banking, the Jews are now unhampered in their activities. In fact our newspapers have exaggerated the seriousness of the Jewish situation from the beginning, according to Mr. Lovell. There is no doubt that the Germans are following Hitler with all the fervor of religious zeal.

As compared with Germany, there is little bitterness in France. That country is now enjoying a prosperity similar to ours before 1929. Everybody is busy. In England, Mr. Lovell had the unexpected pleasure of meeting another notable, this time Lloyd George, who happened to sit opposite to him at a hotel table. Discussing the debt question, Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Lovell could not agree, the former English prime minister being unable to concede to the point that a nation should pay if it could, just as an individual, even if it is unable to collect from those other smaller nations, to whom the borrowed money went. With this interesting tete-a-tete, Mr. Lovell closed his sketchy but delightful and informative talk. President Harold Peavey of the Watertown Club presided.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dunne of 61 Beecher place, Newton Centre, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Isabel Shirley Dunne, Belmont, son of the late Robert A. Carson of Wayland. The wedding will take place on September 22nd at the Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre. Bishop Francis Spellman will perform the ceremony. Miss Dunne is an active member of the Proprietary Club and of the Saturday Evening Club of Boston. She is a graduate of the Newton High School. Mr. Carson is a graduate of the Belmont High School.

Edward J. O'Connell of 122 Waban Hill rd., Chestnut Hill, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Miss Josephine O'Connell, to Paul Gratton Kirk of Sargent st., Newton. Miss O'Connell attended the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Boston and in Manhattanville. She is a past president of the Cecilia Guild and is an active member of the Guild of the Infant Saviour and of the League of Catholic Women. Mr. Kirk, who is a Lt. Colonel of the 161st Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard, is military aide to Gov. Ely. He is an attorney, and a graduate of Harvard Law School. He is a member of the Army and Navy Club, the Clover Club and the Harvard Club of Boston. The wedding will take place on Wednesday, Sept. 19th, at the home of His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, who is an uncle of the bride, and who will perform the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Adams of South China have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Stella Mary Adams, to Gilbert Franklin Tyler of Philadelphia, Pa., and Newton. Miss Adams was graduated from the Art Museum School in 1932 and attended the American School of Arts at Fontainebleau, France. Mr. Tyler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Tyler of 48 Harrison st., Newton Highlands. He received his master's degree from Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

How's your weather eye?

OUR almanac forecasts a rainy period next week, from the 10th to the 15th, in the Middle Atlantic States and New England.

"How's your weather eye"? Sometimes a good "weather eye" is simply a case of "whether I" believe in saving during sunny days for rainy days.

Newton Police Go To Dighton On Strike Duty

Helping To Guard Mill From Outside Strikers

Last Sunday a squad of ten Newton policemen, in charge of Serg. Leehan, went to Dighton to perform strike duty in that town where a determined and successful attempt has been made to exclude strikers from Fall River and other places from interfering with the workers at the Mount Hope Finishing Company, the textile mill there. The Selectmen of the town, following a conference with Gen. Daniel Needham, took advantage of Section 98, Chapter 41, of the State Statutes, and sent requisitions to certain cities for policemen to assist in guarding the town. General Needham had given a list of cities where it was probable policemen might be obtained.

A requisition was received Saturday afternoon addressed to Mayor Weeks; Secretary Dempsey, representing the Mayor, took it to police headquarters, and gave information of the Mayor's desire to have policemen sent from Newton. Serg. Leehan was detailed to head a squad and the following patrolmen agreed to go: Charlton, Doherty, Goddard, Halloran, Hunt, Kelly, Wm. Maloney, Sartwell and Reserve Officer McKenna. All except Charlton and McKenna were on their vacations. The Town of Dighton is paying these policemen and providing them with rooms and board.

Mayor Weeks informed the officials of Dighton on Wednesday that he desires the policemen back at Newton as soon as possible. Policemen from other places, including 13 regular and reserve men from Waltham, also went to Dighton.

Suspend Liquor License at Nonantum

The Newton License Board on Tuesday suspended for 60 days the license of Clemente Leone who has been operating the Columbus Cafe at 398 Watertown st., Nonantum. Leone has been dispensing ales and wines under a common victualer license and liquor license. The reasons given by the License Board for suspending his license are—selling liquor to a minor, selling liquor to men already under the influence of liquor, and selling after the prescribed closing hour.

The License Board has sent notices to holders of liquor licenses in this city that no alcoholic beverages can be sold in Newton during polling hours on Sept. 20, the date of the primary election; or on the days of the State and City elections.

Car Crashes Into Tree at Newton

At 6:45 p. m. last Friday the Newton police were notified that a car owned by Mrs. A. Craig Smith of 80 Avalon rd., Waban, had been stolen while parked in front of 167 Washington st., Newton. About a half hour later the police found the car against a tree at the corner of Washington and Park streets, Newton, a short distance down the hill from where it was reported stolen. The police believe that some one released the brakes on the car, thus causing it to coast down the hill. When it was found, the emergency brake was set and the car was in gear.

West Newton Man Badly Assaulted In His Own Home

Audrey Hill, 32, of 64 Webster st., West Newton, was brutally assaulted about 10 o'clock Saturday night by two men who entered his home, walked upstairs to his room, and gave him a severe beating. According to the story told by Hill, the men knocked at the front door of his house, when he was alone there. He did not answer the knock, and then the men entered the house, walked upstairs to Hill's room and one of them ordered Hill to "Stick them up." Hill said he refused to obey the command and grappled with the man who had spoken. He was then attacked by the second man and hit with what seemed to be a piece of metal pipe. Hill screamed for help as he battled his two assailants and neighbors telephoned to the police. The assailants had escaped when the police reached the house. Hill was treated for a gash in his head by Dr. Coady. He also received severe bruises on his head, face and body.

Hill told the police that he believed his attackers knew he had a considerable amount of money and his assailants came to rob him. The police doubt the robbery motive.

High School Boy Guilty of Hit and Run Driving

John H. O'Connell, 17, of 1316 Centre street, Newton Centre, was found guilty in the Newton court on Wednesday of driving a car without a license, driving negligently and leaving the scene of an accident without revealing his identity. Tuesday afternoon about 3, a car driven by O'Connell hit Richard Palmer of 109 Allen road, Newton Highlands on Walnut street near the cemetery. Palmer, a high school pupil, was taken to the Newton Hospital. He received head injuries and a possible fracture of his left ankle. Witnesses took the numbers on the car driven by O'Connell as it was driven away. The case was continued to September 15 for disposition.

George G. Stuart Will Is Filed

The will of the late George E. Stuart, former Street Commissioner of Newton was filed at the Middlesex Probate Court on Tuesday. He directed that the executor of his estate spend the sum of $100 for Masses for the repose of his soul. He bequeathed all the remainder of his property, both real estate and personal property, to his wife, Mrs. Frances F. Stuart. She is named as the executor of his estate. The will is dated June 10, 1932.

Norumbega Host To Sixteen French Scouts

On Tour of Eastern U. S.—Make First Stop in Newton

In a good old New England "Nor-easter," Scouts and Rovers of Norumbega Council, Inc., Boy Scouts of America, greeted a bus load of 16 Scouts and Leaders from 16 provinces of France on Saturday evening, Sept. 8th, at the Council Office in Newtonville. They were from "Scouts de France," the Catholic organization of the Boy Scouts in France. In charge was National Commissioner Paul Coze, of the organization and the Chaplain, Abbe Ramondot, assistant to the Archbishop of Paris.

On their arrival late in the evening, the bus load, after being greeted by Scout Commissioner C. S. Redmond, Commissioner for Cubbing, Elmer E. Ellsworth, Rovers of the local Lief Ericson Rover Crew and the Scout Executive, L. A. Bruce, Jr., were escorted to City Hall. Leading the procession was a police armored car in charge of Sergeant Meehan, provided through the courtesy of Chief Hughes and Lieutenant Mahoney of the Newton Police Department and then a car bearing the French "Tricolor," which, by the way, "made a hit" with the overseas Scouts.

In the absence of Mayor Weeks, Mr. James Dempsey received the group at the City Hall and escorted them to the Memorial Building, where they were shown the tableaux of scenes from wars in which the United States took part. They were shown the memorial hall and the Aldermen's chamber as well. In the mayor's office they were much intrigued by the "secret stairway."

The original plan of the local Council Committee was to have the group set up Camp on the Auburndale Playground, located on the Charles River and the Rover Crew of the Council was to have supper prepared. The Playground Department, Mr. Ernest Hermann, Superintendent, co-operated to the fullest extent in making the playground and its facilities available. However, the weather cancelled the plans. Instead Mr. Harry Bascom, general secretary of the Newton Y. M. C. A., generously offered the use of the use of the Y and all facilities and they were quickly and thankfully accepted.

On leaving the City Hall, the group went to the Y. M. C. A. under escort and dinner was ready, having been prepared by the Rovers, with Mr. W. R. Speirs, Assistant Scout Executive. The room where the dinner was held was decorated by the French tricolors and the tables had alternate candles of red, white and blue with red, white and blue streamers on the tables.

The group was served with the typical New England Saturday night supper, beef and brown bread, starting with tomato juice cocktail and ice cream for dessert, as a novelty. There was some question in the minds of the French Scouts about the tomato juice cocktail, for it was new to most of them, but they sailed in avidly when it came to the beans and brown bread. At the close of dinner, the guests were extended a welcome by the Scout Executive, who introduced Acting Mayor Roy V. Collins, who extended a welcome in the name of the city, to the City, to Massachusetts and to the United States. Inasmuch as most of the French could not speak English, Commissioner Paul Coze had to interpret. Mr. Collins' welcome was fine and struck the perfect note of friendship between nations as promoted by the International Scout brotherhood.

Scout Philip Phaneuf of Troop 5, Centre, a French-speaking Scout, extended a welcome to the group, addressing them in French, in the name of the Norumbega Council and the Boy Scouts of America. The Norumbega group could not understand what he said, but the long and loud applause indicated the Scouts of France were "hit between wind and water" by a welcome in their own tongue. "Philly," as the other Scouts call him, did a bang-up job. Scout Commissioner Redmond also extended a welcome and presented the group, through Commissioner Coze, a Tenderfoot badge of the Boy Scouts of America and a "Norumbega" strip for each one. He was applauded. President Harwood was out of town.

Commissioner Coze was presented with mementoes by the Scout Executive. In return, he presented mementoes to Scout Commissioner Redmond, Scout Executive Bruce and to Scout Phaneuf and thanked the group for the reception. The meeting ended with mutual cheers and a hearty song by the French Scouts and leaders—and how they could sing.

Then all "entrained" again, escorted by the police car, which responded promptly and courteously as ever to the call, to the city limits and off to the Nobscot Reservation! In advance, three Rovers had gone to the Reservation and prepared three cabins there, with fire-place fires and light going, ready for the guests. On arrival there, the French were split into three groups by their leaders and each went to a cabin, escorted by other Rovers.

After a terrible day and night of rainy and foggy weather, the Sunday morning dawned bright and sunny. The Rovers, Philip Trowbridge and Bradford Gove, who were hosts to the French Leaders in Troop 5, Centre, cabin, rose early and hoisted the Tricolor on the tall flagpole. When the

Derby Street Residents Want Improvements

A number of residents of Derby street, West Newton appeared at City Hall on Monday night to petition for the improvement and acceptance of this street from Waltham street to a point near Rangeley road. Carl Geiss of 24 Derby street, speaking for Mrs. Cook, favored the improving of the street. He said it is 80 years old and the only thoroughfare from West Newton to Waltham between High street and River street. A large amount of motor vehicle traffic uses this narrow, dirt road and heavy trucks make it very rough and dusty. He stated that over 80% of owners of improved property on the part of the street for which improvement is sought, favor the project, and that the work of improving the street will provide employment for Newton residents.

John McGarrahan of 93 Adena road, corner of Derby street, favored the improvement. He said a great quantity of dust comes from Derby street, and that stones, picked up by automobile tires, are hurled onto his yard. He commended P. J. Greelish of 35 Derby street for the latter's work in voluntarily leveling off the ruts on Derby street and filling holes in it. Mr. Greelish also advocated the improving of the street. He was asked by Alderman Temperley why property owners on this unaccepted street have not placed signs there prohibiting trucks from using the street? Greelish answered that in addition to such signs, a policeman would be needed at either end of the street to keep trucks off it. He said he had placed such signs there some years ago and they were promptly knocked down.

Algernon McCarthy of Margin street, speaking for Mrs. Santeson of 48 Derby street, objected to the improvement because of Mrs. Santeson's financial inability to meet her share of the cost. Frederick Yelland of Waltham street, who owns land abutting Derby street objected for the same reason. He said that under existing conditions there is no need to widen the street.

Held for Grand Jury In Alleged Theft of $1130

Paul Wiswall of 120 Poplar street, Watertown was arrested in the Newton court last Friday on charges of having taken $1130.24 from the Schade Hardware Company of Newtonville while working as bookkeeper for that company. He was bound over to the Grand Jury by Judge Weston and his bail set at $1000. It was alleged that Wiswall, while doing bookkeeping for Schade converted to his own use over 30 checks signed by the latter; these checks having been used to pay bills owed by Wiswall. The defence contended that Schade knew that the checks had been used for this purpose and that Wiswall had placed money in Schade's bank account to cover the amounts of the checks.

Drawn For Jury Service

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night the names of the following Newton residents were drawn from the jury lists. Those who will serve as jurors at the October sessions of the Superior Court in Cambridge are—Civil business session, Charles H. Harris, 4 Walnut street; Alfred H. Stafford, 340 Cabot street; Henry F. Hawkins, 79 Langdon street. Criminal business sessions, Joseph P. Dargon, 19 Howard street; Elmer Somerville, 293 Albemarle road; Stuart Patterson, 449 Highland street; Fred D. Fowler, 208 Homer street; Harold McCusick, 120 Farwell street.

guests arose and went out, the first sign to greet their eyes was their own beloved flag, floating high in the breeze—what a thrill it was!

At 9 o'clock, the Padre of the group held field Mass in the Legion cabin. After the notes of the bell there followed through the Reservation, calling the Scouts to worship.

After Mass, the Scouts returned to their cabins; one group to 4B, Highlands, Cabin, where Rovers Dick Schroeder and Charlie Frary had breakfast ready for them; another to 4A, Highlands, where Rovers Rod Speirs and Ed. Patterson had breakfast ready and hot; and the leaders to 5, Centre, Cabin, where Rovers Philip Trowbridge and Bradford Gove were also ready to feed them.

At eleven o'clock, all the guests from France were at the bus and ready to go. There the group all linked arms, with the Scout Executive and Rover Esquire Joseph Ferlazzo, who arrived at the Reservation early, and sang Auld Lang Syne, the French in their own tongue. Then they boarded the bus and to the ringing American cheers of "Vive la France" started on their way to Albany.

It was a great experience and the American Scouts welcomed the chance to prove the fact that Scouting is really an international Brotherhood.

Object To Filling Station At West Newton

Residents Of Vicinity Protest To Aldermen

A public hearing was held at the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night on the petition of John T. Burns for a permit to establish a gasoline filling station at 3 Waltham st., West Newton, at the corner of Cherry st. This locus is at the Newton-Waltham line and part of the land on the proposed station site is in Waltham. The lot is triangular in shape, with the narrow end at the corner of Waltham and Cherry sts. Mr. Burns desires to obtain a permit to install 6 underground tanks with a capacity for the storage of 6000 gallons of gasoline. Six pumps would be erected in connection with the tanks.

John T. Burns, Jr., spoke in favor of the petition. He said the locus is on State Highway 128 and is the only land zoned for business in Newton on this route between Newtonville square and the Waltham line. He stated that the station would be leased for 10 years and this would prevent any business building being erected to cause a blind corner. He said that this land was zoned for business in 1922, and that its assessed value has been tripled since, and that Mr. Walton and others who object to the granting of a gasoline permit on it have erected houses nearby since that time. He said the oil company which wants to lease the land will erect an attractive service station on it. He commented that this is the only practical purpose for which the land can be used, and that Waltham has freely given permits for filling stations in this vicinity.

Alderman Hutchinson asked Mr. Burns how the part of the lot located in Waltham is zoned. He also asked if similar permits have been sought in past years. Mr. Burns replied that the Waltham part of the land is zoned for business. He said that a similar permit had been asked for before, but because of an error in sending out notices, the petition had been withdrawn.

John T. Burns followed his son in speaking in favor of the petition. He asked the Aldermen to consider the plight of a man who has been paying heavy taxes for years on many lots of land, and cannot dispose of this land for building purposes when existing economic conditions prevent builders from obtaining money to erect residences and other buildings. Mr. Burns said he has been in business in Newton for 45 years, that he is not seeking the permit on speculation, but to enable him to pay his heavy taxes. He commented that he is "land heavy" and "in the red" on land. He said he has never asked the city for favors, except for just favors, and that the corner will be beautified by the station. Asked by Alderman Gallagher if he has ever received a permit for a gasoline station, Mr. Burns said he has not.

Thomas Joyce, a real estate man of Waltham who has developed nearby property, said he had been asked by a number of persons to oppose the petition. Willis Good of 102 Waltham st. protested against the petition for himself and six other taxpayers. He said he had built his home in this neighborhood 21 years ago, and he and his neighbors have tried to keep the section attractive. He said that there are four gas stations within 400 yards of the place and there is no need for another station. George Ferris of Joyce rd., Waltham, opposed the station on the contention that it will cause a traffic danger to children and will disturb nearby residents because it will be kept open late nights.

Margaret Sullivan of 89 Waltham st. said she would be afraid to allow her six children outside her yard if the station were located at the proposed site. Other objectors said the city should buy the land at the corner and make it into a small park. Letters of protest were received from James Walton and Moses Bergantino of Waltham street.

Houses Hit By Lightning

Two houses were hit by lightning bolts during the storm in Newton last Monday afternoon. A slight fire was started in the home of Henry F. King, 77 Greenlawn avenue, Newton Centre, when that house was struck. It was extinguished by firemen of Engine 3. A bolt entered the home of Frank S. Shapiro at 26 Mandalay rd., Newton Centre, and followed the chimney. A blaze started in the attic, but it was extinguished by firemen before much damage resulted. Mrs. Shapiro and her three children, who were in the living room of the house, received slight shocks.

Three Burglaries In Newton Over Last Week-End

During the past week-end three burglaries in Newton were reported. The burglaries were made while the occupants of the houses were away from their homes. The houses entered were—Charles J. McLean, 274 Tremont st., Newton; Edward J. McLean, 75 Highland st., Upper Falls; Robert J. McLean, 59 Commonwealth st., Upper Falls; and Harry J. McLean, 100 Commonwealth st., Upper Falls. The burglaries were made last week-end.

Newton Lawyer Sues for $25,000

Paul D. Howard of Devon terrace, Newton Centre, a lawyer, filed a suit in the Suffolk Superior Court on Monday against Lieut. Trimble of the United States Army. Trimble was bequeathed a large amount in the will of the late Nellie P. Carter. He is aide to Major General Fox Conner. The will was contested by cousins of Miss Carter and Mr. Howard alleges that he was retained on February 18 by Trimble to represent him in the contest. The suit, which is for $25,000, alleges that Trimble received $100,000, and Mr. Howard states that Trimble promised him $25,000 for his services.

Rescue Persons At Fire In West Newton House

Newton and Waltham firemen rescued several persons when the two-story building at 56 Lexington street, corner of River street, West Newton, burned about 2:30 Wednesday morning. The two apartments on the second floor of the building were occupied by Carlton Voss, his wife and son; Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph and their two sons. A dog owned by the latter awakened the occupants who found the building filled with dense smoke. A passing milkman pulled an alarm from Box 321. Mrs. Voss and her son, Carlton, Jr., 18, were overcome by smoke. They were taken to the Newton Hospital. Four cats owned by the Vosses were suffocated. The dog and two other cats were rescued. The fire started in the basement and the damage was placed at $3000. Two vacant stores are on the first floor of the building.

Chandler Resigns As Alderman From Ward 5

James R. Chandler, formerly of 25 Ridge road, Waban, who has served in the Board of Aldermen as Ward Alderman from Ward 5 for the past 4½ years, has resigned from that office. His resignation was read to the Board at the meeting on Monday night. He has changed his residence to Plymouth, where he has had his summer home for many years. He commenced his duties as an Alderman on January 1, 1930. Alderman Floyd moved that the resignation be accepted with regret. Alderman Temperley moved that a successor to Alderman Chandler be selected at the next meeting of the Board on October 1. His motion was carried.

$1000 Award For Fall on Sidewalk

Miss Lola Kian of 58 College rd., Chestnut Hill, was awarded $1000 damages by Judge Fabyan in the Newton court on Wednesday in her suit against the City of Newton. She broke her left ankle when she fell on an icy sidewalk last March on Commonwealth ave. near Lake st. Judge Fabyan ruled there was a defect in the sidewalk. The roots of a tree had raised the sidewalk nearly two inches where the woman fell. City Solicitor Bartlett took an appeal in behalf of the city.

Fire at Our Lady's Church

While a funeral service for the late Thomas Gagan was being held at Our Lady's Church, Newton, on Wednesday morning, a fire started in a locker in the basement vestry from some unknown cause. The fire was discovered by Francis Conroy of Pearl street, who pulled an alarm from Box 241. The blaze was quickly extinguished by a chemical line from Engine 1 and the damage was slight, being confined to the burning of the locker and several cassocks used by altar boys. The service was not interrupted.

George E. Rawson Chosen Alderman To Fill Vacancy

Ward 7 Man Has Been Active in Politics

George E. Rawson of 22 Marlboro street, Newton was elected by the Board of Aldermen on Monday night to fill the vacancy in Ward 7 caused by the recent resignation of former Alderman-at-Large Joseph J. Murray. His name was placed in nomination by Alderman Jamieson of Ward 7. Jamieson said that the nominee has been a resident of Ward 7 for 15 years and has been interested in the affairs of the Ward and city during that time. He said that Mr. Rawson has been a member of the Ward 7 Republican Committee for the past 10 years and its chairman for the past 5 years, and that he believes in keeping politics on a high plane. He said that the nominee was formerly a resident of Holliston and a member of the School Committee of that town. Alderman Melcher of Ward 7 seconded the nomination, and Alderman Floyd moved that the nominations be closed. All 18 members of the Board present voted in favor of Mr. Rawson's election and he was given the oath of office by City Clerk Grant. The new alderman is engaged in the insurance business.

Alderman Floyd Made Chairman Of Public Works

Alderman Charles Floyd of Ward 4 has been appointed Chairman of the important Public Works Committee of the Board of Aldermen to succeed former Alderman Murray. Floyd has been a member of this committee for several years. Alderman Melcher of Ward 7, who is serving his first year on the Board, and who has been a member of the Licenses Committee, has been transferred to the Public Works, and Claims and Rules Committees to succeed Murray. Alderman Rawson will take Melcher's place on the Licenses Committee.

Auto Hits Man At Upper Falls

Joseph Horspod of 6 Highland st., Needham, was hit about 6 o'clock last Friday evening on Needham street, at Oak street, Newton Upper Falls, by a car driven by Charles Bingham of Stanley street, Waltham. According to the report made by Bingham, Horspod ran across the street in front of his car. He was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. He was severely shaken up and x-rays were taken to ascertain if any bones had been broken.

SPORT BRIEFS

Harvard Starts Tomorrow

Harvard football practice starts tomorrow. George Gullian, former Newton High guard and a substitute as a sophomore last year at Harvard, will again be in the running for a regular position. Coach Casey has Gundlach and Schuman, first-string guards of 1933, available and Newton fans will watch with interest Gullian's attempt to earn a position.

Martin Advances

Donald Martin, former B. U. tennis captain and West Newton youth, advanced in the Franklin Field singles tourney on Sunday. He defeated Arnold Bronstein, 6-1, 6-4 in a fifth round match. In the third round of the doubles tourney, Marvin and Walter Levitan of Roxbury, defeated Sair and Pare, 6-3, 6-2.

Garcelon Elected Director

William F. Garcelon of Newton, president of the Boston Garden since last winter was elected a director of the new Boston Garden Corporation. The new company was formed through the recent merger of the Garden and the Boston Arena.

Newton Highlands Girl
Going to Oberlin College

Janet Brown, 148 Dickerman rd., Newton Highlands, expects to enter Oberlin College as a freshman this fall. With the other members of the Class of 1938 she will attend Oberlin's Freshman Week, September 14-19, which is designed to get the new students acquainted with one another and with the Oberlin Campus before the upperclassmen arrive.

Miss Brown, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward I. Brown, graduated from the Newton High School, Newtonville, in June. In addition to her election to National Honor Society in her junior year, Miss Brown served as delegate to her school legislature both as a junior and as a senior; was circulation manager for the school annual; a member of various clubs; interested in sports; and a member of the Girl Scouts.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS

NEWTON ELEVEN AIMS FOR FIRST GAME WITH ARLINGTON

One week from tomorrow the curtain will be rung up on the local scholastic football season when the Newton eleven meets Arlington high on Cladin Field. Since a week ago yesterday Coach Ralph M. Sanborn of the Newton squad has been gradually getting his charges into condition for the strenuous ten-game campaign ahead. As usual the Newton coach has a large squad comprised largely of inexperienced but enthusiastic youths. Much of the practice time has been spent upon the fundamentals of the game, such as blocking, tackling, the learning of assignments, and handling the ball. With a group of seven lettermen as a nucleus there is the foundation of a smooth-working team but constant attention will be paid to the development of capable reserves for this first unit.

Over one hundred and seventy-five boys have been equipped thus far with a number of others coming out daily. It is probable that around two hundred candidates will be given suits and assigned to the various squads. At the present time the squad of about seventy-five from which several combinations have been formed. As about forty of these are members of the senior class and as the intermediate and junior varsity squads are comprised entirely of juniors and sophomores, Coach Sanborn plans to retain the seniors on the varsity squad until it is indicated clearly that they are not of varsity caliber.

The present Team A backfield has Gilbert Myers at quarterback. He was third string quarter last year and regular intermediate quarterback in 1932 and is the leading candidate for regular duty now. Although light, he is a fairly accurate passer, the best punter on the squad and has the makings of a good field general. With Myers in the Team A backfield are Paul Treannie, Savignano and Moore. Treannie is the only letterman of the quartet. He showed flashes of ability last year that may bring him to stardom when playing regularly. He will be used as a bucking back. Savignano and Moore played in several games last fall and with Myers and Treannie worked together very smoothly. Moore, a colored youth, is playing the wingback position while Savignano is the interfering back.

Assistant Coach Charlie Considine's Team A line is replete with lettermen, one in every position except at right tackle. Melvin Swig, who played tackle and substitute centre last fall, has the first call as regular centre at the present time. Jim Stewart, Newcomb and Packard are three other candidates for the berth who may give Swig a battle as the season progresses. Two regulars from the 1933 eleven are on hand for their positions as guards. They are Sam Miller on the left of the line and Gale Wisbach on the right. Several other guard candidates are showing promise of development and Miller and Wisbach will have to keep on their toes to retain their positions. Ben Grow, 1933 tackle, is at left tackle with Galen Cleveland on the right side of the line. Grow's experience and late-season development last year stamps him as one of the dependable in this season's frontier. Cleveland has almost everything that makes a good tackle except experience and speed. He is solidly built throughout his 6-foot 3-inch frame and weighs 232 pounds. He seems to have lots of courage and stamina and has been taking his share of the bumps with determination to make good. He has a long way to go before rounding out into a finished product and has considerable close competition but his build and weight can be used although speed may be sacrificed. Captain Gus Castoldi and Jim Byrnes, regular ends of last fall, are outstanding on this year's squad. Both play the game for all it is worth and it would be no surprise to Newton football fans if this pair were among the high scorers of the team as pass receivers.

Taken as a whole the Team A eleven is a fairly smooth-working unit, both offensively and defensively. One of the outstanding weaknesses is the lack of a capable kicker who can get the ball down the field. With a pair of ends like Castoldi and Byrnes a good distance kicker would be an important cog in the Newton style of play this coming season. Many yards could be gained with little fear of lengthy runs by the receiver. The first scrimmage session was held on Tuesday of this week. It was a short, snappy workout with longer sessions to be held as the squad rounds into condition for more strenuous work. A number of minor injuries such as slight sprains and bruises have been the result of the ten days of practice thus far but no injuries which have caused a player to forego practice for any length of time have occurred.

While little has been heard from the Arlington camp the Spy Ponders will come to Newtonville on Saturday, Sept. 22nd, determined to annex another victory at the expense of the orange and black. The Arlington eleven lost a number of its 1933 stars through graduation last June but there are a number of veterans on hand for line positions. It seems probable that the two elevens will meet each other on about the same terms as a year ago with Newton having a little smoother working eleven than in 1933.

SPORT NOTES

Report to Brown Squad

The Brown football squad reported on Monday with several Newton youths included in the 50 invited for the initial sessions. Norman Appleyard of Newton Centre is one of eleven lettermen on the 1934 squad. Appleyard was a reliable member of the Brown backfield a year ago although used largely as a replacement. He is practically assured of a regular starting berth this season. Perry Elrod, another backfield player, Charlie Butler, rangy tackle, and Bob Chapin, an end, are other Newton players who saw considerable experience last year. Elrod, a former Newtonville youth and a star while at Newton High, now resides in Boston. Butler and Chapin are Newton Centre youths. Louis C. Adams, Jr. of West Newton is another local youth among those reporting.

Two Newton Youths at Cushing
Two local youths will be on the football squad at Cushing Academy when the Ashburnham School starts practice sessions on Sept. 19th. George Steere of Newtonville, a tackle on the Newton High squad last season and Edmund Damon, Jr., another reserve lineman will be Newton's contribution.

Clark and Guibord Win
Malcolm Clark of Newton and his tennis partner, Paul Guibord of Melrose, won the doubles championship of Essex County last Sunday at the North Andover Country Club. They defeated Herbert and Edward Fuller of Salem, 8-6, 13-11, 6-4.

McGuire Lost To Norwich
Bob McGuire, giant Norwich University tackle the past two seasons, will be unable to play football this season. The Chestnut Hill youth received shoulder injuries last season that will bar him from the rigorous sport.

Tuscher Husky End
Francis Tuscher of Newtonville, veteran end on the 1933 Northeastern University eleven, is likely to team up with Capt. Dick Mitchell this fall as Coach McCoy's starting wings. Tuscher has been showing up well in practice sessions of the Husky squad.

Miss Ciccone Loses
Eilene Ciccone of Newton Centre, State girl's tennis champion, was defeated in a quarter-final round match in the Women's Middle States tourney at Philadelphia last week. On Friday Miss Ciccone, the last New England survivor, was eliminated by Miss Kendig of Philadelphia 6-4, 2-6, 6-3.

JOHN WATERS TO ENTER UNIV. OF PENN

John Waters of 25 Irving street, Newton Centre, left this week for Philadelphia where he enters the University of Pennsylvania. Waters, one of the prominent athletes in the Newton high school during the past several years, bids fair to hold his own in fast company.

During the baseball season which ended last June he reached the heights desired by all schoolboy athletes—all-scholastic selection. On the team chosen by the Boston Globe he was named captain and utility due to the fact that during the Newton high season he played practically every position on the nine. Wherever Coach Jones found it necessary to use him he filled the gap creditably. Despite shifting from one position to another he maintained a consistent hitting streak to end the season with a batting average of .380. When the going was the hardest and the pressure the greatest, Waters proved to be a great "money" player. It will be a long time before fans forget his home run in the game with Brookline, coming at a critical time it tied the score at 1 to 1 and enabled Newton to eventually win a 2 to 1 game and with it tie for the Suburban League title. He was also selected by the Traveler for third base on that paper's all-scholastic nine last spring and for left field on the team picked by the Boston Post sports writer.

In 1931 Waters was a steady player at second base and gained considerable experience there in his first year of varsity baseball. In the fall of 1931 he was a promising candidate for an end berth on the football eleven and had practically clinched a berth after the first few games until injured in the Everett game on Oct. 12th. The injury meant no more football and kept young Waters out of school for several months. During the Spring of 1932 he was back in school but played no baseball. Having fully regained his health as far as everything except football was concerned Waters came back strong last Spring to wind up his scholastic athletic career as a star.

Fall Fertilization

Every lawn or large area of grass should be well fertilized in the fall. It allows for a good growth now and will carry into the winter with a good root development.

You will notice that Golf Clubs are strong users of fall fertilizer. They have studied the effects of fall and spring applications.

Fall fertilization will stimulate the GRASS and spring fertilization will not only feed the grass but also the WEEDS. The weeds are now dormant, therefore it is the time to help the grass stage a comeback.

TROUBLED WITH ASTHMA? Read This—

Dear Sir:—
I received the medicine five weeks ago and so far it has checked the asthma, so am sending for another bottle.
I wonder if it will help me permanently? It is like a new world since I have been able to walk and sleep at night.
Everything else that I have ever tried lost its effect after a time but I hope this will be different. It seems to be a tonic as well. I am telling those I meet of its wonderful help.
Yours truly, MRS. E. A. KINLEY.Read in this space next week what this lady writes in December, two months later.

T. F. Willey, 32 Lincoln St., Newton Highlands.Camp Mary Day
Closes Successful Season Aug. 20On August 30th, Camp Mary Day, the Newton Girl Scout Camp, ended its twelfth and most successful season.One hundred and twenty-seven girls, most of them from Newton, and all of them Girl Scouts, had the fun and joy of spending from one to eight weeks in that lovely spot on Nonsuch Pond.Camp opened on July 2nd and for eight weeks the woods and fields, camp house and cabins rang with laughter and happy voices, excepting between the last lingering echoes of Taps, when the campers settled down to rest, and the first strains of Reveille which woke the girls to another joyful and busy day.The Specialty Groups this year were very largely Nature Groups. Water Life Finder was especially popular and many happy hours were spent padding in the brook or peering under the rocks and in the grasses on the shore of the pond.The Wild Flower Finder was also chosen by a large number of girls who never dreamed that so many flowers could be found on the camp grounds when they first started this project. It didn't take long to find the fifty needed, however, and then they all had to be identified.

Land Animal Finder was fun, too.

Chipmunks were watched, bunnies spied at and a long patient wait at the garden in hopes Mr. Woodchuck would come out of his hole. This year visited the Wellesley Farms Dairy Co., which supplied the camp with such delicious milk—where they saw the cows and were shown all the wonders of a well equipped, modern dairy.

Map making, Fire building—even in the rain—compass reading, observation, Morse code signalling, and many other Girl Scout requirements for the Second and First class test were a part of each morning's program and at twelve o'clock and mail time came before one knew it. Three postmen, appointed each week by the girls, one for each Unit, delivered the mail. And an exciting part of the day it always proved to be. After that, dinner, then rest hour and Hurrah—Swimming—the most popular time of each day.A large number of girls learned to swim at camp this summer and 63 passed the First Class swimming test.

Many girls were able to complete the Swimmers Merit Badge and 5 passed the Red Cross Junior Life saving test.
Three of the Councillors were made Red Cross Senior Life Savers at camp which brought the number of councillors who were Life Savers up to eleven, four of them being examiners. The swimming area for beginners was doubled in size this year so this group of girls had a splendid, large space in which to work on "strokes". There was great applause at camp assembly when "fish" were given out and girls could change their caps from red to green. Blue caps were looked at with great awe but as many of the girls were too young to attempt life-saving they had to be content to look forward to that for another year.Forty-eight girls could be accommodated at the camp at one time and with the Staff and Councillors the camp family numbered sixty four most of the season.Miss Caroline Freeman of West Newton, Local Director for the Newton Girl Scouts, headed the group as Camp Director as she has done every year since the camp was first built in 1922.Miss Betty Cudworth, Newton Highlands, had charge of the Waterfront program for the second time and was also Head Councillor for the Cedar Unit.Miss Sally Tarbell of Pittsburg, Rec-

Rotary Club

Mr. James R. Chandler, Newton alderman for the past six years, spoke to the Newton Rotary Club at their Monday luncheon this week. "Don't be a mugwump in city affairs," he said, "criticizing and doing nothing about it. Keep alive the village community spirit, and don't let Newton become the ordinary town of politicians. Newton aldermen make mistakes, of course, but they are doing the best they can. Keep the public debt down and stick to a pay-as-you-go policy."Mr. Chandler referred to the great growth of his own village Waban and its fine village spirit. There were 125 on the voting list when he settled there 28 years ago and now there are over 2,000. In the meantime Waban's valuation has gone up from one million to thirteen million dollars. The speaker illustrated his talk with a number of very apt anecdotes, which were unusually well told and much enjoyed by the members and their guests. Much regret was expressed that Newton is soon to lose Mr. Chandler as he is obliged to move his family to Plymouth.Julius Warren, the new superintendent of schools, was welcomed by President Lycom Bruce into the fellowship of the club. Mr. Warren responded briefly, expressing his satisfaction in being able to come to Newton and his interest in Rotary as a service club. He is continuing here a membership which was started elsewhere and continued in the town of his last superintendency, Lakewood, Ohio.Waban Community Garden Club To Hold Flower ShowThe Waban Community Garden Club and the Junior Garden Club will hold a Flower show and sale, on Monday, Sept. 17th, 1934, from 3 to 9 p. m. in the basement of the Waban Library.Exhibits will be as follows:
Class 1—miniature bouquets Class 2—Arrangement of foliage, grasses, berries and wild flowers not to exceed 5 feet.Class 3—Mixed bouquet in antique containers.
Class 4—"What have you"—anything from your own garden, flowers, fruit, vegetables, etc.Class 5—Single specimen, dahlias, asters, zinnias, petunias, marigolds,
etc. (containers supplied)Class 6—Children's bouquets.
Class 7—Shadow boxes supplied for arrangements of fall flowers or berries, choice of background optional.
Small objet d'art may be introduced.Class 8—Sale of perennials, seeds and bulbs in 10 cent lots.
All exhibits for the show and contributions for sale must be at the library by 1 p. m. Monday, Sept. 17th.great deal this season, and it was very much improved by the addition of log seats. A great tree had to be cut down early in the season and its trunk and limbs were cut and hauled into the theatre and placed as seats, making it possible for over one hundred persons to witness the attractive entertainments given there, very comfortably seated. Miss Barba chose three lovely plays which were presented on visitors' days by the girls and were very much enjoyed. The theatre was also used for camp fire entertainments and Scouts Own was twice held there, once in the evening, with a pageant lighted by candles.Camp movies were taken of all these good times and will be shown at Troop meetings during the winter. A moving picture camera, projector and screen was presented to the camp
by the Newton Girl Scout Officers' Association last spring in memory of Mrs. Wry who was so keenly interested in the Girl Scouts of Newton, being Captain of Troop 11 in Newton Highlands and very active on the camp committee. The pictures were shown at camp as they came back from being developed and created great fun. The water pictures were valuable in showing the girls their faults as well as what they did well and when run off very slowly were quite instructive.The camp closed its season with a banquet—and such a banquet. It was planned and run by the Councillors and a surprise to the girls. Such food—such toasts, a will—a prophecy—unit histories when many secrets came to light and a "Can you Imagine" which caused the rafter to ring as the campers shouted with glee.Girl Scout Headquarters will open on Monday, September 21, and Miss Freeman, Miss Adams and Miss Barbara Dales the new office secretary, will do all in their power to help make this season a most successful one for the Newton Girl Scouts.ANOTHER ACCIDENT

Forty young people from Elliot Church, Newton, held their Annual Conference at Camp Frank A. Day last Saturday and Sunday. On the 14th
the Newton Y. M. C. A. Board Directors held their September Meeting at Camp Day, and on Saturday and Sunday of the same week the Boston Y. M. C. A. will hold their Annual Retreat for Directors and Committeemen.Members of the Round Table Club (graduates of the Public Speaking Classes at the Newton "Y") had an outing on September 12th. The club played golf at Albemarle in the afternoon and had dinner together at Sei-

The Republican Primaries

Next Thursday the voters of Newton will go to the polls to nominate Republican and Democratic candidates for the various offices to be filled at the State election in November. As we have always adhered to Republican policies and believe it our duty to inform our readers as to those candidates whom we believe should be named to the positions they seek we comment upon the most important contests in the coming primaries. Little need be said upon the contest for the Republican nomination for Governor between the present Lieut.-Gov. Gaspar G. Bacon and Frank A. Goodwin. There is no comparison between the assertions being made by the former Registrar of Motor Vehicles and the sound, progressive stand taken by Bacon. We look to Gaspar Bacon to lead the Republican party in Massachusetts to victory in November. With a well-balanced State ticket we also believe that the choices named by the pre-primary Convention in June should be given the support of all Republicans. There is no question but this ticket will receive an almost unanimous Republican vote, as the opposing candidates are little known. However, there are several contests in which there is considerable interest for Newton voters.

The Governor's Council

The contest in which the greatest amount of local interest has been centered is the three-cornered battle for the Republican nomination for member of the Governor's Council in the Third District which includes Newton, Brookline, Watertown, Waltham, parts of Boston and Cambridge and several towns to the northwest of Newton. Miss Margaret McGill, Frank A. Brooks and Russell A. Wood are the candidates. From all indications Miss McGill and Mr. Brooks will lead Mr. Wood. We believe that Miss McGill should be elected to the Governor's Council. The seat of the Governor's Council for this district has been filled for the past several years by Mrs. Esther Andrews of Brookline whom we opposed when we believed a better candidate was in the field. The question of whether or not there should be a woman member of the council is not the issue. Miss McGill is thoroughly qualified for the position. She has had a great amount of experience in the study of history, economics and government. It has been her life work. We have known her for twenty years and have always held a high regard for her opinion and breadth of mind. Many persons may ask why we support Miss McGill and not Mr. Brooks. There are few persons who do not know Mr. Brooks or at least something of his long and faithful service in criminal welfare as Parole Commissioner. We know Mr. Brooks personally and value his friendship. Like Miss McGill he is qualified for the position on the Governor's Council. During the past few years we believe Mr. Brooks would have been an invaluable member of the council because he is a specialist in the field of penology. This has been an outstanding issue in previous elections but in the present contest for the Governorship it has entirely faded from the picture. Thus we believe that the choice to be made is between a candidate with a general experience, Miss McGill, and one with a more specialized experience, Mr. Brooks.

The High Sheriff of Middlesex County

Another contest of considerable local interest is for the nomination for the office of high sheriff of Middlesex County. A large field of candidates, a number of them but slightly known, have tossed their hats into the ring. We unhesitatingly urge the voters of Newton to nominate Harry Dunlap Brown of Billerica for the position. Mr. Brown, we believe, is the one Republican candidate in the field who can be elected to this position in November. In fact it is known that Mr. Brown's entry into the contest caused one or more prospective Democratic candidates to refrain from seeking their own party nomination. Mr. Brown has served six years in the Mass. Legislature and during the past year was the Republican "whip" of the House. He is held in high esteem by his colleagues and received practically the unanimous support of those members from Middlesex County. It is extremely rare when a man of Mr. Brown's calibre is available for such an important position.

Middlesex County Commissioner

In this contest several candidates are seeking the position formerly held by the late Erson B. Barlow of Lowell. Rep. Victor F. Jewett of Lowell, for twenty-three years a member of the House and for fourteen years the Republican "whip", was appointed to the position upon Mr. Barlow's death last winter. He is a candidate and, we believe, should be re-elected to the position because of his long experience with state and county affairs.

House of Representatives

With two Representative districts in Newton and three candidates for the two seats from each district another contest of local interest is provided. In the 4th Middlesex District, comprised of Wards 1, 2, 3, and 7 the two present members, Reps. William B. Baker and Warren K. Brimblecom are candidates for re-election. They are opposed by a young Newtonville man, Theodore Morrison, who is inexperienced in legislative and political affairs and there seems little question but that the voters should return the present members. In the 5th Middlesex District, comprised of Wards 4, 5, and 6 the two present members, Speaker Leverett Saltonstall and Clarence S. Luitwieler are candidates for re-election. Alderman John H. Gordon of Auburndale is the third candidate. It is naturally assumed that Mr. Gordon is opposing Mr. Luitwieler who has frequently been the center of previous political storms. Of course Speaker Saltonstall should be re-elected. We believe also that Rep. Luitwieler, independent and aggressive, should be returned over Mr. Gordon, who has a likable personality but is of a more retiring and easy-going nature.

Vote Next Thursday, September 20th

Final Survey of the Primary Contests

During the past ten weeks I have been surveying the various contests in the political arena and giving my readers the high spots as I saw them. It is hardly necessary to state at this time that numerous changes have taken place as the campaign developed. Some candidates withdrew before the closing date in mid-August—others entered the lists unexpectedly. Other developments have taken place which necessitate a recapitulation on my part. For example, look at the situation in our Congressional District. The Ninth, Congressman Luce still has a clear field in the G. O. P. Primaries, but his chances for re-election on November 6th dwindled perceptibly when Mayor Richard M. Russell of Cambridge became a candidate for the Democratic nomination shortly before the closing date for filing papers. When Russell, the son of a distinguished Democratic Governor of Massachusetts, entered the fray, former Congressman Detrick and three other younger Democrats—Delaney, Cauley, Collins, son of former Mayor Patrick Collins of Boston, withdrew. There are those who profess to see the hand of young James Roosevelt in connection with these withdrawals. However, two of the original candidates, Albert Walbury of Waltham and Frank L. White of Newton, are still in the running, although White appears to be relatively unknown. Brophy has a substantial following, especially in his home town, but the experts concede Russell the nomination by a wide margin.

Personally, I shall always be puzzled over the speed and the generosity of Detrick's withdrawal, and of his remarkable run behind Luce in 1932 and his apparently excellent chance to win out this time. Of course Russell has always drawn considerable support from Republican and independent sources and that will be a big help in a contest with Luce. On the other hand, it is frequently stated that Russell is very unpopular with Cambridge Democrats and that they will gladly vote for him for Congress in order to get rid of him as Mayor! Curious reasoning, is it not? The situation as regards the U. S. Senatorship remains unchanged. Robert M. Washburn of Boston and Worcester has steadfastly declined all invitations to speak at rallies ever since the G. O. P. Pre-primary convention endorsed him at Worcester. At that time many of the Republican leaders were making faces behind his back and bending every effort to side-track him. I shall watch with profound interest to see if these leaders will get in line and play the game as they so frequently demand that we of the rank and file should.

Washburn made one joyful contribution a short time ago when he was asked why he was so inactive. Said he: "Why should I get all steamed up now when I do not know whether or not Dave Walsh will beat Edward P. Barry in the Democratic Primary?" The State ticket situation has not changed markedly since I wrote last week's column. Curley is slipping a bit as Governor Ely and General Cole put on the pressure. Senator Walsh, however, holds the key to the problem. His influence with the rank and file of his party is tremendous—far in excess of Ely's and Cole's combined. If he pulls out every single stop on the organ and works night and day in Cole's behalf, Curley can and will be beaten. Will Walsh do it? Probably, and yet the Curley lead is so substantial even now that it is frankly difficult to envisage his defeat.

One word about Frank Goodwin, whom I discussed last week. I just recalled that Governor Ely sized him up rather humorously a few weeks ago when he referred to "a candidate who was like a three-legged stool and who would probably stay in the same place until somebody moved him!" One more comment on the Cole-Curley battle. Former Representative Vincent Brogna has been appointed Justice of the Superior Court to fill the vacancy created by Judge Burns' retirement. This is no news to the insiders, who told me to watch for it before September 20th. Brogna is the first Italian to be appointed to the Bench in Massachusetts. It is a fair guess that his compatriots will be disposed to cast a vote for Cole, the Ely-Walsh candidate.

Coming down to the local contests, we find no marked change in the Sheriff scrap. Harry Brown is still in the lead, although Joseph McElroy has gained strength in many quarters. So has Ralph Robart, whose punch and candor make friends wherever he goes. He states very frankly that the job of Sheriff must be a good one; otherwise twenty Republicans and Democrats would not be fighting so strenuously for it. He likes his own record as well as anybody else's—he thinks he is thoroughly qualified, and he would like the job. To me, that is rather refreshing.

Clarence Kidder has, I believe, made a tactical blunder in dragging the widow of the late Sheriff into the fight, especially bad if it is true, as his opponents charge, that Kidder was not always loyal to Mr. Fairbairn. As I see it, Henry Walker represents in this campaign the influence of Frank R. Sullivan in our 1933 Mayoralty campaign. There is this difference, however. Walker will poll a much larger vote than Sullivan did.

My guess on this race is: Brown, McElroy, Robart, Kidder and Walker in that order, with the other six candidates pretty far to the rear.

The Legislative situation is unchanged and Senator Hollis got a break when he declined to remove himself from the field and successfully warded off a potential threat from the Western end of the Senatorial district. He is now unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Lastly, we have the four-cornered contest for the Governor's Council. Page Sylvester Kaufman of Brookline, whom I have yet to see at a rally. His strength is probably negligible. This fight has centered largely around the action of the G. O. P. City Committee in endorsing Miss McGill early in August. Since then the battle has raged, increasing in intensity and bitterness as September 20th approaches. No other city committee has interfered in local contests. The State Committee has asked for neutrality until after the Primaries. What will be the result? I do not know, but I suspect that Newton's candidate will be badly cut in other parts of the Council District. To a lesser degree, the same thing applies to Harry Brown in the Sheriff contest and Victor Jewett in the County Commissioner battle. Both were endorsed by the Newton City Committee at the same time as Miss McGill. Personally, I object to this policy and have fought it to the best of my ability.

My guess here is: Frank A. Brooks of Watertown to win, Miss McGill a close second, and Russell A. Wood of Cambridge third.

Regardless of your opinion of the various contests, be sure and go to the polls and vote on Thursday, September 20th.

P. W. C.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edward H. Powers

Next Thursday, Sept. 20th, is the date of the State Primary Election. A large percentage of our citizens don't bother to go to the polls on primary election days. This indifference to their public duty is more in evidence in Newton, with its supposedly "much above the average in intelligence" population, than in many cities and towns where the voters are not of the "white collar" class. Newton is a city where the Republican party is largely in the majority; it is located in Middlesex County, which is dominated by the Republican party; it is in a Congressional district where the Republican nomination usually means election. So, as far as State and the Congressional fights are concerned, the primary election in Newton is more important in some ways than is the regular election. It isn't necessary to tell most persons that we are living in strenuous times. Economic, social, political conditions are all awry. GOD only knows what the future portends. Inasmuch as the Christian religion believes that GOD endows man with free will, and most of those in the U. S. A. who profess to believe in any religion, claim to be Christians, it is up to them to help themselves, and not depend altogether on GOD, or blame him, the devil, or the "reds" for the results of human selfishness, shortsightedness and indifference. Existing economic and social conditions are causing our governments, Federal, State and local, to have more and more to do with what formerly were our strictly private affairs. If you want matters to grow worse, continue to shirk your part in political activities. If you want to try to help mend a bad state of affairs, go to the primary election next Thursday and take part in the selection of men (or women) whose control of your lives is becoming of increasing import because of the transition from private to public control of a large part of our activities.

The writer is going to vote for Frank A. Brooks of Watertown next Thursday as Republican candidate for the Governor's Council. We are going to vote for Mr. Brooks because he is badly needed at the State House. It should not be necessary to remind our readers of the startling increase in the number of pardons of murderers and vicious criminals during the past several years. Of pardons and paroles made against the recommendations of the Board of Parole, of which Mr. Brooks was chairman for 17 years. The "crime wave" which has disturbed Massachusetts, in common with the country in general, has been largely ascribed to the leniency shown to professional criminals; to political interference with law enforcement. The collusion of slyster lawyers, politicians and supposed law enforcement officers with those who commit crimes has been and is being blamed for the prevalence of crime.

Mr. Brooks was first appointed to the Parole Board by Governor McCall at the request of Calvin Coolidge. He was reappointed by Governors Coolidge, Cox, Fuller and Allen. He won a reputation for sterling honesty, unusual courage, commendable fairness. He was neither ruthless nor hard-hearted and always was willing to favor a parole or pardon to any man or woman who deserved such clemency. But, he consistently fought against the insidious activity apparent during late years—the activity which enabled putrid political and venal influence to interfere with law enforcement. His seventeen years of experience on the Parole Board have acquainted him with the machinations, the schemes of those who use such influence. Six years as Chairman of Commissioners of Hampshire County gave him a broad knowledge of other public affairs. He has the unqualified support of prominent men and women in all parts of Massachusetts. He could use their names as endorsers. But, it is characteristic of him that he will not do so. He states that—"I stand on my record."

The office of Sheriff of Middlesex County, the county where residents of Newton live, the largest county in the U. S. A., carries more power, has more influence than most of you suspect. It has a direct bearing on your taxes, on affairs that you come in frequent contact with, although you may not realize this. It behooves you to have care as to who fills this office. Eleven men are contesting for the Republican nomination for Sheriff. We are going to vote for Harry Dunlap Brown of Billerica. He is a member of the Legislature and is Republican "whip" in the House of Representatives. This indicates that he possesses leadership, that he has the respect and confidence of his associates. He served in the World War, attained the rank of Captain and was wounded twice in action in France.

In the contests for Republican nominations for Representative to the Great and General Court (the State Legislature) in the two Newton districts, the 4th and 5th Middlesex, three men are running for the two nominations in each district. In the 4th District we favor the renomination and election of the present incumbents, William B. Baker and Warren K. Brimblecom. We know both these men. We served with Mr. Baker in the Newton Board of Aldermen. We have been associated with Mr. Brimblecom on the NEWTON GRAPHIC for nine years. We don't always agree with their political views, with their political actions. But we believe both to be honest, sincere, painstaking in their public duties. Both consistently opposed the selfish votes which won disrepute for many of the members of the Massachusetts Legislature during the past two years. They are needed at the State House.

In the 5th District the renomination of Leverett Saltonstall, Speaker of the House, seems assured. The fight will be between Clarence S. Luitwieler of Newton Highlands, who is serving his 10th year as a member of the Legislature, and John H. Gordon of Auburndale. Personally, we believe that Luitwieler is "hogging" the office, but, as Gordon is serving his 11th year as a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen, the same criticism has been made about him. Friends of both men are actively supporting them, and this contest promises to be close.

Because of the protests made by members of the Newton police department early in 1933 against receiving a 7½% decrease in their salaries, and the resultant litigation, it would have been more in accordance with consistency for Newton policemen who signed that protest not to have gone to Dighton on strike duty.

RANSOM—McNEIL

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at the Church of Our Lady, Newton, last Monday morning at 10 A. M. when Margaret MacNeil, R. N., of 35 Brooks ave., Newtonville, was united in marriage to Arthur Ransom of North st., Medford, at a nuptial mass by Rev. Russell Haley. The bride's dress was of white satin with court train. She carried bride roses and valley lilies. Miss Mary J. Gannon was maid of honor. She carried talisman roses. The flower girl was Marguerite McGilley of Brighton. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle Timothy J. Gannon, with whom she has made her home since she was a child. The groom was attended by Harold F. MacNeil as best man. The ushers were James J. Gannon and Timothy L. Gannon.

A reception was held at 35 Brooks ave. at which the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Timothy Gannon, the bride's aunt, who wore Aqua Marine green crepe and lace dress, and the groom's mother, Mrs. Leonard Gannon of Medford, who wore cadet blue crepe with hat to match. The bride is a graduate of Newton High and Boston City Hospital School of Nursing, Class of '32. The groom attended school in Indiana and Stoneham, Mass. He is connected with the Reo Automobile Co. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Daniel McNeil of Framingham.

School For Those Seeking Jobs To Start Second Year

On Sept. 17th, the School for Those Seeking Positions, founded by Roger W. Babson, begins its second year. This will be precluded by the members of the group attending the sessions of the Babson National Business Conference which starts Sept. 12th. The school is located on the campus of Babson Institute, Wellesley Hills.

During the past years five groups have had the benefit of this course. Mr. Babson founded this new school because he felt that many of the men and women walking the streets looking for work were unemployed because they did not use the right technique in going after a job. The past year has proved the correctness of this premise.

One of the most unique features of this new school is the personal guarantee made by Mr. Babson that any who may not get a job in sixty days after the two month course is completed will have their tuition refunded.

A good many from the Newtons have been in previous groups. Others are being interviewed for this new group.

Solfege and Pre-Instrumental Music Classes for Children

The All Newton Music School wishes to draw attention to the unusual opportunity it offers in preparatory and supplementary Group-work of the most approved sort. Besides Solfege and Harmony for older pupils, classes are now forming for pre-instrumental preparation (ages 6-8) and for supplementary theory work in Elementary and Junior Grades (8-13).

The attractive and interesting demonstrations by young pupils of the Theory Classes at Recitals and Concerts last season have brought inquiries as to membership in the classes of pupils not otherwise enrolled in the school. Such pupils will be accepted gladly so far as there may be vacancies, since the very moderate rate asked helps to finance the classes for less favored students.

Up-to-date, modern music pedagogy recognizes the great importance of such classwork, and during recent years a skilful technique has been built up. Its aims are:—

1.—To bring out the music latent in almost every child.

2.—To give him a background of the elements of music.

Such training is immensely valuable to all music students but impossible to achieve at the individual technical lesson as will be readily seen from the following brief summary of the work.

Feeling for rhythm is strengthened by many skilful devices (games, etc., for young children). The signs for rhythm (notes, rests, etc.) are then learned and practised in the very interesting rhythmic band. This is directly connected with music appreciation in the study of classics appropriate to the grade. Great interest is added when the selection,—a Schubert March, a Bach Minuet or the like,—is played with one of the school's orchestras as was demonstrated at the final concert in the high school last May. Next notation is connected with staff-writing and the invention of short melodies. Ear-training, intervals, chords, scales, keys, all have their place in the course of study and are taken up systematically. Harmonic perception and recognition make a fascinating part of the work all of which should parallel the work of the first three years on an instrument in order to gain real and lasting results.

The music school is fortunate in having for this work Miss Ruth Crandell, a most expert teacher, thoroughly schooled in the most authoritative of present day methods. Miss Crandell, a member of the piano department, is a graduate of the Longy School Solfege Course, and the Concord Summer School (Surette). She also studied methods of class instruction for several seasons under Miss Angela Diller of New York, as well as the York-Trotter Methods under Mr. Stanley Chapple of London. During recent years, Miss Crandell has met with great success in her classes at the All Newton Music School, the Park School of Brookline and the Brimmer School of Boston.

To insure reservation in these classes, registration should be made in advance. This may be done between 2 and 5 p. m. at the Claffin School, Newtonville, on Tuesday, Sept. 18th, or at the Peirce School, West Newton, on Thursday, Sept. 20th. Sessions are held on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and Saturday mornings and will be formed the first week of October. Further information may be had by telephoning West Newton 1045.

Day Jr. High School

School opened on Monday, September 10th, with a large enrollment and with a teaching force which has been increased by three new members. Because the new wing has not yet been completed, many classes are being held in odd corners of the building. It is hoped that the addition will be ready for occupation by the first of October.

Miss Lois Gibson, a Simmons graduate, will have charge of the library. This is the first time that the Day has had a full-time trained librarian. Miss Gibson comes to Newton from Everett where she was a member of the public library staff. Her previous experience was at the Winchester high school.

Mr. Addison Cowles who received his Master of Arts degree at Harvard comes to Newton from the Bristol, Connecticut High School. He will teach English and social studies. His special interests lie in the fields of golf and tennis. In tennis and squash Mr. Cowles has done quite a bit of professional work.

Recent Weddings

BRIGGS—NICKERSON

Miss Bettina Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Nickerson, of 74 Braeland ave., Newton Centre, was married to George Wright Briggs, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wright Briggs of Taunton, on Monday evening, Sept. 10th, in the First Congregational Church, Newton Centre. Rev. Dwight Bradley performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Jane Nickerson, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a larkspur blue lace gown with hat and shoes to match and carried gardenias and delphinium. The bridesmaids, Miss Frances Corwin, Miss Mary York, Miss Lucille Norton, Miss Janet Hill and Mrs. Richard H. Pratt, wore beige lace dresses with matching hats and shoes. Miss Nancy Nickerson, a cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a pink tulle dress in Empire style with a large blue sash and carried a basket of sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots.

Robert H. Briggs, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were William Reed, Richard Edwards, Nelson Cochrane, Donald Gerry and Leonard Hubbard.

Following the ceremony there was a reception held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Nickerson of Centre st., Newton Centre.

On their return from a wedding trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Briggs will reside at 20 Chauncy st., Cambridge, where they will be at home after October 1st.

Mr. Briggs is a graduate of Harvard, 1931, and is a member of the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity, the Fifty-Four Club and the Harvard Musical and Instrumental Club.

DIMOCK—COY

Miss Eleanor Lewis Coy, daughter of Mrs. John S. Coy of Waban, was married to Donald Fuller Dimock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Dimock of 15 Brewster rd., Newton Highlands, at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 8th, at the home of her parents, 74 Homestead st., Rev. Frederick Gould of Cohasset performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white velvet. The matron of honor, Mrs. Winslow Howland of Auburndale, wore fuchsia velvet, and the two bridesmaids, Miss Marjorie Clarke of New Bedford and Miss Natalie Bosworth of Needham, wore periwinkle blue velvet. Miss Eleanor Louise Coy, of Auburndale, 3-year-old cousin of the bride, was flower girl.

Dexter W. Dimock, brother of the groom, of Newton Highlands, was the best man. The ushers were Richard A. Spencer of Newtonville and J. Allen Coy, brother of the bride, of Auburndale.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The home was decorated with white asters and ferns. Music was furnished by Miss Catherine Voorhees.

On their return from a wedding trip to Bermuda, Mr. and Mrs. Dimock will reside in West Newton. They will be at home after Sept. 22nd.

The bride is a graduate of the New England Conservatory and of the Chandler School.

WILSON—FOLWELL

Miss Ada Prescott Folwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Prescott Folwell of Montclair, N. J., was married to Rufus Saxton Wilson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus S. Wilson of 15 Alden st., Newton Centre, on Saturday evening, Sept. 8th, at the home of her parents. Rev. Victor G. Mills, D.D., of the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Montclair performed the ceremony.

Mary Jean Rasmussen of Montclair, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and Richard L. Sears, a nephew of the groom, of Walpole, was the

Flower Show At Newtonville

In addition to the exhibits scheduled for the Flower Show to be held on September 20th from 1 to 5 p. m., at the Woman's Club House on Washington park, by the Newtonville Garden Club and the Conservation committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club, there will be other features to provide pleasure for those attending. On the stage will be set a formal garden with a low pool, evergreens, and fall flowers. The centre of interest will be a charming piece of child sculpture designed and executed by Miss Helen Blair, a talented young sculptor, of Newtonville, whose work in the field of child portraiture has received much praise. This garden has been planned and will be executed by Miss Harriette W. Pezey, also of Newtonville, who holds a Master's degree in Landscape Architecture. Miss Pezey has practiced her profession in New York and Washington, and has traveled extensively, making a particular study of European gardens.

As stated in the schedule published in the GRAPHIC last week, competition in Class I is open to members of any of the Garden Clubs in Newton, and Class VI is open to members of any Newton Conservation committees. Other entries are confined to members of the two Clubs and to residents of Newtonville.

There will be a showing of tropical plants raised indoors, as well as some very unusual garden plants. Perennial roots, suitable for immediate planting, will be offered for sale at a reasonable price, and tea will be served at a nominal charge from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Three awards will be made for each of the seven classes, the judges being experts from out of town. Application for all entries must be made to the chairman of the groups by September 18th. Arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Walter S. Adams, president of the Newtonville Garden Club, and Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, chairman of Conservation in the Newtonville Woman's Club. There will be an admission charge of ten cents to this Exhibition where those interested in gardens will find many features of interest.

The best man was Robert M. Wilson of Montclair, a cousin of the groom. The ushers were Robert G. Hutchison, 3rd, of Weston, Harold T. Sears of Walpole, brother-in-law of the groom; Gordon Wheeler of Wellesley Farms and Raymond D. Leonard of Watertown.

On their return from a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will reside in Newton Centre.

The bride is a graduate of the Wheelock School in Boston and is a member of the Montclair Junior League. The groom is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and is a member of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

THOMAS—BROWN

Miss Janet Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Brown of 399 Central st., Auburndale, was married to Henry Joseph Thomas of Meriden, Conn., on Saturday evening, Sept. 8, at eight o'clock at a candlelight ceremony in the Church of the Messiah, Auburndale. Rev. Percival M. Wood performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore white satin with a long lace jacket forming a train. Her veil was held in place by a tricorn cap of tulle trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Basley of Waltham, as maid of honor, wore green satin and a brown velvet tricorn hat, and carried yellow roses. The bridesmaids were the Misses Wilhelmina Elias of Worcester, Pauline Schanze of Wellesley, Helen Ellwell of Newton Highlands, and Jane McGregor, cousin of the bride. They wore tea rose satin with brown velvet tricorn hats, and carried talisman roses.

The best man was Emil Thomas, brother of the groom. The ushers were Joel M. Nichols, Arthur Akeson, Leo Wiseleder, and Henry McKeon, nephew of the groom, all of Meriden, Conn.

A reception was held at the Woodland Golf Club. The couple were assisted in receiving by the parents of the bride, Mrs. Bessie McKeon, sister of the groom, and the bridal attendants.

The bride is a graduate of the Misses Allen School and of Simmons College, and for the past two years has been engaged in social work in Meriden, Conn. The groom, who is the son of the late Joseph and Marie Thomas of France, is engaged in the banking business in Meriden.

They will reside at 138 Atkins st. in Meriden.

EASTMAN—STILES

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Stiles of 164 Elgin st., Newton Centre, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Esther W. Stiles to Mr. Alvan D. Eastman, Jr. of Allston, Mass. Rev. P. A. A. Killam, minister of the Brighton Avenue Baptist Church in Allston, officiated at the ceremony which was held at the home of the bride on Saturday, Sept. 8th. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Hilda Stiles as maid of honor and Mr. Milton W. Eastman, brother of the groom, served as best man. Only members of the immediate families attended the wedding. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Eastman will make their home in Allston.

"Gladioli" Subject At Garden Club

The next meeting of the Garden Club of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be held on Monday, September 17th, at 11 a. m., at the home of Mrs. William D. Keefe, 113 Prospect street, Wellesley Hills. Mrs. Edgar P. Hay will be the assisting hostess. In the afternoon Mrs. B. Howard Lester will be the speaker. Her subject will be "Gladioli."

Conference Well New England Worth Attending

Clubwomen who can do so should avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the New England Conference of State Federations of Women's Clubs which celebrates its twenty-fifth anniversary of such meetings on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, September 25th, 26th, and 27th, at the New Ocean House, Swampscott. A decidedly attractive program has been planned, full details of which were given in this Column last week, and many social affairs of pleasure. Reservations should be made at once.

Recent Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wales of Grove st. announce the engagement of their daughter, Mildred to Mr. William J. Stewart, Jr., of Cornell st., Newton Lower Falls.

MISCELLANEOUS

Two Things to Remember:

Earning ability does not last forever . . . you are going to need money as long as you live.

Weekly or monthly deposits in this bank, no matter how small, if regularly made, will build a cash reserve for you against the time of need.

The amount is not as important as the start.

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

The riots in connection with the textile strike at Saylesville and Woonsocket, both within 40 miles of Newton, bring close to home the seriousness of the times. We have expected such occurrences. The World War produced a callousness regarding the safety of human lives which is reflected in the unnecessary slaughter of thousands in this country each month by automobile operators. The chaotic condition of society resulting from the long continued economic collapse, the disregard for law evidenced by all classes of our citizens, the heroizing of criminals in moving pictures, and the hectic condition of humanity in general, makes the vandalistic outbreaks of the hoodlum element in youth a natural sequence. Most of those who indulged in violence in the Rhode Island riots were youths and not strikers. Such vandalism must and will be severely dealt with.

It's funny how ready a lot of persons are these days to blame the "reds" when anything occurs for which they would appear to be more or less culpable themselves. One of the latest things for which the "reds" were blamed was the burning of the "Morro Castle." This disaster was first reported to have been caused by an Act of God. It was claimed that a bolt of lightning set the ship on fire. Subsequently the "reds" were held responsible. It used to be the fashion to blame the Devil. Now it's the custom to blame the "reds." It's a wonder the crew of the burned ship didn't accuse the "reds" for their failure to save more than a few passengers of the "Morro Castle" in the six lifeboats that put off from the destroyed craft.

Wednesday as we walked across the square at Newton Corner we thought it was snowing, so many white-appearing particles were in the air. Then we thought someone must have been re-making mattresses or feather beds in that vicinity. When we got back to the GRAPHIC office the same type of particles filled the air on Centre ave. We commented on the fact, and were informed that the objects floating in the air were Aphides. Our informant also showed us an article printed in that day's issue of the "Boston Globe." If Aphides had been swarming through the air all around this section of the country during the past week, perhaps some scientist or mathematician can estimate how many Aphides were flying about.

New. Ctr. Youth Is Fined $5 For Speeding

Theodore Cobb, 17, of 145 Langley road, Newton Centre was fined $5 in the Newton court last Friday for speeding. The judge suspended the fine until February 9, 1935 with the understanding that the case will be placed on file if Cobb has no further complaints against him.

Newtonville Man Tries Suicide

Julius Cottens, 53, of 10 Washington terrace, Newtonville, attempted suicide Tuesday night by hanging himself to a pipe in the cellar of his home. He was discovered by his wife and her cries attracted a neighbor who cut the rope suspending Cottens. Cottens was partially revived by Inspector King and Patrolmen Murphy and Geegan, who came in the police ambulance. He was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Newton Cen. Man Killed By Auto

John J. Green, an old resident of the Thompsonville section was fatally injured Sunday night when he was struck by an automobile while walking on the Worcester turnpike at Tully st., Chestnut Hill, in Brookline. The car was driven by James Armstrong of Freeman st., Brookline. Green died on Monday at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital. His funeral was held on Thursday morning at Sacred Heart Church, Newton Centre.

Entertain in Honor of Teacher Going to Syria

Miss Eileen F. Sheehan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew F. Sheehan of 715 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, entertained at a dinner on Thursday evening, September 6, in honor of Miss Esther Muirhead, daughter of Rev. Andrew S. Muirhead of Hingham and Brockton, and a graduate of The Wheelock School, class of 1934, of which Miss Sheehan was also a graduate. Among the guests were fifteen fellow graduates of the school who had formed a close friendship during their three year course. The decorations were in blue and gold, the colors of the Wheelock School.

The affair was a complete surprise to Miss Muirhead who is to sail on September 18 for Beirut, Syria, where she will take the post of the principal of the kindergarten school connected with the American University there. She received many gifts from her schoolmates, a telegram was sent to her by Mr. Sheehan, father of the hostess who is away on a business trip wishing her bon voyage.

Miss Sheehan, who entered the Sacred Heart Academy at the age of six, graduated from their Academy at Newton in 1930. She spent a year at the Convent of the Sacred Heart in Norton, Conn., graduating from there in 1931, and in September of that year entered the Wheelock School from which she graduated with high honors last June. In October she will enter Boston University School of Education.

To Present Series of Five Children's Plays

A series of five plays for children will be presented by the Newton Dramatic Club beginning on Saturday, Sept. 29th, at 2 o'clock with the Racketty-Packetty House by Frances Hodgson Burnett. This movement is meeting with heartiest endorsement from the leaders of the schools and from parents, and with glee by the countless children who find in their imaginative years keenest of delight in spoken plays.

The large cast includes Lee Patterson, Virginia Taylor, Gwendolyn Gulle, Barbara Clark, Hill Trube, Mrs. Allen Hubbard, Miss Barbara Lippincott, Miss Josephine Tyler, Margaret Mansfield, Susan Shirley, Frances Ripley, Glenna Eldredge, Anne Merrill, Charline Bailey, Aldith Sutton, Richard Domes, John Callahan, Betty Hutchinson, Ellis Dierdorf, Philip Gelscher, J. Wilbur Keller, Beverly Trube, Barbara Hiller, Willard Wood, Bruce and Keith Carpenter.

The chairman of all committees is Mrs. A. Harry Hutchinson; chairman of properties, Mrs. Hugo Geisler; chairman of costumes, Mrs. Franklyn Trube; chairman membership and tickets, Miss Barbara Lippincott; chairman candy and ushers, Mrs. Jacob Randolph; chairman productions, Mrs. E. W. Varney; chairman advertising, Mrs. Reginald Gulle. The favorite story of the Racketty Packetty dolls who in their shabbiness were so gay and jolly and of the ridiculous stuck up lords and ladies is a popular one with children of every generation. Mrs. Varney has produced children's plays for fourteen years. The series of plays offered is valuable to the community as a very definite contribution to the cultural and imaginative life of the child.

Fire In Mattress Shop at Nonantum

A fire which started in the basement of the mill building on Chapel st., Nonantum, Saturday night caused damage estimated at about $2000. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an overheated motor attached to a machine in the basement. Nicholas Lupo, who resides across the street from the Rose-Derry Mattress factory, saw the flames at 8:51 and pulled Box 24. Much of the damage was caused by water from the automatic sprinkler system which was started by the heat before the arrival of the firemen.

Claims $800 Land Damage From City

Patrick A. Hayes of 312 Centre st., Newton, has entered a claim for $800 against the City of Newton because of damage to a lot of land he owns on Salisbury rd., Newton. The city routed the large sewer constructed in 1932 through Hayes' land, and he claims the value of the lot has been greatly reduced as a result.

Matt. B. Jones Resigns as Pres. Of Telephone Co.

Matt B. Jones of Ledges road, Newton Centre, resigned on Tuesday as president of the New England Telephone Company, a position he had held since 1919. He will continue as chairman of the board. His successor is John J. Robinson, vice-president of the New York Telephone Company. Mr. Jones was born in Walsville, Vermont, 63 years ago and graduated from Dartmouth College in 1894. After graduating from Harvard Law School he became a member of the firm of Powers, Hall & Jones, counsel for the New England Telephone Company. He has been a resident of Newton Centre for many years and has taken an active part in civic affairs.

Two Men Fined; Stole Apples From Newton Estate

Cornelius Brosnahan, 40, and Dennis Sweeney, 35, both of Brookline, were arrested about 3 o'clock Sunday morning by Patrolmen Bibbo and Phillips on the charge of stealing apples from the estate of George F. Harwood at 14 Ivanhoe st., Newton. When the men were detected on the estate, a telephone message was sent to police headquarters and a cruising car sent to the place. The police car scouted about the district and the policemen noticed a car parked on Woodchester rd. The patrolmen waited in the vicinity and arrested Brosnahan as he came to enter the car. Sweeney was captured as he also emerged from the Commonwealth Golf links which adjoin the Harwood property. In the Newton court on Monday each was fined $10.

Painting Exhibit At The Library

There will be an exhibition of tempera paintings by Russell W. West, of Newton, in the new art room (formerly the children's room) of the Main Library, Centre Street, Newton Corner, from September 24 to October 8. The hours are from 10 to 6 and from 7 to 9 in the evening, daily except Sunday. Mr. West graduated from the Massachusetts School of Art, Boston, in 1932. He was awarded a scholarship for a year's study in the Paris Ateliers Branch of the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts (Parsons). Paintings done in Paris and New England will be shown.

Waltham Motorist Is Fined $30

Adelo DiGregorio of Moore st., Waltham, was fined $20 in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car without a license, and $10 for not having the car properly licensed. Serg. Chisholm of the Metropolitan police testified that the defendant's car was parked near Echo Bridge at Upper Falls without being properly licensed and that the defendant produced a license which had expired.

German Youth For Hitler, Says Rotary Speaker

"About sixty to sixty-five per cent of the people of Germany are solidly behind Hitler," said Dr. Ralph Bischoff in his talk to the Rotarians on Monday. "That," he added, "is probably a conservative estimate. Of course, many more are upholding his regime although in many instances rather halfheartedly. They criticize the Fuehrer but find him the least objectionable of three alternatives. In other words, they prefer Hitler to Communism and to a Hohenzollern or similar military regime. Those critical people are the older folk; the youth of the country are solidly Nazi."

Mr. Bischoff, a graduate of Wesleyan and the Harvard Law School, has just returned from Germany to join the Wesleyan faculty. He spent four months in Germany on a fellowship during which time he had unusual opportunities to study the situation from many angles. The weeks spent in a camp for young unemployed men, visits to a Silesian estate where he came in contact both with the gentry and the peasants, and the many months in Berlin, where he witnessed many Nazi demonstrations and saw the pagantry which is a part of the great propaganda program, formed the background for a most interesting and illuminating story. "We must try to put ourselves in the German's shoes," said Dr. Bischoff. "His background is very different from ours. The American emphasizes personal liberty, the German the all importance of the state." Thus, the speaker found, that the Germans accepted the June purgings with equanimity. Something to be regretted, to be sure, but treason is treason and must be punished.

As for the Jews, Mr. Bischoff feels sure the persecutions have been greatly exaggerated. In Berlin, Jewish life is going on much as before, especially in the business world. Everybody still flocks to Wertheim's big department store. Dorothy Thompson has presented a wrong picture. So interested were the club members and their guests in the able presentation of the speaker's experiences that nearly all stayed on for an extra half hour to ask questions and to learn more.

Among the guests, the Club was glad to welcome the Rev. Tage Teisen, the new rector of Grace Church, Newton, a member of the Troy Rotary Club during his recent pastorate in that city. Mr. Teisen was the guest of Rotarian Ray Lang.

Burglar Scare At Newton Centre

When Newton police headquarters received a telephone message last Sunday from Mrs. Cora Weathers of 742 Commonwealth ave., Newton Centre, with information that a burglar was in her home, a squad of policemen rushed to the house in cruising cars. They found that the supposed burglar was a maid employed in Mrs. Weathers' home. Sunday was her day off and she had returned to the house without her employer's knowledge, and was taking a bath when the latter returned home, and seeing a light in the bathroom, concluded that some intruder had entered the house.

Make Complaints About Dogs

Two owners of dogs in this city were notified by the police last Friday to restrain their pets after complaints had been made by neighbors that the dogs in question had evidenced threatening dispositions. A complaint against a dog owned by Harry E. Noyes of 65 Prospect Park, Newtonville, was made by Rupert Thompson of the same street. A complaint against a dog owned by Vincenzo Lalli of 138 Florence street, Newton Centre, was made by Mrs. A. Peprucci of 15 Hammett place.

Rumor of Trouble At Newton Mill Proves False

A squad of Newton police rushed to the Security Mills on Munroe street, Newtonville, last Monday morning when the management of the mill were told that labor agitators intended to picket the mill in an attempt to make the employees there go on strike. The information proved erroneous, as no persons appeared to picket the place, nor has any trouble occurred since. The mill manufactures knit goods and is doing a good business. The management of the mill states that the employees there are satisfied with working conditions and have no desire to go on a strike.

Made Dean of Sargent School

Ernest Hermann, Playground Commissioner of the City of Newton and for several years director of the Sargent School of Physical Education, has been made dean of that school. When Boston University opened its college term this week the institution was made up of eleven schools instead of ten as formerly.

Five years ago Boston University annexed the Sargent School and Mr. Hermann, who had been associated with the Cambridge school for many years, was retained as a director. By a vote of the Board of Trustees he has been made dean and the School of Physical Education been given the distinction of an entirely separate school. Formerly it has been a department of the school of Education which also includes such schools as that of Art. Graduates of the new school will receive the degree of bachelor of science in physical education upon the completion of the four-year course. Until now the degree has been bachelor of science in education.

More Claims For Alleged Blasting Damage

Although many months have passed since the work of excavating the tunnel for the big sewer at Newton was ended, claims for alleged damages to houses continue to come to the Board of Aldermen. Some of the houses alleged to be damaged in the latest batch of claims are located a considerable distance from the tunnel. The newest claims include the following:—E. C. Clayton, garage at 45 Salisbury rd.; Leo Horrigan, 102 Arlington st.; Arthur Johnson, 6 Merion st.; Mildred Paige, 52 Bennington st.; Mrs. W. F. O'Brien, 12 Academy rd.; Dr. Miriam Udlin, 29 Marlboro st.

Start Work on Farwell St. Bridge

Work on replacing the old bridge over the Charles River at Farwell street, Waltham, was started on Tuesday by the Waltham contractors who secured this job. The bridge is a short distance from the Newton-Waltham line and has been used extensively in past years by persons who travelled between the two cities by way of North street, Newtonville. The old bridge was condemned about a year ago and half of it closed to vehicular traffic. The City of Waltham obtained a P. W. A. grant to enable the erection of a new bridge. A temporary foot bridge will be erected at Farwell street, but until the new bridge will have been erected, all vehicular traffic must cross the river either by the bridge at Bemis, or over one of the bridges at Waltham.

Not Guilty of Drunken Driving

Archibald Orlik of 528 Grove street, Lower Falls was found not guilty by Judge Lynch in the Newton court last Friday on the charge of driving a car while under the influence of liquor. Orlik was arrested on the night of August 31 by Patrolmen Treddin and Walsh when he stalled his car at a traffic light. He told the policemen at the time of his arrest that he had taken a drink of liquor. Judge Lynch ruled that one drink of liquor does not necessarily render a man under the influence of liquor. Orlik had a previous conviction for driving a car while under the influence of liquor and had been found guilty, a mandatory jail sentence would have to have been imposed.

Burglaries At Chestnut Hill

The home of Homer L. Bigelow at 37 Old Orchard rd., Chestnut Hill, was entered between September 14 and September 16 during the absence of the family. The extent of the loot is not known as the family has not returned. At about the same time the home of Donald Angier at 101 Old Orchard road was entered. Entrance was effected by breaking a window at the Angier home and forcing a window at the Bigelow house, Newton police detectives have obtained a clue to the burglars and recovered some of the loot.

38 Per Cent of Newton Voters Cast Ballots At State Primaries

Two Burglaries At Newton, Police Recover Loot

Two burglaries were discovered at Newton on Sept. 13. When Charles L. Brink returned to his home at 37 Park ave. late on the afternoon of that day he discovered that the house had been entered, some jewelry, including watches, stolen, and a bureau and the floor in one room damaged by a slight fire, evidently started by a cigarette. The burglary had been committed between 2 and 5:15 p. m., as occupants of the house were in it other than between those hours. Entrance was effected by forcing a window.

On the same day Patrolman Michael Keating discovered that the home of Rose Loring at 115 Shorncliffe rd., Newton, had been entered. Keating found the house in proper condition at 10 that morning, but at 3 in the afternoon learned of the break. Miss Loring is away, so the extent of the loot there is not known.

Inspectors King and Burke and Special Officer Feeley of the Newton Detective Bureau, under the direction of Captain Good, went to work on these cases and have recovered much of the loot. As a result of their investigation, two Brighton youths, aged 15 and 16, will be arraigned in the juvenile session of the Newton court this morning charged with these burglaries. One of the pair has a previous record.

Planning Board Takes Action on Zone Changes

The Newton Planning Board has rendered its opinions on several petitions for zoning changes and building alterations which have been recently presented to the Board of Aldermen. The Board approves the petition of the Monaghan estate to alter the building at 1545 Washington street, West Newton, corner of Auburn street, to permit changes in the gasoline filling station at that locus. The Board also approves the petition of Peter Hanson to enlarge his store at 196 Auburndale avenue, Auburndale. This store is conducted under the non-conforming clause in a residence zone.

The Planning Board is opposed to the petition of Matilda Brison to have a parcel of land at 907 Watertown street, West Newton changed from residence to business zone. It also is opposed to the petition of Mrs. Caspar Isham for a permit to convert a single residence at 51 Hyde street, Newton Highlands into a two-family dwelling.

Prohibitionists Meet To Protest

A meeting is being arranged by Newton members of the State Prohibition Committee to observe the 65th anniversary of the Prohibition Party. It will be held in this city in the near future, will be addressed by prominent speakers and the public will be invited. Members of the Prohibition Party contend that 37 deaths by automobiles in this State the week before last, was due largely to drunken driving, caused by the repeal of the 18th Amendment.

Fall Fatal To New. Ctr. Woman

Miss Maria H. Taylor, 78, of 41 Clark street, Newton Centre, died on September 15 as the result of a fall down a flight of stairs. She received a fracture of the skull. Miss Taylor was a native of Vermont and had resided in this city for years. Her funeral was held on Tuesday and cremation was at Mount Auburn.

Bacon Gets 7851 Votes, Goodwin 934—Miss McGill and Brown Get Big Majorities Here

With excellent weather conditions prevailing, 11,461 Newton voters went to the polls yesterday to perform their civic duty at the State Primaries. Of this number, 9,014 were Republicans. The total of registered voters in Newton is 35,439, so that the percentage voting was . . . . . At the primary election on Tuesday, September 20, 1932, the total number of votes cast was 10,295; the percentage of the total registration was about 37%. The Presidential election that year undoubtedly caused a greater interest in politics.

Results in the voting in this city yesterday ran, for the most part, according to expectations. Lieut. Governor Gaspar Bacon swamped Frank Goodwin. Bacon received 7851 votes; Goodwin 934. In the Councilor contest Miss Margaret McGill polled 5310 votes, Frank A. Brooks 2187, Wood 563 and Kaufman 158. In the fight for the Republican nomination for Sheriff, Harry Dunlap Brown received 3688 votes, McElroy 1612, Kidder 1194 and Walker 709.

In the Representative contests all four present members of the Legislature from Newton were nominated. In the 4th Middlesex District the vote for Baker was 2929, Brimblecom 3049, Morrison 538. In the 5th Middlesex District the vote for Saltonstall was 4165, Luitwieler 2639, Gordon 1586. Luitwieler's majority over Gordon was larger than anticipated. Despite active work in the latter's behalf by a number of influential Republicans, Luitwieler carried all three wards in the district, leading in Ward 4, Gordon's home ward, by the close vote of 446 to 442. In the contest for County Commissioner, Victor F. Jewett outclassed the field, receiving 4804 votes. Adams received 1010 and Brown 981.

For the Democratic nominations, Curley received 1463 votes for Governor and Cole 887. Hurley lead Kelly for Lieut. Governor, 1406 to 766. In the Congressional contest, Russell received 738 votes, Brophy 399, White 790.

Newton Health Board Grants Hennerly Permit

The Newton Board of Health has granted a permit to Ezra Forte of 286 Webster st., Auburndale, to keep 250 hens at that address. Forte has a permit to keep hens for many years and recently petitioned for a permit to increase the number. A hearing was held on this matter last week. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Keane of 294 Webster st. protested against Forte being allowed to increase the number of poultry at his place. They stated that the crowing of roosters there awakened them in the early hours of the morning and kept them awake. They also objected to other conditions caused by the Forte henery. Several other persons residing in the neighborhood testified that Forte's hens and roosters did not bother them. Forte stated that he kept roosters only during the breeding seasons. Dr. Curtis and John C. Madden of the Board of Health, who were present at the hearing, voted to grant the permit.

Add Another Visitor to The Welfare Dept.

Miss Cecile Rochette of 1349 Centre st., Newton Centre, who has been employed by the Newton Welfare Department as a stenographer and clerk, has been given a temporary appointment as a social service worker in this department. The large increase in the number of families receiving aid necessitates another worker. May Weeks has stated that he will ask the Civil Service Commission to hold an examination for the appointment of a permanent social service worker.

Armored Police Car Crashes Thru Railroad Fence

One of the two armored cruising cars of the Newton police department crashed through the iron fence at the Boston & Albany railroad embankment on Lewis street, Newton, on Monday afternoon. The car stopped before it slipped down the steep embankment onto the tracks. The accident occurred when the police car driven by Patrolman Edward Foley, and a car driven by William Scheren of 130 Crafts st., Newtonville collided. Both cars were proceeding onto Lewis st. from opposite directions on Washington st. The heavy armored car got out of control and crashed through the fence. Foley and McDonough reported that they had received slight injuries, but they did not have to report off duty. Both automobiles were slightly damaged.

Old Swindle Racket Worked In Newton

During the past week an old swindle has been worked in Newton. A middle aged man called at a number of houses where signs were displayed advertising "Rooms To Let." He asked to be shown the room or rooms to be rented, told glib stories about being employed as an interior decorator and other occupations in this city at the various houses he visited, agreed to hire the rooms and then tendered a check at each place in payment. The check was made out for a larger amount than the rent of the room. Complaints were made to the police by Mary McCarthy of 239 Washington st. and Charlotte Cave of 11 Carleton st. that they had cashed checks for the swindler.

THE WEEK IN NEWTON SPORTS*NEWTON READY TO FACE ARLINGTON IN OPENING GAME

Tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock Coach Ralph Sanborn of the Newton High school football team will send his charges against the invading eleven from Arlington High at the Dickinson Field gridiron in Newtonville. The orange and black eleven has every incentive to open the season with a victory. Last year the local outfit got off to a rather uncertain start, losing its opening tussle with Arlington, winning from Cambridge Latin and Watertown and then losing to Everett and Brockton before the season reached the midway mark.

In the opening line-up tomorrow Coach Sanborn will have a team comprised of eleven youths who saw service last season, seven of them being 1933 lettermen. Defensively the locals should give a good account of themselves as six of the seven real veterans are stationed in their former positions in the line. Offensively the backfield may take time to develop with but one letterman on hand.

On the ends of the Newton line will be Captain Gus Castoldi and Jim Byrnes who are expected to be prominent during the season at hand. The tackles will be Ben Grow and Galen Clevenger, the latter the only new-comer in the frontier. Clevenger played some last season and with his height and weight should come along fast with experience. The guards will be Gale Wisbach and Sam Miller, both veterans, and regulars a year ago. In the middle of the line will be Melvin Swig who divided his time last year at center and tackle. Last season Charley Thompson was the center mainstay until injured when Swig was shifted from his tackle berth to center to fill in until Thompson returned to duty.

The starting backfield against Arlington tomorrow will be Gil Myers at quarterback. Myers has shown promise as a field general and with regular duty should be a main cog in the Newton offense. His teammates in the backfield will be Paul Treannie, letterman from the 1933 team, Savignano and Moore.

Arlington will not prove easy prey for the orange and black, however, as Coach Fred Ostergren also has quite an array of veterans on hand. The tentative starting line-up of the invaders has been announced as follows: Guzelian, le; Manoli, lt; Moeglin, lg; Dorrington, c; Genge, rg; Collins, rt; McFadden, re; Madden, qb; Gardella, lbh; Lennon, rbb; Shields, fb. Lennon, the fullback, is the only inexperienced member of the team coming up from a junior high school team, where he starred last year. The remainder of the list, although not entirely composed of lettermen, numbers among it several regulars from last season including co-captains Bill Collins and Pete Manoli, and Gardella and Shields in the backfield.

Although handicapped somewhat this week by the inclement weather, Coach Sanborn has had his squad out of doors every day except Monday. With a weather report of unsettled weather again for tomorrow the locals should be familiar with unfavorable conditions. The outstanding weakness noted in the practice sessions of the 1934 Newton outfit has been the lack of a capable punter. Coach Sanborn has been giving this problem particular attention. Naturally there is an uncertainty as to the reaction of the entire squad under the pressure of its first game but Coach Sanborn is confident that his charges will give a good account of themselves.

Martin Wins and Loses

Donald Martin of West Newton shared in the winning of one title and lost in the final match for another in the Franklin Field tennis tournaments which ended Sunday. The local youth lost to Maynard Weisberg of Dorchester in the public parks men's singles tourney after a three-hour battle. Weisberg's victory was by scores of 7-5, 6-1, 9-7. Martin has been twice a winner and Weisberg, defending champion, gained his second title so that each now has two legs on the James M. Curley trophy. Saturday, Martin, playing with Walter Levitan, captured the doubles title, defeating Weisberg and his partner, Murphy, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, 7-5.

Ferguson Wins Titles

Clinton Ferguson of Waban captured two amateur national titles in the outboard motor boat championships on the Schuylkill river at Philadelphia last Sunday. Ferguson, a 17-year-old youth, nosed out Tyson of Philadelphia for the Class A crown and then came back to capture the Class B division laurels from Lew Franco of New York. On Monday, Ferguson set a Class C world's speed record of 45.229 miles per hour to top a mark of 45.229 by Tyson a short while previous. Ferguson held the record but a short while as the 1933 mark was shattered for a third time when Tyson was clocked in 45.868 miles per hour. Ferguson held the previous record of 45.291, making it last year.

Suburban League GameONLY ONE CHANGE IN LOCAL FOOTBALL SCHEDULE THIS YEAR

Facing Arlington High tomorrow in the first game on its 1934 schedule the Newton High School football team embarks on a ten-game schedule which is one of the stiffest of any team in Newton school history. There is but one change in the 1934 schedule from that of last year. This change is in the third game where Newton will entertain Lynn English High instead of Watertown. The only other difference in the schedule is in the site of various games where Newton has home and home arrangements on alternate years.

Last year Newton opened at Arlington on the next to the last Saturday in September. This season the game will be staged at Newtonville. For its second game for a number of years Newton has opened the Suburban League season against Cambridge Latin. Last year this game was played at Newton so that this year the battle will be staged at Russell Field, North Cambridge on Friday, Sept. 28th.

As stated Lynn English takes the third date on the Newton schedule, coming to Newton on Saturday, Oct. 6. On Friday, Oct. 12, Columbus Day, Newton will go to Everett. Last year the annual game between the two great rivals was staged at Newtonville with the Glidea-coached outfit tumbling Newton in a last period flash.

Last year Newton and Brockton High got together at Brockton for the first meeting between the two. The game was number five on Newton's schedule and followed the Everett game. Newton was defeated 14 to 0. This year Newton will entertain Brockton at Newtonville the week after the Everett game, Saturday, Oct. 20 and hopes to get revenge for last year's setback.

The Brockton affair will be followed by the usual "breather" with Quincy. This game which begins the last half of the schedule is annually becoming more and more of a major contest. While Quincy is not rated in the same class with Everett, Brockton and other large school teams the boys from the Granite City have given the orange and black many uncertain moments and have proved a real opponent. This year should be no exception as the Quincy outfit opened its season a week ago against an alumni group and showed considerable promise.

November 3rd, the first Saturday in November Newton entertains Rindge Tech instead of playing at Russell Field as a year ago. This is the second Suburban League clash and is important in that it gives a fairly good indication of the probable league champion. Newton is defending champion in the league this year having captured the honors in the two previous years, 1932 and 1933.

Saturday, November 10th and Saturday, November 17th are two important Saturdays for the local clan. A trip to Manchester, N. H. is in prospect for the day before Armistice Day while a trip to Waltham is in order for the following week. Both of these games were played at Newtonville a year ago. Newton triumphed over the New Hampshire outfit a year ago and will be out for a second consecutive victory. Newton also defeated Coach Jack Leary's Watch City outfit last year and there is little need to comment on the great rivalry between Newton and Waltham. This year's game, as every year, is a high spot on the Newton schedule.

Newton will close its season as usual on Thanksgiving Day morning against Brockton. The game this year will be at Newtonville. It not only climaxes the season for the two great rivals but it also is a Suburban League affair and usually determines the titleholder.

As in previous years the September games at home will be started at three o'clock while the October games will begin at two-thirty and the November games at two. The Thanksgiving Day game will be at 10:30 in the morning. The schedule:

Sat., Sept. 22 Arlington at Newton.

Friday, Sept. 28 Cambridge at Cambridge.

All Britain Agog Over Launching Of No. 534

Final preparations have been completed for the launching of Great Britain's mammoth ship, No. 534, at Clydebank, Scotland, on September 26th. She will slide down the ways at 2:50 P. M. (Greenwich Time) or 9:50 A. M. Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

National interest in the launching of the giant Cunard White Star liner has been keyed up to a fever pitch, particularly since the secret of its name has been carefully guarded and still remains a mystery. Rumors to the contrary, the world will not know the name of the new ship until it is pronounced by Queen Mary and radioed to all parts of the globe.

Every country in the world has been linked up with the British Broadcasting System which will broadcast the launching ceremony of the giant vessel at the John Brown Shipyard. The event will take place from 2:50 to 3:30 P. M. in Clydebank, that is 9:50 to 10:30 A. M. Eastern Daylight Saving Time in the United States. American listeners will be able to hear a vivid description of the event through the facilities of the National Broadcasting Company and Columbia networks.

Microphones which have been placed along the sliding ways of the giant ship will record the excitement of the crowd, as well as the roar of No. 534 as she slides down the slippery incline to the Clyde, accompanied by monstrous screechings from the heavy drag chains which delay her descent into the water.

As soon as the great ship is launched, its stern will head part way up the River Cart, a tributary of the Clyde, whose banks have been widened but will still be only twenty feet from either side of the mammoth vessel. A score of tugs will then tow her out of the River Cart into the Clyde and to the John Brown "fitting out" basin, where on account of her huge length she will protrude 100 feet into the river.

As it has been estimated that the launching of No. 534 will produce a wave of about 8 feet, the roadway for ¼ mile along the banks of the Clyde and the Cart will be closed to the public.

Over 100,000 visitors are expected to witness the ceremony. Bus, steamship and railway concerns have arranged special conveyances to Clydebank. Every available agency—newspapers, motion pictures, radio—will cover the event, and photographs of the ceremony will be rushed to London by plane. As the launching date coincides with the weekly half-holiday for shopkeepers in hundreds of Scottish towns and villages, Clydebank and Renfrewshire are likely to experience the greatest invasion of visitors in their history.

LASELL JUNIOR COLLEGE

Lasell Junior College opens its eighty-third year for registration on Friday, September 21, with a large enrollment. The additions to its faculty are: Miss Mary Lichter, A.M., Chicago, University, in the English Department and as assistant to the Dean; Miss Catherine Beasley, A.M., Radcliffe, in the English Department; and Mrs. Malcolm B. Davis, A.M., University of Berlin, in the German Department.

A popular addition to the campus is a new recreation house equipped with rooms for games, lounging and a kitchenette.

The first Vesper service will be held in Bragdon Hall on Sunday evening, September 23d, in charge of Reverend J. Burford Parry of the Wellesley Congregational Church.

Newton Centre Garden Club To Hold Flower Show

The Autumn Flower Show of the Newton Centre Garden Club will be held in the Library Hall on Tuesday, September 25th, from 1 until 9 p. m. The classes include uniform baskets of fruit and vegetables, arrangements of garden flowers, arrangements of roadside materials, large arrangements, and three or more roses in glass. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The committee includes Mrs. John W. Cooke, Jr., Acting Chairman; Mrs. George Hannauer, Co-chairman; Mrs. Walter H. Dietz, Mrs. Thomas Booth, Mrs. Ernest Alley, Mrs. Raymond Stowell, and Mrs. Gustav Breitke.

Waban Woman Pilot To Speak at Men's Club

At the monthly meeting of the Men's Club of Newton Highlands, which is to be held on Wednesday evening, Oct. 3, a group of well-known Boston aviation folks will be the principal guests. Mrs. Theodore W. Kenyon, champion woman sportsman pilot of the world and a resident of Waban, will address the Club. She will tell of some of her interesting experiences in the air. On the same program will be Mr. Kenyon, a former air pilot who has pioneered in the development of aircraft instruments.

An interesting film, "Flying Across the Nation in 18 Hours," will be shown by Emma J. Whitcomb, New England representative of United Air Lines. Another speaker will be George Mason, aviation editor of the Boston Evening Transcript and Governor for the National Aeronautic Association in Massachusetts. The Committee in charge of the program is headed by Kenneth S. May. President Charles C. Dasey will preside.

Fourteen Newton Girls At Colby Junior College

Out of one hundred sixteen Massachusetts students, fourteen girls at Colby Junior College in New London, New Hampshire, are from the Newtons.

Miss Jean Morrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Morrow of Arlington street, and Miss Elizabeth Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Smith of Eliot Memorial road, Newton, are returning for the senior year. Miss Marjorie Emmert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Emmert of Shorncliffe road, and Louise Nickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Nickerson of Walker street, are juniors.

Miss Evelyn Morse, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Morse of Woodward street, is a senior. Miss Barbara Cutting, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laroy E. Cutting, is a junior, and Miss Viola St. Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. St. Lawrence, of Waban avenue, Waban, is a sophomore.

Miss Constance Crabtree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Crabtree of Beacon street, Newton Centre, is a freshman, and Miss Gertrude Hawes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilton L. Hawes of Elgin street, is a junior.

Miss Carolyn Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Clifton of Prescott street; Miss Virginia Conant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Conant of Kirkstall road, and Miss Eleanor Sullivan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Sullivan of Washington Park, Newtonville, are enrolled as seniors.

Miss Martha Jane Biggert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biggert of Watertown road, and Miss Alice Jack, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Jack of Austin street, West Newton, have returned to Colby for their senior year.

Boy Soloist To Sing At Central Club Meeting

At the opening meeting of Central Club to be held in the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville on Monday evening, October first, the committee has announced that Donald Blackey, boy soloist of Trinity Church, Boston will sing a group of songs. Donald is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude I. Blackey of Elm road, Newtonville. Mrs. Blackey will be his accompanist. This is his second year as soloist at Trinity.

Day Jr. High School

It is expected that the portable building which is being erected in a part of the school yard near the tennis courts will be completed within the week. It will contain accommodation for about a hundred and fifty bicycles. This will relieve the congestion in the lower corridor of the school where bicycles have previously been kept.

Increased opportunity for physical training will be thrown open to boys when the new gymnasium is finished. There will be a splendid playroom with sound-proof ceiling and block floors of impregnated wood. Practically no apparatus except the basketball equipment will be in the playroom. The boys' locker room has been done over during the summer and now occupies a space nearly double its previous size.

The Radio Club is again organizing, under the direction of Mr. Alden Read, with a promising group of twenty eager boys and girls. It is hoped this year that arrangements may be made to broadcast over a national hookup.

A short series of after-school movies will be held in the auditorium at various times during the year. Money from these entertainments will go towards the establishment of a book fund from which books may be purchased for the school library. It is expected that each program will include travel, comedy and sports films.

Tennis tournaments have been arranged by Mr. Addison Cowles for the boys and also for the girls. Nineteen boys and ten girls are participating.

This year the "Daytonian," the school publication, will not be a magazine, but a four-page newspaper. The English department will serve as a clearinghouse for the contributions which all departments will be urged to make. Copies of the paper, to be issued monthly, will be sold for only five cents apiece, and will contain as usual stories, editorials, pictures, linoleum block cuts and other interesting features. Miss Helen Spelman is chairman of the faculty advisory board which consists of Miss Susan Doran, Miss Hattie Hinkley, Mr. Morris Brown, Mr. Addison Cowles.

Miss Ethel Richards, a graduate of Radcliffe, is a new member of the teaching staff. Last year she did practice teaching at the Pierce school. She will teach all the music classes and also some English and social studies classes.

Waban Community Garden Club Holds Flower Show

Waban Community Garden Club which includes men, women and children held its first flower show Monday afternoon and evening at the Library Basement. Although it was a rainy day there was a good attendance both afternoon and evening. As to variety and quality outstanding contributors to the show were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford H. Walker, Mrs. J. H. Cotter and Mr. and Mrs. S. Bruce Black, Mr. L. A. Stephen, a well known gladioli grower and prize winner, had an exhibit and also Mr. Edwin Jones who showed 14 fine specimens.

Judging was done by popular ballot and prizes were eliminated in accordance with Newton school ideals. Classes and names of vote winners follow:

Class 1—Miniature bouquets: Miss Helen Monk, Miss Sylvia Meadows.
Class 2—Branches and berries: Mrs. Wm. Freethy, Miss Florence Maynard.
Class 3—Mixed flowers in antique containers: Mrs. Clifford Walker, Mrs. Clifford Smith.

Class 4—"What Have You": Mrs. P. D. Woodbridge, Mrs. S. Bruce Black.

Class 5—Specimens: Choicest flower exhibited was the "Sacred Lily of Jerusalem," Mrs. Stanley.

Class 6—Junior group bouquets: Allen Boniter, Betty van Gorder.

Class 6A—Junior group: Grown by exhibitor June Crocker, Donald Black.

Class 7—Shadow Boxes: Mrs. Wm. H. Harvey, Mrs. H. O. Stetson.

Mrs. T. R. Covey sold cider and doughnuts. There was also a sale of plants which were contributed by the Boston Gardening Co. and members.

Mrs. Wilfrid O. White was chairman of the show.

If Your Car Motor Is Not O. K. See Phil Bram

Phil Bram of the Bram Battery & Service at 252 Walnut street, Newtonville, proves that an individual business man can prosper and progress despite the long continued depression. We have had opportunities before to realize that Phil's enterprise and aggressiveness in his particular lines of business were two reasons why he is an exception, why his business has increased during the hard times of the past several years. The other day we had another opportunity to observe why Phil Bram is forging ahead.

We went into Phil's shop at Newtonville just as he had finished making a test of the motor of a popular make of automobile with his Weidenhoff Motor Analyzer. This car had been the cause of much worry, not only to its owner, but to experienced automobile mechanics. It had no power and could be operated only with difficulty. It was taken to the Boston service station of the company which distributes this car in this area and the motor was examined and serviced. The motor continued to operate as unsatisfactorily as before. An attempt was then made by a garage repair shop in this vicinity to find the trouble. It was not successful. Then the car was brought to the Bram shop at Newtonville and Phil Bram gave it a test with his Weidenhoff apparatus. He soon found the trouble. It was quickly eliminated by the replacement of a small, inexpensive part. The natural mechanical ability of Phil Bram, plus the assistance he gets from the most modern equipment, and his determination to give his patrons careful service, are among the reasons he is constantly building up his business.

If the motor of your automobile is sick and requires treatment, you will get a correct diagnosis regarding "what ails it" from Phil Bram.

Prices Reduced On Nash Cars

The Nash Motors Company have announced price reductions affecting all models of Nash cars. These prices are represented by reductions ranging from $60 to $150 on the purchase price of Nash cars. Sixty to eighty dollar reductions will apply to the 6-cylinder models, while prices on the larger 8-cylinder cars were lowered as much as $150. Every model in the entire Nash line has been affected by this downward price revision.

At the same time, the management of the Nash Motors Company announced proportionate adjustment in the Company's LaFayette line of cars with reductions varying from $10 to $30 on all models.

This new revision of prices on the Nash entry into the lowest priced car field, places the basic price at $585, f. o. b. the factory.

Red Cross to Resume Series of Winter Classes

Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick and First Aid classes will be resumed as usual this winter by the Newton Chapter, American Red Cross, with the Chapter Instructor, Miss H. Margaret Norcross. Miss Norcross may be interviewed at the office, 12 Austin street, Newtonville, or by telephoning Newton North 2717.

PLENTY OF WORK TO DO

Now that the primaries are over the next six weeks will be devoted to the campaign between the Republican and Democratic candidates. There is little question but that it will be one of the liveliest campaigns in the history of the Commonwealth. Lieutenant Governor Gaspar G. Bacon will lead the Republican party and he has already voiced the issue in a statement last night. Former Mayor James M. Curley of Boston proved by the large Democratic vote he received yesterday that his strength has been greatly underestimated by his opponents. If the Republican candidates are to win there is plenty of hard work to do between now and November.

A WORD OF THANKS

We take this opportunity to thank the voters of the 4th Middlesex District for the support given the writer for the Republican nomination as Representative to the General Court. During the past two years of service under the leadership of Speaker Saltonstall and as the colleague of Representative William B. Baker we have given our best to uphold the high character of representation Newton has always been privileged to maintain. We are pleased to believe that yesterday's vote is an indication that our constituents feel that we have done this in some measure.

Election

Totals received in the other Republican contests were as follows:

State Secretary, Dionne, 6681; Vinson, 1368. Auditor, Pigeon, 5776; Atherton, 209; Cook, 2214; Rich, 108. County Commissioner, Adams, 1010; Brown, 981; Collins, 142; Gilmore, 437; Griffith, 158; Jewett, 4804. Congressman Luce had a walkover, and the nomination for State Senator was handed to the present incumbent, Arthur W. Hollis, on a silver platter. He was unopposed after it had seemed until recently that he would have a strong opposition.

In the contests for the Democratic nominations, Curley received 1463 votes for Governor, Cole, 887, and Goodwin, 71. For Secretary the vote was—Santomaso, 987; Blake, 103; Buckley, 389; Dugan, 48; O'Brien, 126; Riley, 96; Sullivan, 193. For Auditor, Buckley received 1443, and Walsh, 436. For Attorney General, Sullivan received 475 votes; Chapman, 183; Dever, 1104; Boyle, 214.

The vote for Senator was—Walsh, 1649; Donahoe, 183, Barry, 412. For Congressman, Brophy, 339; Russell, 788; White, 730. For District Attorney, Bruin received 530; Crowley, 361; Daley, 504; Gavin, 341. For Sheriff the vote was—Brennan, 431; DeLuca, 74; Fox, 41; Griffin, 37; Kelleher, 285; Leahy, 138; Robert, 231; Ryan, 100; Walsh, 468.

Arrested For Drunken Driving After Accident

Harvey Haywood of Worcester st., Wellesley, was arrested Wednesday night by Patrolman Dalton and Serg. Crowley on charges of drunkenness and driving a car while under the influence of liquor. He was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and his case continued until September 27. It is alleged that the car driven by Haywood crashed into a cement fence on the Worcester turnpike. Mrs. Mildred Haywood received injuries to her head and face and was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. The couple went for aid to the home of Col. Henry D. Comerai at 1234 Boylston st.

Burglary at Newton Centre

Mr. and Mrs. A. Warren Arrington of 63 Grafton street, Newton Centre, returned to their home about 8:30 last Thursday night to find two burglars in their home. The burglars jumped through a window as the Arringtons entered the house, and escaped. They had ransacked the house, gathered bureau drawers in one room and were searching them when surprised. They stole about $100 in old gold coins, two watches and some other jewelry. The thieves entered the house by forcing a window.

Newton Men Exhibit Pictures in N. H. Salon

Two residents of Newton are among the fourteen members of the Boston Camera Club to have their photographic artistry exhibited in the second annual salon now being held at New London, N. H. For the second consecutive season the salon is under the direction of George F. Slade, Melrose, Mass., and will continue through the month of September.

Franklin I. Jordan of Newton, has had three photographs accepted at the New Hampshire exhibition. "The Sport of Kings" depicts the finish of a horse race with the leaders bunched at the finish, while the "Sword of the Prophet," with the knife upraised, sky is the most-discussed picture in the salon. His third entry is "The Guardian of Walpi." Jordan, one of the few Americans to be a Fellow in the Royal Photographic Society of London, England, has recently presented an exhibition of his own work at the Boston City Club.

The other Newton man is Hermann C. Lythgoe of Newtonville, who has on exhibition four of his pictures. His "Christmas Eve," showing a fine old brick house wrapped in holiday garb amid a snow setting, is one of the most popular photographs at the salon. His other pictures on display are: "A Glorious Day," "Over the Edge," and "Holstein Oxen."

Both Newton men are members of the Boston Camera Club and have entered photographs in the leading salons of the United States and abroad. Statistics compiled by officials at the New London salon show that the fifty pictures now on display have been exhibited in twenty-seven states and seventeen foreign countries, representing three continents of the world.

When Is A Private School Advantageous?

Public education in America is necessarily standardized within certain limits, both as to curricula and teaching methods. Unfortunately, from the educational standpoint children are not standardized and the result in many families is a cause for concern and worry. To judge a child's mental aptitude by his or her scholastic standing in school, is often dangerous and misleading, unless one knows just how the child-mind reacts to the pedagogic methods employed in the public schools.

This is where a well-organized private school, staffed by competent teachers thoroughly grounded in child psychology, and practically familiar with modern methods of imparting instruction, serves a purpose that the public school cannot fulfill because of standardized systems, large classes, and arbitrary time-limits.

Many pupils of The Misses Allen School for Girls, at West Newton, have shown remarkable development following their transfer from public schools. Each girl is an individual problem and is treated as such by Miss Lucy Ellis Allen, the Principal, and her staff of teachers. Classes are limited to six or eight girls, and the work of each pupil is carefully planned on the basis of the girl's individual ability to study. One result of this care and attention is that an unusually large majority of the students of The Misses Allen School pass their college entrance examinations with high marks and successfully continue their studies until they graduate from American or European colleges.

The Autumn term opens October 1. Miss Lucy Allen, the founder and principal, is always glad of the opportunity for a talk with parents who are undecided as to what would be the best school for their daughters. She is at home every day for this purpose.

WEST INDIES POPULAR IN SUMMER

The outstanding feature of the summer travel season is the fact that the Mauretania has made the West Indies popular for summer vacationists. This steamer has carried capacity lists on every cruise to the Caribbean and South America. Returning voyagers say that the Indies are cooler—or feel cooler—than cities in the Atlantic States. Many repeat the cruise to escape northern humidity.

Pays $20 For Buying Stolen Field Glasses

Sam Sing, who runs a laundry at 231 Auburn st., Auburndale, paid twice for the purchase of a pair of field glasses. He first paid 75 cents to an Auburndale boy. It was later discovered that this boy had stolen the glasses in Weston. The boy was sent to the Shirley Reform School. Sing was arraigned in the Newton court yesterday and fined $20.

Boy Hit By Auto At West Newton

George Hancock, 11, of 22 Fern st., Waltham, was hit by an automobile last Friday night at 8 as he was crossing Washington st. at Elm st., West Newton. He received injuries to his knees and was taken to the Newton Hospital in the police ambulance. According to Joseph Mahoney of Wilson st., Natick, the driver of the car which hit the boy, the latter ran from behind a parked bus.

REOPENING STUDIO

Newton is unusually fortunate in numbering among its citizens many who have attained national prominence in their respective lines of endeavor. And in the field of art, Stanley Woodward, among others, has achieved national recognition for his paintings of the ocean in all its moods.

Mr. Woodward is closing his summer studio on the John Eastman estate, Salem End rd., Framingham Center, with an exhibition of oils and watercolors this Saturday afternoon. Following this he will return to his permanent studio in the Bachrach building, 44 Hunt st., Newton Corner, where much of his current work will be on display.

Stanley Woodward first attracted attention just after his graduation from Malden High School by an exhibition of pencil and pen-and-ink sketches. Then followed years of study in the Eric Pape School, the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, and the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts. Summers on the Maine coast and various ocean cruises led to the development of an especial talent in marines and he is best known for his oils of rocky coast and midocean in all their varying moods. Along with these marines, however, are landscapes featuring the mountains of New Hampshire and Western Massachusetts and the tumbled down houses of the back-country.

Letters To The Editor

MR. BABSON APOLOGIZES

Sept. 18, 1934.

To the Editor:

May I use your columns to apologize to any people of your community who did not get seats at last Sunday afternoon's meeting at Babson Park?

First, let me say that the tickets were plainly marked as good only until 3:00 p. m. when the doors were opened to the public. This filled the house almost instantly so that at 3:01 not even standing room was available. I mention this because most of your townsmen who were disappointed did not get to the doors until just after 3:00 p. m.

On the other hand, there were a few persons who got there before 3:00 o'clock but could not get a seat. This was probably owing to people crowding in without tickets. To these I can only say that the same method of sending out tickets was followed this year as in all preceding years. We have always had a full house but this is the first year that we have been overwhelmed by the crowds. In view of this, I know you will forgive us this one time.

One thing more: next year we will have outdoors a loud speaker ready so that if there should again be more of a crowd than the auditorium holds, everyone will hear. We learn only through experience.

Sincerely yours,

ROGER W. BABSON.

P. S. The auditorium seats over 1500.

FALL ACTIVITY BRISK IN NEWTON

Alvord Bros. report that they have sold a charming small Colonial residence, in Newton Centre, at 285 Cypress st., to Misses Ethel B. Kerr and Elsie N. Kerr of Boston. The seller is the Whitinsville Savings Bank. This property contains six rooms, bath, garage, and 5,330 feet of land. The assessed value on this real estate is $6,100.

Alvord Bros. further report that they have sold for Chris J. Vachon of Newton a parcel of land located on Oxford road, Newton Centre, containing about 6,000 square feet more or less. The buyers, Glen R. Rowlands and H. Blake Rowlands of Newton, plan to start at once to erect an artistic Garrison Colonial house for the market. The lot has an assessed valuation of $1,100.

Alvord Bros. also report the sale of an attractive small home for the Newton Savings Bank to Arthur G. Chisholm of Newton. The property is located at No. 221 Dorset rd., Waban, and contains seven rooms, sun porch, garage, and 7,000 square feet of land. It is assessed at $8,300.

BARCELONA AN OLD, OLD, CITY

The foundation of Barcelona, Spain, is attributed to Hercules, 400 years "to a day before Rome was born." Its known history dates back several centuries before Christ. It was here that the first steamship was launched in 1543. It was propelled by two steam-driven wheels and attained a speed of three miles an hour.

ABOUT TOWN

By Edward H. Powers

Scientists have lately discovered that onions radiate ultra-violet rays which will cure nasal catarrh and pharyngitis, and that by wearing a necklace of onions one can cure a cold. This gives hope to persons like ourselves who have been life-long sufferers from nasal catarrh, a common ailment in this climate. So, if you observe us wearing a necklace of onions, don't be surprised. Perhaps we could get equally good results by replacing our spectacles with eyeglasses, and having a string of leeks instead of a black ribbon attached to them.

Our old friend, Porter Emerson Browne died yesterday at Norwalk, Conn. He was one of Newton's most famous sons. We first became acquainted with Porter Browne when he attended the old Bigelow School as a boy. We were agreeably surprised when he won national reputation as an author and playwright while only a young man. Porter had a frail body but he possessed a brilliant mind and a valiant heart. He had a delightful personality, and was a keen student of human nature. Together with all who enjoyed the privilege of knowing him, we regret his untimely end.

The condition of the sidewalks in the Newtons has been for years all too apparent to citizens of this city, especially those who walk regularly. Many claims for damages have been made against the city by persons who have fallen on sidewalks and received injuries. Practically all of such claims have been rejected. Many of them should have been rejected. Others seemed to have been justly made. During the past couple of years a few persons whose claims for damages have been rejected by the Newton Board of Aldermen have taken legal action and have received awards in the courts. One such award was made within the past two weeks. Perhaps if more damage suits against the city are won by plaintiffs, Newton will make long-needed repairs on its sidewalks.

The next mayoralty election in Newton is 15 months away. But, according to information we have received, at least one aspirant to the office of Mayor in this city is already feeling out the sentiment of citizens regarding his possible candidacy by having inquiries made at various homes. This gentleman is certainly taking Time by the forelock.

Miss Mary P. Sloan, a life-long resident of Newton, has given much of her time recently in obtaining signatures on a petition for a convenience station at Newton Corner. The need of such a place has been realized for many years by residents and business men of that district. The State should pass a law compelling all cities to have such stations. Public health and decency both demand them.

Mr. Curley is in a position now to give the raspberry not only to the erstwhile leaders of the Democratic Party in Massachusetts, but he can also guffaw in the direction of President Roosevelt and the Hon. James Farley.

Our annual two-weeks vacation ended on Labor Day. The preceding fortnight we had "rested" by touring in our ancient and honorable motor car. We visited Montreal, the Adirondacks, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont and Cape Cod. We observed that the great majority of autotests of the present day drive at high speed. Just why they drive at speeds of 45 miles an hour and over while on trips to enjoy scenery and see unfamiliar places, is beyond our understanding. Human beings have not yet evolved to the state where they can get any real view of the country through which they pass while they are traveling at express train velocity.

A reasonable amount of caution in driving. But, there are enough morons, near imbeciles and plain d—d fools operating cars to make motoring very hazardous and cause one to wonder why automobile accidents and fatalities are not even much more numerous. On the highway which parallels the Connecticut River between Brattleboro and Bellows Falls are many curves and grades. Several miles South of Brattleboro is a sharp reverse curve on a steep grade. As we drove down this hill an individual came along driving a car with a New Jersey registration. He attempted to take the reverse curve at a speed of about 60 miles an hour and swerved over onto the lane on which we were driving. He just managed to swing back to the right lane as he reached us. He was going too fast to hear what we called him.

A couple of miles north of Burlington, Vermont, as we drove along the two lane cement highway a car approached us going better than 50 miles an hour. This car was not over 100 feet distant when a New York car operated by a "lady" flashed by us at about the same rate of speed as the approaching car, cut out of line and only by the Will of God squeezed through. We would gladly have handed that "lady" driver a wallop on the chin, even though such an act on our part would not have been gentlemanly or gallant. These were two of about five such incidents we encountered on the trip. A small percentage, it is true, but enough to make us more convinced that the only effective way to stop the slaughter on our highways is—to have a Federal law compelling governors of automobiles.

We stopped at Keesville, New York one morning. A friendly young miss about 4 or 5 years of age coasted down a sidewalk on the village street on a velocipede, stopped where we were parked and remarked—"I have just come down the sidewalk 'lickety-cut, and I took a 'tumble-head' the last time I came down." It was the first time in years we had heard these expressions. Evidently old American slang is still in use up Keesville way.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Matter" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 23.

The Golden Text is: "Tremble thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob" (Psalms 114:7).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; . . . There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits; and they were healed every one" (Acts 5:12, 16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus instructed his disciples whereby to heal the sick through Mind instead of matter. . . . In Latin the word rendered disciple signifies student; and the word indicates that the power of healing was not a supernatural gift to those learners, but the result of their cultivated spiritual understanding of the divine Science, which their Master demonstrated by healing the sick and sinning" (p. 271).

THE PEARL OF THE PACIFIC

Samarai, one of the new ports on the Franconia cruise around the world via the Southern Hemisphere, is sometimes called the "Pearl of the Pacific." Is it like a great, beautiful garden, abounding in a wonderful variety of tropical flowers and plants. Hedges of crotons, hibiscus and bougainvillea are to be seen on all sides and old walls and trees are covered with zissualis creepers. Other features are the trees of frangipani in several colors of flower; poinciana, and wild mango casuarina.

EVERETT L. MARSTON

School. He was quite popular among his schoolmates and members of his class attended in a body his funeral service which was held on Wednesday afternoon at Immanuel Baptist Church. The service, which was largely attended, was conducted by Rev. Newton A. Merritt. The honorary pallbearers were the following schoolmates and chums of the dead boy—Paul Anders, William Barlow, Samuel Dyer, Jones Jackson, Richard Law, William Marston, Lawrence Neale and John Rooney. The pallbearers were—D. W. Anders, William Cady, Dr. Phillip Enholm, W. Irvington Long, A. N. Needy, Dr. Fred Thorne, Fred L. Trask and George Wye. Interment was in Dell Park Cemetery, Natick.

PORTER EMERSON BROWNE

Porter Emerson Browne died at Norwalk, Connecticut yesterday, September 20. He was born in Beverly, June 22, 1879, the son of Joseph E. and Evelyn (Porter) Browne. He came to Newton with his parents when a small child and attended the Bigelow School and Newton High School. In 1900 he became associated with the Boston Globe as a reporter, but after a couple of years had to go to Colorado for his health. Recovering his health, he went to work on a stock farm in Virginia and later on a plantation in South Carolina. For several years he wrote short stories for magazines and in 1906 achieved national prominence as a playwright as the author of "A Fool There Was." Other well known plays written by him included "The Spendthrift," "A Girl of Today" and "The Bad Man." The latter with Holbrook Blinn starring ran for a year on Broadway. He also wrote a number of popular novels and stories for the Saturday Evening Post, Collier's Weekly and other publications. In recent years he wrote moving picture scenarios and at the time of his death had three plays written, ready for production.

In 1907 he married Myrtle May of Chicago. She died in 1922. He is survived by two daughters, Susan Browne Malkin and Prudence Browne; and two sisters, Grace E. Browne of Newton and Marjorie Browne Hatch of Santa Monica, California.

FREDERICK T. MCGILL

Frederick T. McGill of 43 Fisher avenue, Newton Highlands, died on September 18 at the Deaconess Hospital. He was for many years associated with an English woolen concern. He was the father of Frederick T. McGill, Jr., formerly of the reference library of the Boston Herald-Traveler, and later assistant professor of English at Dana College, Newark, New Jersey. His funeral service was held at the Newton Center Unitarian Church on Thursday afternoon.

THERESE E. RUTAN

Mrs. Therese E. (McLaughlin) Rutan of 15 Jackson terrace, Newton, wife of Frederick S. Rutan, died on September 15 at Mass. Memorial Hospital, Boston. She was born in Dorchester and had resided in this city for two years. She is survived by her husband and one son, Frederick S. Rutan, Jr. Her funeral service was held on Tuesday at Our Lady's Church. Burial was in New Calvary Cemetery, Roslindale.

THOMAS SHEEHAN

Thomas Sheehan of 290 River st., West Newton, died on Sept. 17. He was employed by the Newton Street Department. He is survived by a daughter, Miss Mary Sheehan. His funeral service was held on Thursday morning at St. Bernard's Church. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery.

Electricians In Newton To Organize

On Wednesday evening, September 12th some of the master electricians of Newton met at the Edison building for the purpose of discussing plans for the formation of an association of Master Electricians. There were eight of the twenty-three in the Newtons present. Mr. Paul A. Hoyt was appointed chairman pro tem and subsequently Mr. Homer L. Welsh was made permanent chairman.

The purposes of the new organization will be to unify the industry with better conditions for the electrician, agreement on a price scale, co-operation with the NRA, and to keep in closer touch with the work going on. During the winter speakers from the Edison and Westinghouse Companies, the NRA and scientific organizations will address the meetings. Similar organizations have been formed in Norwood, Quincy, the Mystic Valley and other localities.

The next meeting of the Newton organization will be held this evening when it is anticipated that all other Newton electricians will become affiliated. The speakers at this meeting will be Mr. James Maxwell, president of the Mystic Valley Ass'n., Mr. Arthur P. MacGillivray, sec-treas. of the Mystic Valley Ass'n., and Charles Stone, editor of the New England Electrician's News.

Among the master electricians represented at the Newton Association were G. W. Ulmer, Welsh Electric Co.; Theo. O. Bjornson, Dimock & Turner, Inc.; Sydney L. Chant, A. R. Fairweather, Paul A. Hoyt, Lawrence Electric Service Co., Cole Electrical Co., Inc., and the Foreman Electric Co., Inc.

"Half Century Of Progress" In Waltham

Considerable local interest is being manifested in the proposed "Half Century of Progress" to be held in Waltham early next month. Extensive plans are being made for the handling of the crowds expected to view the exhibits during the affair which will be conducted for several days. Among the interesting exhibits will be the first showing in America of a large group of the famed and valuable collection of old automobiles comprising a major part of the Boston Museum of Automotive Conveyance. Among nearly forty different cars to be shown will be the Locomobile steam carriage built in Newton which is claimed to have climbed Pike's Peak in 1898. Another will be the Stanley Steam Car made in Newton. It has the tiller steering handle, a wooden frame with the boiler under the seat and the engine on the rear axle. Many other cars are included in the collection such as Mercedes formerly owned by the King of Italy, a White Steamer formerly owned by the late President Taft and the first official White House car, and what is believed to be the only Pontiac 2-cylinder car in existence.

Baseball World Series Broadcast By Ford Motor Co.

The baseball World Series games will start on Wednesday, October 3rd in the home park of the American League pennant winner, which at the present time looks like Detroit. This was decided on September 13 at a meeting of representatives of all contending clubs in the two major leagues at the office of Judge K. M. Landis in Chicago. The ticket scale price and a new radio plan of broadcasting were adopted. The players will benefit financially from the broadcasting.

The FORD MOTOR COMPANY will be the sole sponsor of the broadcast over the NBC and CBS networks. It will pay $100,000 for this privilege. The players will receive a substantial share of this sum. The Newton Motor Sales Company of 771 Washington street, Newtonville requests all its patrons and friends in the Newtons to listen in on these broadcasts.

Good Advice To Owners of Automobiles

Thomas Gallinelli of the Silver Lake Chevrolet Company at 448 Watertown st., Newtonville, gives excellent advice to automobile owners of Newton. He suggests that now is the time to have their cars inspected and placed in condition to withstand the rigorous weather of the coming winter months. He reminds car owners of the predicament many found themselves in last winter when they waited until freezing temperatures came before having the radiators of their cars filled with anti-freezing solutions. He says that wise motorists will save themselves money and bother by having the cooling systems in their automobiles properly flushed out now and cleaned from rust and other precipitations instead of waiting until freezing weather arrives. One cannot expect to have radiators carefully cleaned when a large percentage of motorists rush together to garages and repair shops. A few dollars spent on your car now, will save you many dollars during the coming winter.

Bing Crosby Film Is Paramount Feature

Starting at the Paramount Theatre, Sunday, for four days is "She Loves Me Not" featuring "Bing" Crosby with Miriam Hopkins co-starring. Added to the cast are "Kitty" Carlisle, who plays the dean's daughter, Judith Allen, Edward Nugent and George Barbier. With a number of song hits "She Loves Me Not" presents Crosby as the glib college boy who shields a scheming little night-club dancer from the police and gangsters. His gallant act lets loose a succession of events that reach their climax with the dancer in the movies, all their names in the newspapers and Crosby in the arms of the dean's daughter.

On the same program will be shown Bette Davis in "Housewife." Starring with Miss Davis is George Brent, Ann Dvorak and John Halliday.

Starting Thursday, "She Learned About Sailors" with Alice Faye and Lew Ayers is the feature. With this picture is Madge Evans and Otto Kruger in "The Intrepid."

Music School Trios Are Attracting Attention

During the past season, the several trios which have developed in the All Newton Music School have attracted attention and much favorable comment. The Kovitz-Olson Trio, made up of the brilliant young violinist, Anna Kovitz her talented young sister, Dorothy, pianist and pupil of Miss Lillian West, and the brilliant and most promising Norma Olson, cello pupil of Miss Ruth Masters, was in much demand last season and is already engaged for several fall occasions. The Kenway Trio of Newtonville made up of Virginia, Jean and Daphne Kenway and trained by Miss Irene Forte, is well and favorably known in the Newtons for church, club and social occasions. Faculty Trios and Quartet in which the Misses Forte, Pucciarelli, Kovitz and Masters figure need no introduction. These organizations are becoming widely known.

Well Known Singer to Direct Central Church Choir

Central Congregational Church of Newtonville announces the addition to its staff of Mrs. Marion Kingsbury of West Newton, as Director of both carol and Junior choirs and the semichorus.

Mrs. Kingsbury is a well-known soprano soloist and teacher of voice. She has appeared in private recitals in Jordan Hall and elsewhere, and has been soloist with the People's Symphony Orchestra. For ten years she was soloist at Second Church, West Newton, under William Lester Bates. Mrs. Kingsbury has also had a wide experience teaching and directing choruses, being director of the Glee Club of the West Newton Woman's Club for the past three years and was musical instructor in Rogers Hall, Lowell, a private school for girls, for three years.

Rehearsals of Central Church choirs under Mrs. Kingsbury are scheduled for each Thursday afternoon at the church. All former members and others who are interested are invited to attend the early rehearsals, as most interesting music is being studied and special training is offered the High School group and older members. Much interest has already been shown in the new plans.

The choral choir will make its first appearance this season on Rally Sunday, Sept. 30th, with Franklin Field, baritone soloist.

Dramateurs To Open Season With Two Plays

A noteworthy event of the coming amateurs' theatrical season is the opening night of the Dramateurs at the New Church Auditorium on Highland ave., Newtonville, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 25th, 1934, at eight o'clock.

This organization, now in its ninth year, has an enviable record of worthwhile performances, and has ambitious plans for a very attractive year in amateur dramatics.

On Tuesday evening two one-act plays, "The Finger of God," by Percival Wilde, and "Red Carnations," by Glenn Hughes, will be presented. Plans for the new year will be outlined and a social evening will be enjoyed.

All those interested in dramatics are cordially invited to come and bring their friends. It is absolutely free to all.

KIRK—O'CONNELL

Miss Josephine O'Connell, daughter of Mr. Edward O'Connell of Chestnut Hill, was married to Paul Grattan
Kirk of Sargent street, Newton Wednesday morning, September nineteenth, at ten o'clock in the private chapel in the home of her uncle, William Cardinal O'Connell, who officiated at the nuptial mass, assisted by Msgr.
M. J. Spaine and Rev. J. Minnihan.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a princess gown of ivory satin in Vionnet model with a long train, and a veil of tulle caught with sprays of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white orchids combined with lilies of the valley. Mrs. John Godwin Downing, sister of the bride, as matron of honor, wore a gown of violet blue lame with hat and slippers to match. Miss Sheila McLaughlin, four year old niece of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore an ankle length frock of rose pink net with pleated ruffle and wide pink silk sash, and a wreath of sweetheart roses and forget-me-nots on her head. She carried an old fashioned bouquet.

George F. Kirk of Lexington, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Col. Francis V. Logan and Edmund Burke of Boston, Joseph Kirk of Newton, brother of the groom and Joseph O'Connell, brother of the bride.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father, 107 Waban Hill road, immediately following the ceremony. The home was decorated with lilies, roses and Southern smilax.

On their return from a wedding trip,
Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will reside in Newton. They will be at home after November 1st.

The bride is a graduate of the Sacred Heart Convent in Boston and Manhattanville. She is a member of the Cecilian Guild of the Guild of the Immaculate Conception and the League of Catholic Women. The groom is a graduate of Harvard and of Harvard Law School. He is a member of the Governor's staff, and a lieutenant colonel in the 101st Infantry, Massachusetts National Guard. He is a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk.

BOURNE—CHANDLER

A garden full of radiant fall flowers was the very beautiful setting for the wedding of Miss Catherine Chandler of Plymouth, and Mr. Earle Bourne of Waban, on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 15th, at four o'clock.

Miss Chandler made a most charming bride and was becomingly gowned in white lace with a white lace cap and long tulle veil. She carried lilies of the valley and gardenias.
Miss Chandler's attendants were:
Miss Mary Louise Chandler, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were the Misses Edith and Joan Chandler, Natalie Collingswood and Miss Phyllis Bourne.

The bridesmaids' dresses were of blue crepe and they carried pink African daisies and blue delphiniums. The maid of honor's gown was rose colored crepe and she carried delphin-iums.

The ushers were: Messrs Leslie St. Lawrence, James Chandler, Josiah Chandler, Richard Fisher, Curtis Forbes. Mr. Roger Haddock was Mr. Bourne's best man.

After a trip to Bermuda Mr. and Mrs. Bourne will be at home at Orkney rd., Brookline.

MULLEN—MAGUIRE

On Sunday, Sept. 16, at 4 o'clock, Miss Catherine Maguire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Maguire of Maguire court, Newtonville, became the bride of Mr. Harold Mullen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mullen of Waltham.
The ceremony took place at the Church of Our Lady, Newton, Rev.
Russell Haley officiating.

The bride wore a blue crepe gown with a velvet hat to match. Her sister, Miss Rose Maguire, who attended her, wore a peach satin gown with hat of same color. Mr. James Leo Maguire, brother of the bride, was the

Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. Opens New Season

On Monday, September 24th, the Newton Highlands C. L. S. C. will meet with Mrs. Edward G. Swift of Woodcliff road. Mrs. Sanford E.
Thompson will discuss "Housing and Health." And as a pleasantly informal addition to the program of this first meeting members will describe their vacation experiences.

Rummage Sale At West Newton

The first project to be undertaken for the purpose of raising money for the interests of the many philantropies of the West Newton Women's Educational Club will be a RUMMAGE SALE, which will be held on Friday,
September 28th, at 10 a. m., at 1399
Washington street, West Newton.
Mrs. D. Webster Anders will be in charge of the Sale and the following Club members comprise her committee: Mrs. Edgar P. Hay, Mrs. Raymond R. Forte, Mrs. Francis H. Mc-Cradden, Mrs. Herman R. Place, Mrs.
Chauncey A. Stimets, Mrs. Roy A.
Stinson, and Mrs. Percival Waters. A number of other Club members will be asked to collect articles just previous to the sale, and still others will be called upon to assist in selling the goods on Friday. It is hoped that there will be a large quantity of bric-a-brac, dishes and kitchen ware on sale, for these articles are among the "best sellers", although anything in the way of clothing, household articles, and so-called "white elephants" will also be included in the goods for sale.

MOORE—SARGENT

Miss Doris Sargent, daughter of Dr.
and Mrs. Sidney Burt Sargent of West
Newton, was married to Lyman Sweet Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Atkins Moore of Oak Park, Ill., on Saturday, September 15, in the Second Church in Newton, which was decorated with candles, cedar trees and Joanna Hill roses. Dr. Boynton Merrill officiated. A reception was held following the ceremony at the Brae Burn Country Club.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin and pearls with a rose point lace veil. Her muff bouquet was a shower of gerbera, gardenias and orchids.

The honor attendant was Miss Margaret Brown of Yonkers, N. Y., who was gowned in carmine red and carried a shower of gerbera. Her bridesmaids,
Miss Hilda Sisson of New York, Miss Eleanor Phillips of Newton Centre wore bacardi brown and Miss Harriet Carpenter of Providence, R. I. and Miss Margaret Barnes of Chicago, lawn green. The velvet gowns were grecian in design, and they carried garlands of Joanna Hill roses.

Mr. R. Freeman Butts, Jr. of Madison, Wis., was the best man. The usher group was composed of Messrs Alfred Clarke of Gorham, N. H., cousin of the groom, James Munro of New Haven,
Ralph Estes of Attleboro, Dr. Russell
Chamberlain of Providence.

The bride graduated from Wellesley College in 1930 and Mr. Moore received his B.A. and M.A. at the University of Wisconsin, class of 1931. He is a member of the staff of the International City Managers Association.

On their return from their wedding trip they will make their home at 6020 Drexel Ave., Chicago.

ATKINSON—JOWETT

Miss Lillian Jowett, daughter of Mrs. Clara A. Jowett of 55 Cottage street, Newton Upper Falls and Mr.
Earl Atkinson, son of Mrs. William Atkinson of Upper Falls were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon,
September fifteenth at four o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gordon S. Kenison, brother-in-law of the bride and pastor of the South Tewksbury M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. G. Vaughan Shedd of the First M. E. Church, Upper Falls.

The bride couple stood under an arch of flowers and foliage and a setting of fall garden flowers. The bride was given in marriage by her brother Alfred R. Jowett of River Hebert, Nova Scotia. She was gowned in white satin with lace jacket and a shoulder veil of tulle with tulle cap and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Orla Jowett, sister of the bride, and the maid of honor was gowned in Nile green tulle with Nile green tulle hat and matching shoes and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

The groom was attended by his brother Mr. James W. Atkinson of Forest Hills.

A reception attended by fifty relatives and friends was held in the bride's home following the ceremony.
Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson will reside at 55 Cottage street on their return from a wedding trip to Philadelphia, Penn.

versities. Mr. Ellsworth attended Dartmouth College and graduated from Middlebury College and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with B.A., B.S., and M.A. degrees. He is a member of Kappa Delta Rho and Phi Beta Kappa. Mr. Ellsworth was formerly an instructor at M. I. T., and is now in business in Connecticut. No date has been set for the wedding.

RANSOM—MacNEIL

Miss Margaret Mary MacNeil, daughter of Mr. Daniel MacNeil of 35 Brooks avenue, Newtonville, was married to Arthur Chandler Ransom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ransom of Medford, on Monday, September 10, at ten o'clock at the Church of Our Lady, Newton. Rev. Russell
Haley performed the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Timothy J. Gannon.
She was attended by Miss Mary Josephine Gannon of Newtonville as maid of honor and Miss Marguerite MacGill of Brighton as flower girl.
Harold Francis MacNeil, brother of the bride, was the best man. The ushers were James Gannon, Timothy Gannon, cousins of the bride.

The bride's gown was of white satin with a court train. Her veil was of lace and she carried bride roses and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor wore moss green velvet with hat to match and carried talisman roses.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride.
The couple were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Timothy Gannon, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Leonard Ransom, mother of the groom.

"No Marking" System in Schools To Be Modified

The "no marking" system in the Newton public schools, instituted last year by former Superintendent of Schools, John Lund, will probably be modified shortly as a result of a report to be made at the meeting of the Newton School Committee. This report will be made by a subcommittee appointed some months ago to consider this matter. The subcommittee, headed by Prof. Kirtley F. Mather, includes Harry Bryant and Franklin E. Smith. The "no marking" system caused many protests from parents and a delegation attended a meeting of the School Committee several months ago to present a petition signed by 400 parents. This petition asked that the system be abolished. It is probable that while the system will be considerably modified, that it will not be eliminated.

Autos Collide On Centre Street

Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock a car driven by Manuel Diaz of Somerville slowed down opposite 764 Centre street, Newton. This caused a car driven by Thomas Reid of 257 Church street, Newton to also slow down. A car driven by Edith Smith of 140 Jewett street, Newton hit the rear of the Reid car. Mrs. Doris Reid was reported as having received injuries.

The conference theme is "Facing a Changing World." The morning session opens at ten-thirty, and will include the Auxiliary Institute which will discuss "Are We Changing in Our Memberships, Programs, Finances and Service?"

Luncheon will be served at one o'clock.

The afternoon session begins at two-thirty. Mr. Roy E. Coombs, Associate State Secretary, will give an address on "The Challenge of a Changing World." A discussion, led by Mr. Coombs will follow.

Dinner will be served at six o'clock. Mrs. Margaret Eggleston Owen, the speaker for the evening has for her subject "If You Had Been There."

Any member desiring to attend is asked to notify Mrs. A. T. Sundborg, N. N. 2282, by Sunday, Sept. 23, specifying if a luncheon or dinner ticket is wanted. Any member, driving, who will have extra room in her car is also asked to notify Mrs. Sundborg, because some members would like to attend, if transportation can be arranged.

Newton Pupils To Take World Tour By Letter

Pupils and teachers of seven Newton schools will soon start on a round the world tour in imagination, through a series of weekly descriptive letters from various corners of the globe.

Paul R. Elliott, author, lecturer and adventurer, plans to leave early in October and will illustrate each letter to the schools with two photographs taken en route.

The Newton schools to receive the letters among schools in thirty-five cities and towns around Boston will be the Cabot, Underwood, Claffin, C. C. Burr, Angier, Ward, and John W. Weeks Junior High. The letters will be adapted to such subjects as geography, history, social science and languages.

Community Chest Plans For Annual Campaign —McKay Is Chairman

Many Volunteer Workers To Take Part in Raising Funds For Fourteen Organizations

The officers, directors, executive committee, and publicity committee of the Newton Community Chest, Inc., met last evening at the Brae Burn Club in West Newton to consolidate plans for the coming campaign in support of the fourteen organizations comprising the 1935 Chest.

Mr. Leon Rogers, President of the Newton Community Chest, and Chairman of the last two campaigns, presided. He announced that Mr. Donald D. McKay, Vice President of the Chest, had accepted the chairmanship of this year's campaign for funds. Mr. Rogers, after reviewing the report of last year's campaign and outlining the basic needs and goals for the Chest in 1935, called on Mr. McKay for a preliminary report on organization plans to date.

Mr. Rogers, in introducing the new chairman, said the Chest and City were fortunate in Mr. McKay's acceptance because he is unusually well equipped to carry out successfully an undertaking of this size, through experience during numerous private and public projects requiring organizing ability and leadership.

Mr. Donald D. McKay, Chairman of Newton's approaching campaign for 1935 funds, is a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen, and has been active many years in civic, charitable and welfare matters. He is a Trustee of the Newton Hospital, Director of the Mayor's Relief Committee, organized in 1930, and was Chairman of that Committee during its first year when it raised a fund of $50,000. He is also a Director of Stone Institute and Newton Home for Aged People.

Mr. McKay reported that all the district chairmen, with their majors, captains and lieutenants had been appointed. These in turn are busy filling the ranks of their teams with the more than 1000 volunteer workers. The dates of the active campaign are Nov. 15 to 25. It has been found that the wholehearted support which Newton accords its workers enables the Chest to raise the required funds on an expense budget of less than 3 1/2% of the total. This is much less than it would cost if all fourteen agencies had to carry on separate campaigns each year.

The chairman also stated that plans are underway for an unusual program, presenting the immediate needs of Newton's welfare, relief, character-building and the other Chest agencies to all citizens. This method will not only accomplish the task in hand of providing relief, guidance and courage in tangible form; it will build prestige for Newton and help many other communities to develop a strong community spirit of cooperation.

Among those attending this initial meeting of the Newton Community Chest in its drive for 1935 were the Officers: Leon B. Rogers, Pres.; Donald D. McKay, V. P.; William P. Eustis, V. P.; Paul F. Bauder, Sec.; Frank L. Richardson, Treas. Budget Committee: William B. Baker, Chairman; Walter R. Amesbury, Howard M. Biscoe, Albert M. Lyon and Everett Saltonstall.

Directors: Paul F. Bauder, Mrs. Samuel N. Bramer, Albert P. Carter, Stone Institute; Elliott B. Church, Welfare Bureau; Mrs. Cecil W. Clark, Stearns School Centre; Miss Lucy E. Cobb, Stearns School Centre; Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr., Newton Circle; William P. Eustis, Catholic Welfare; Miss Mabel T. Eager, All Newton Music School; Edward J. Frost, Newton Hospital; Frederic D. Fuller, Y. M.

C. A.; Rev. Russell T. Haley, Catholic Welfare; Maynard Hutchinson, Boy Scouts; Mrs. John T. Lodge, Newton Circle; Elmore I. MacPhie, Mrs. Harold S. Marvin, District Nursing Association; Donald D. McKay, George W. Pratt, Mayor's Relief Welfare Committee; Mrs. Walton S. Redfield, Girl Scouts; Frank L. Richardson, Leon B. Rogers, Mrs. Ellis Spear, Jr., Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., West Newton Community Centre; Mrs. George H. Talbot, Hospital Aid Association.

Executive Committee: Donald D. McKay, Chairman; John A. Paine, Mrs. Albert S. Hutchinson, Mrs. Pitt F. Drew, Metcalf Melcher, Charles E. Hatfield, Clifford H. Walker, William P. Eustis, Mrs. Frank A. Day, Jr., Carlton Redmond, Mrs. Maynard Hutchinson, James B. Melcher, Mrs. Cecil W. Clark, Mrs. Guyas Williams, Quincy W. Wales, and Gordon B. Sawyer, Assistant Campaign Director. Publicity Committee: William H. McLeod, Chairman; Allyn B. McIntyre, W. Wellington Paine, Louis Gibbs, and E. S. Whitten, Publicity and Advertising Director.

Gen. Needham Mentioned As Future Mayor

Report Follows His Resignation From State Service

General Daniel Needham on Tuesday tendered his formal resignation to Governor Ely as State Commissioner of Public Safety. When he accepted this important office at the request of the Governor about 18 months ago, following the resignation of General Foote, the former Commissioner, he took over the difficult task of heading a department which had been under severe criticism and investigation with the understanding that his appointment would be only temporary. The manner in which he has conducted the department has won for him much praise and publicity. It was expected that he would be succeeded by General Cole, but as the latter refused the appointment, another Newton resident, Paul G. Kirk, of 29 Sargent street, was appointed to the office.

In a Boston newspaper yesterday was an article relative to the appointment of Mr. Kirk, and the refusal of Mr. Cole to accept the office of Commissioner. In this article was a paragraph which stated—"General Needham has stated that he will return to the private practice of law, although it is believed that he may return to public service in the future as a candidate for Mayor of his home city of Newton." Such a rumor has also been heard in Newton for the past couple of weeks.

Interviewed by the GRAPHIC regarding this statement in the Boston paper, General Needham said—"I have not given the matter of becoming a candidate for Mayor of Newton any consideration." He expressed surprise that the Boston paper had made such a statement, and said that he was not prepared to state at the present time whether or not he will give serious consideration to becoming a candidate for Mayor of Newton.

Want Yard at Day Jr. High Resurfaced

The Newton School Committee at the instigation of Harry Bryant has asked the Playground Department to resurface the playground at the Day Junior High School. The playground at present has a gravel surface which is uneven and covered with water after rainstorms.

Changes Made In Newton Teaching Staff

Mrs. Cornell Appointed Art Teacher at High School

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday night many changes in the personnel of the Newton public schools teaching staff were announced and authorized. The appointments of six new teachers were confirmed by the Committee. Included in this list was that of Mrs. Kate C. Cornell of Centre st., Newton Highlands, formerly a member of the Newton School Committee from Ward 5. She resigned a few months ago, following the death of her husband. She was appointed a teacher of art in the High School. Before her marriage Mrs. Cornell taught in a New York School and was director of art at the Portland, Oregon, Art Museum. The others appointed were—Dorothy Allen, Winchester, building assistant, Burr School; Marion Cushman, Westboro, Emerson School; Miriam Adler, Roslindale, Cabot School; Ruth Kinkle, Newton Centre, building assistant, High School; Alma Littlefield, 808 Watertown st., West Newton, clerk in School Department office.

Resignations accepted were—Muriel Nichols, Warren Junior High; Hazel Stackpole, Burr School; Esther Goodheart, Cabot School; Marion Gray, Warren Junior High; Eleanor Martin, Underwood School; Margaret Lee, clerk School Department office. The following transfers were approved—Ruth Holley, Horace Mann to Stearns kindergarten; Louise Santosuso, Stearns kindergarten to Emerson; Marguerite Gay, Emerson kindergarten to Oak Hill. Increases in salaries were given to William Plaisant and John Cutler, engineers; Elmer Warren, fireman; Helen Butterfield and Catherine Card, cafeteria employees. The salary of Mary Bowers, kindergarten at the Horace Mann School, was increased because she is teaching at two sessions, instead of one as formerly. Those of Alice Burbank at the Angier School kindergarten, and Madeline Powell at the Hyde School kindergarten were reduced because they now teach at one session, instead of two as previously.

Newton Teachers Will Give Views on "No Marking"

At the meeting of the Newton School Committee on Monday a report of progress was received from the subcommittee appointed to consider the much discussed method of not giving marks to pupils in Newton public schools; the system started last year by former Supt. of Schools Lund. This subcommittee is composed of Messrs. Mather, Bryant and Smith. Mr. Mather stated that the purpose of the subcommittee is to arrange something in the nature of a compromise between the former marking system and the system originated last year, and which is still in use. He said that principals of the Newton schools will be asked to request the various teacher-parent associations in this city, or similar organizations in their districts, to send two representatives to a meeting which the School Committee will hold next month. Mr. Mather and the subcommittee did not approve of a public hearing on this matter.

Questionnaires will also be distributed to the school teachers on which they will answer about 30 questions as to their views on the comparative value of the former system of marking and the system now in use. The teachers will not have to sign their names, so this anonymity tends to make them express their views more freely.

Kidnap Attempt At Park Street, Newton Corner

Mrs. Bernice Grant of 156 Park street, Newton, wife of Donald Grant, repulsed an attempt on Wednesday afternoon to kidnap her two-year-old son. Mrs. Grant told the Newton police that as she was about to go into the back yard at her home, a man ran up the back steps, pushed her inside the door and tried to seize the child. She said the intruder threatened to shoot her unless she surrendered the boy. Instead of complying, she seized a broom and rained a series of blows on the head of the intruder, who fled from the house and escaped. She telephoned the police and a cruising car was rushed to the house. Mrs. Grant told the police that she had observed another man running away from the front porch of her home. The police were not able to find either of the two men described.

Two Injured When Cars Collide At Chestnut Hill

Cars driven by Nils Olson of Ford street, Brockton, and Allan McLennan of Lakeview avenue, Cambridge, collided at Commonwealth avenue and Hammond street, Chestnut Hill. Olson received injuries to his head and face. His wife had two teeth knocked out.

Another Newton Man Succeeds Gen. Needham

Paul G. Kirk of Newton Made Commr. of Public Safety

Following the refusal of General Charles H. Cole to accept the appointment as Commissioner of Public Safety to succeed General Daniel Needham, Governor Ely appointed Paul G. Kirk of 27 Sargent street, Newton to this office. Mr. Kirk is an attorney by profession and holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel in the Massachusetts National Guard. He is a member of Gov. Ely's military staff. He was born in Boston 29 years ago, graduated from Boston English High School, Harvard College in 1926 and Harvard Law School. He became a resident of Newton in 1928. He is associated with the law firm of Hale & Dorr. On September 19 he was married to Miss Josephine O'Connell, daughter of Edward J. O'Connell of Waban Hill road, Chestnut Hill, and a niece of Cardinal O'Connell. The latter officiated at the marriage ceremony. He was at Montreal on the honeymoon when he was tendered the appointment as Commissioner of Public Safety, and he accepted. He is a member of the Harvard Club, Army & Navy Club and Clover Club.

Newton Lead Not Enough For Miss McGill

Brooks Carries Rest of District To Win Nomination

In the primaries last week local interest was chiefly centered in the contest for the Republican nomination for the Governor's Council in the Third District. It was apparent that the three-cornered contest between Miss Margaret McGill of Newtonville, Frank A. Brooks of Watertown and Russell A. Wood of Cambridge would be decided by Miss McGill's vote in the cities and towns outside of Newton. Mr. Brooks, former Commissioner of Parole and well known throughout the district, was expected to poll a large vote but his success in the campaign depended upon the extent to which he could offset Miss McGill's vote in her own city where she was conceded a large majority. Although Miss McGill polled 5,310 votes in Newton to 2,187 for Mr. Brooks the latter carried all other cities and towns in the district except Cambridge, by a plurality which won him the nomination handily, 18,642 to 10,084 for Miss McGill. The complete vote:

Board of Appeal Allows Use of New N'ville Mill Bldg.

By a ruling of the Newton Board of Appeal, the Security Mills at Monroe st., Newtonville, is permitted to use the new addition built at its plant, several months ago, as a receptacle for the lint which is collected by the blower system at the mill. The building is a small, windowless, brick structure. The permit for its erection was granted by Building Commissioner Hazemann and residents in the vicinity of the mill took an appeal to the Board of Appeal. In sustaining the Building Commissioner, the Board informed the mill corporation that it must meet any conditions required by the Board of Health to prevent the possible emission of harmful substances into the atmosphere.

Liquor License Suspended; Appeals To State Board

Clement Leone who owns the Columbus Restaurant at 395 Watertown street, Nonantum, and whose license to sell beer and wine was suspended recently for a period of two months by the Newton License Commission has appealed to the State Alcoholic Beverage Commission. Leone's license was suspended on September 11th by the Newton License Commission following complaints made by the Newton police which alleged that he had sold liquor to a minor, to men already under the influence of liquor, and after the closing hour prescribed.

Prison Head To Speak To Central Club

Dr. MacCormick, Comr. of Correction of New York City, Exposed Conditions There

Central Club, the men's organization of the Central Congregational Church of Newtonville, opens its season on next Monday evening with a dinner at the church and a very attractive program of interest to its members and the community.

The program committee has announced with a good deal of satisfaction that the speaker will be Dr. Austin H. MacCormick, Commissioner of Correction of New York City. Dr. MacCormick brought the attention of the entire country to his prison reform program through the exposure of the terrible conditions which existed at the Welfare Island Prison early this year soon after his appointment by Mayor LaGuardia. The development of the program of reform is still attracting wide attention.

Dr. MacCormick is a graduate of Bowdoin College in the Class of 1915, where he was very active in college affairs. He later took his Master's Degree at Columbia and this last June was given an honorary degree of Doctor of Science by Bowdoin College of which he is now one of the overseers.

His experience in prison work dates from the summer of his graduation from college when he served a voluntary sentence in the Maine State's Prison at Thomaston. During the war he served with Thomas Mott Osborne as the Executive Officer of the United States Prison at Portsmouth, N. H. He then returned to Bowdoin College as Alumni Secretary and left Bowdoin to become Assistant to the President of Bennington College from which position he was appointed Assistant Director of the United States Bureau of Prisons at Washington. He served there until January when Mayor LaGuardia made the New York appointment to his present office.

Grove Hambridge, author of "Time to Live," in a recent issue of the New York Herald Tribune in a most intimate character sketch of Dr. MacCormick refers to him as a soft-spoken "tough guy." He says of him: "I recommend him as a central character and a study in contrasts to any dramatist thinking up a gangster play. Blue-eyed, short-sighted, long pale face, dark hair, slight build, he looks preeminently the student; but he is as quick to act as a fireman sliding down the brass pole, and the day I first saw him he had been up all night hunting an escaped prisoner—work that a Commissioner of Correction is not by any means called on to do in prison. His general attitude towards human problems is that of a philosophical idealist; but he deals with the dreary of humanity and comes up against sharper disillusionment than most men. Prisoners seem to like him and think he is a 'swell guy.'"

The subject of his address is "Crime and Criminals." Dinner will be served at six-thirty and in addition to the appearance of Dr. MacCormick, as speaker, Donald Blackey, boy soloist of Trinity Church, Boston, will sing a group of songs. Mr. Julius Warren, Superintendent of Schools, will be the guest of the club. The chairman of the Program Committee is Mr. Dudley Hovey of Newtonville.

Scouts To Have Big Public Camporee

Just how do the Boy Scouts camp when they pack their tents and equipment into the woods? What are their tents like—are they comfortable—do they make beds—what do they eat—how do they cook?

All these questions, which have been asked by the public-at-large will be answered at the big public camporee of the Newton Boy Scouts, to be held in Cabot Woods on Saturday, October 6 and Sunday, October 7th. Scouts will begin to come into the site as early as 10:00 o'clock in the morning and will set up camp. In the afternoon, there will be a formal inspection, headed by His Honor, Mayor Sinclair Weeks and a group of city and Scout officials. This will be followed by Scout demonstrations.

Scouts will cook supper and then there will be an evening Campfire, with songs, stunts, stories and the like.

Sunday morning, everyone will be up bright and early, for a quick breakfast, for the Camporee breaks up at 8:00 o'clock Sunday morning, to allow Scouts and Scouters to get to Church School and Church.

On October 6th, all roads lead to Cabot Woods and everyone will be welcome.

Endorse McEnaney For Alderman

The West Newton Young Men's Improvement Association has endorsed the name of Thomas L. McEnaney for Alderman of Ward 3 in the coming election. He has attended Newton High School, Suffolk Law School and is a graduate of Staley College. He is a lifelong resident of Newton and has always taken a vital interest in civic affairs.

Slight Increase In Enrollment In Newton Public Schools —Total Is Over 12,000

One Hundred and Eighty More Pupils Than At Opening of Schools Last Year—Total is 12,082

The enrollment of pupils in the Newton public schools on Friday, Sept. 21 was 12,082. On the corresponding day in 1933 it was 11,902. The enrollment in the Newton High School is 2387, as compared with 2289 last year. The increase in enrollment in all the schools is 180; in the high school, 98. Most of the schools show a small increase in enrollment. Those which show a slight decrease are the Underwood, Lincoln, Horace Mann, Clafin, Adams, Stearns, Burr, Hamilton, Hyde, Rice, Bowen and Day Junior high. A surprise was the decrease of 50 in kindergarten enrollment. There was a decrease of the same number last year. These two decreases followed heavy increases in recent years which necessitated two sessions in a number of the kindergartens in Newton schools.

The following table shows the enrollment this year in the various schools, the enrollment last year, and the average number of pupils per teacher:

Transfer $42,132 From Water Fund For City Expenses

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on next Monday night the members will act on a recommendation from Mayor Weeks by which $42,132 will be transferred from the surplus of the water department funds to the general fund account of the city to be used for other city expenses. This amount represents the total of pensions paid to retired employees of the Water Department prior to 1932; these pensions having been paid from the general fund of the city. Several years ago City Comptroller White contended that the pensions for Water Department employees should be paid from water revenue fund. Subsequently, City Solicitor Bartlett ruled that this contention was correct. The recommendation of Mayor Weeks is the result. The Aldermen will, in all probability, agree and the city will have $42,132 for expenditures over the amount provided for by the levying of taxes.

Exam For Naval Academy Oct. 20

Notice has been received from Congressman Robert Luce that an examination for appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis will be held on October 20 in Boston. It is open to residents of the 9th Congressional District, which includes Newton. Congressman Luce has requested Mayor Weeks to suggest possible candidates for appointment.

ARLINGTON CRUSHES NEWTON—SCORE 18-7 — PASSES SAVE LOCALS

A powerful Arlington eleven crushed a game but inferior Newton football team at the Dickinson Stadium last Saturday, 18 to 7, in the opening game of the season. A consistent passing attack in the third period in which Newton outplayed the visitors, saved the locals from being whitewashed. During the other periods of the game Arlington had a decided edge and the outcome was little in doubt after Arlington tallied at the end of a long match in the initial period. There were three outstanding reasons for the Arlington victory. Most important was the almost mid-season form showed by the visitors whereas the Newton team displayed its usual early season form yet indicating promise of development into a string outfit for the late season clashes. A second reason was the much faster and more deceptive offense of the Arlington backs. Bart Madden, Al Lennon and Joe Gardella proved difficult to stop once under way and with Madden tossing accurate aerials into the arms of the speeding Lennon the yardage piled up. A third factor in the Arlington victory which cannot be overlooked was the play of Pete Manoli, 245-lb. tackle, in the Arlington line. Newton's 176-lb. line as a unit was evenly matched with the 170-lb. Arlington front but Manoli was the lad who made it possible for the Arlington ball-carriers to go places. Without Manoli it would have been a different story. The inexperience of the Newton backfield counted heavily in the visitor's favor. Falling to gain by a running attack Quarterback Gil Myers was forced to go into the air. Arlington proved intolerable so that Newton staged a scoring march but intercepted passes also gave Arlington the chance to score.

The visitors wasted little time in getting down to business after once obtaining possession of the ball on their own 40-yard line. Two rushes by Gardella with Manoli making the hole gave Arlington a first down on the Newton 46-yard line. Madden broke loose for a 33-yard jaunt to the Newton 13 yard line and the visitors were in position to score. Gardella and Lennon made it first down on the one yard line and two plunges by Gardella carried it over. The point was missed. There was few thrills until the second period was under way.

Arlington staged two rushes right to the shadow of Newton's goal in the second chapter but the orange and black forward wall stiffened to repulse the attack. The first rush started with Gardella and Lennon covering 25 yards and passes from Madden to Gardella made it first down on the Newton 10-yard stripe. A pass finally went into the end zone, Newton got possession of the ball and kicked out of danger. Gardella and fullback Matthews gained 30 yards in two rushes and a long Madden to Gardella pass put the ball on Newton's 5-yard stripe. A penalty helped save Newton and the half ended as Newton took the ball on downs. Newton came back strong in the third period. Once getting possession of the ball the orange and black would not be denied a score. Brilliant defensive work by Melvin Swig, Newton centre, forced Arlington to pass from near midfield. Gil Myers intercepted the ball near the Newton 25 and raced back to the Arlington 45-yard stripe before he was brought down. Moore ground out six yards and another successful pass, Myers to Joe Byrnes, put the ball on the Arlington 20-yard mark. Another pass, Myers to Paul Savignano, made it first down on the 10-yard line. A rush was stopped so Myers took to the air again tossing a neat pass to Moore who caught the ball on the goal line near the corner of the field. Castoldi place-kicked the goal with Myers holding the ball and Newton led 7 to 0.

The orange and black did not hold the lead for long. A couple of punts followed the kickoff and Newton had possession of the ball. A Myers pass was intercepted by Madden on the Arlington 40-yard line and he broke away for a 60-yard touchdown run making the score 12 to 7. The point was missed.

Midway of the fourth period Arlington started again. A long run by Madden was nullified by a penalty. Lennon carried on two rushes of 22 and 12 yards and the visitors were again deep in Newton territory. A couple of short gains and Lennon carried again to the Newton 5-yard stripe with Gardella taking the ball over on the next play. For a third time Arlington missed the try at the point after goal and the final score read Arlington 18, Newton 7.

ARLINGTON ARIAS

It was the fourth consecutive meeting between Newton and Arlington and the third consecutive Arlington victory. The 1932 score was 12 to 0 and last year it was 6 to 0. Newton won the first game at Arlington in 1931, dedicating a new field there.

Coach Ralph Sanborn of Newton and Coach Fred Ostergren of Arlington were rival coaches seventeen years ago. Both coached Maine high school teams at the time, Ostergren at Portland and Sanborn at Saco.

Newton will come along as the season progresses. While Arlington's power made Newton look quite inferior the locals showed promise that with experience they will also develop speed and power which will serve them in good stead later on.

A good crowd witnessed the game and with such teams as Lynn English, Brockton, Quincy, Rindge Tech and Brookline as future visitors to Dickinson field this fall attendance figures will pile up.

GALLAGHER HAS OPERATION FOR SEVERED TENDON

Charles Gallagher of 241 Church street, Newton, returned home this week from St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he was operated upon the first of this month for a severed tendon in his right hand. Gallagher, who is a sophomore at Providence College, won fame as an athlete while at Our Lady's Parochial High School. He was named for the all-parochial basketball and baseball teams. Last July, while serving as a lifeguard at Crystal Lake, he cut his right hand severely on a broken bottle which he picked up from the bottom of the lake at the bathing beach. It was later learned that the tendon between his thumb and forefinger had been severed and an intricate operation was necessary. The accident prevented Gallagher from playing baseball during the summer, but his many friends hope he will be able to resume his athletic career in the near future.

SPORT NOTES

On Huntington Squad
 Three local youths are candidates for the Huntington school football team. Henry Shaw of Byemore rd. and Richard Rees of George st. are two Newton youths while Donald Fyfe of Wyman st., Waban, is the third.

On Husky Yearling Squad
 John Manning of Rockland st., Newton, is a member of the Northeastern University freshman football squad. He attended Newton High where he was out for baseball.

On Green Freshman Squad
 Much talent is evidenced in the Dartmouth freshman squad which recently reported at Hanover. Among the tackle candidates is R. D. Jones of Newton high, while end squad lists J. E. Whelden of Newton among a half-dozen would-be wings.

Tuscher to Start
 Francis Tuscher of Newtonville, former Newton high athlete, will start at left end for the Northeastern University varsity in its first game of the season against International College tomorrow. The local youth was at left end against the Husky freshman in a practice game last week and is being pressed closely by substitute wings for the regular berth.

Newton Youths Side by Side
 Newton football fans will watch with interest the opening game for Brown University tomorrow when the Bears tackle the Boston University Terriers. In the Brown backfield will be Perry Elrod and Norman Appleyard at the halfback positions, side by side. Both are former Newton high school athletes who showed promise of making good in college athletics.

Waldinger on Harvard Jayvees
 Bob Waldinger of Newton Centre, former Country Day athlete, has been retained as a back on the Harvard junior varsity squad.

Kevorkian a Prospect
 Although Alexander Kevorkian, Newton high and Exeter Academy star athlete, is out of action for a while, he is considered a great prospect for the Harvard freshman eleven. Kevorkian, 210-lb. tackle, suffered a cut ear in practice early this week and will be out for a few days.

Dramatic Club To Conduct Essay Contest

A story competition for the best essay of 100 words or less written by a child of 15 or under who attends "Racketty Packetty House" presented Saturday, September 29, in Newton Centre Woman's Club House will be offered by The Newton Dramatic Club under whose auspices the series of five children's plays are given. John Clair Minot, Samuel Thurber and Sara Cone Bryant are the judges. Each manuscript should have the name of the writer, the address and the age and should be mailed to Mrs. E. W. Varney, Newton Centre, on or before October 6.

NEWTON OPENS LEAGUE SEASON AGAINST CAMB LATIN TODAY

Newton High will open the 1934 Suburban league football season this afternoon at Russell Field, North Cambridge, against the Cambridge High and Latin eleven. Both the Cantabs and the orange and black will be striving for a victory as both were defeated in the opening games of their respective seasons last Saturday. While Newton was taking its 18 to 7 licking from Arlington the Cambridge team was defeated 12 to 6 by Woburn. Tomorrow's game, marking the opening of the Suburban league schedule, will give a line on the chances of some other league member to wrest the title from Coach Sanborn's Newton outfit. In 1932 the locals swept over the opposing teams making up the league behind Captain Warren Huston, culminating the season with an overwhelming victory over Brookline to annex the championship. Last year, although the task was far more difficult Newton retained its league title at the expense of Cambridge Latin, Rindge Tech and Brookline. Newton has high hopes of defending its laurels successfully this year and will go against the Cantabs tomorrow with that idea in mind.

In the game with Arlington the Newton outfit showed glaring weaknesses which Coach Sanborn is striving to correct. The much vaunted strength of the Newton line was not as marked as pre-game impressions indicated. While the Newton offense was considerably better than that in the early games of last year the lack of experience of the Newton backs was outstanding. Much improvement can be expected in this respect as the season progresses. With the improvement will also come a larger repertoire of plays and consequently a more deceptive attack. Several errors of judgment cropped up, noticeably the use of a forward pass near midfield after Newton had taken a 7 to 6 lead in the third period. The pass was intercepted and a long touchdown run resulted, giving the visitors the lead again. Coach Sanborn faces a difficult task in developing a team that will withstand the rigorous schedule confronting it. There is an abundance of material as far as numbers and weight is concerned but the dearth of experience constitutes the major problem. The Newton mentor will probably start the same eleven players that took the field against Arlington last Saturday when the team takes the field against the Cantabs tomorrow. Captain Gus Castoldi and Joe Byrnes will be at the ends, Ben Grow and Galen Clevenger will be at the tackles, Sam Miller and Gale Wisbach in the guard positions, and Melvin Swig at centre. Gilbert Myers will start at quarterback and will have Paul Treanline, Sargent Moore and Savignano as his mates. Caruso and DeNapoli, guards, have progressed rapidly and are pushing Miller and Wisbach for starting berths.

Cambridge Latin is rated as a stronger team than that of a year ago when Newton scored a 15 to 0 victory at Newtonville. There are a number of veteran players available and the entire team is bigger and stronger. Last Saturday the lightweight Woburn eleven, aided by a couple of important breaks in the game, scored two touchdowns in the first half to win. The Cantabs came back with a touchdown in the final quarter to save a shutout.

"Half Century Of Progress" At Waltham

Waltham, incorporated as a city in 1884, will symbolize the fifty years of progress as an industrial, commercial, and residential city with a "Half Century of Progress" Exposition opening Monday evening in the huge H. K. Noyes Building on Seyon street amid a blaze of spectacular splendor. A gay parade will usher in the exposition which is being sponsored by the Waltham Chamber of Commerce and which will be conducted for four days, Oct. 1, 2, 3, and 4. The parade will start at 7 o'clock on Monday night at the South Junior High School and will go down Moody street to Main street, to Gore street and to the exposition hall where Mayor MacDonald will make a brief address of welcome. Several bands, drum corps, floats, decorated trucks and cars will feature the parade.

At exposition hall 134 booths have been prepared and many effective and spectacular displays will be presented. There will also be symphonic features including the first showing in America of a large number of early day models of automotive equipment. It will not only be a fitting recognition of the 50th anniversary of the city but it will also be a concrete demonstration of the growth of the industrial, mercantile and business life.

A beauty contest will be conducted with the winner and runner-up of the "Miss Waltham" contest competing with young women from other cities and towns for the title of "Miss Greater Waltham" on Thursday night October 4th. The affair has been widely advertised by radio and the distribution of 40,000 copies of a store news in Waltham and neighboring communities.

Other features of the exposition, will include a fashion show, cooking school, a daily award of a door prize, the issuing of 200 grocery bags twice each day, many industrial exhibits and the like. Preparations are being made to handle the thousands of people who it is anticipated will be attracted by the exposition features.

Store Robbed Near Newton City Hall

A young man entered the grocery store owned by John Hannagan at 400 Homer st., Newton Centre, shortly after 3 o'clock last Friday afternoon and at gun-point forced the clerk there to hand over the contents of the cash register, $25. He asked the clerk, Walter Milford of Cummings rd., Newton Centre, for cigarettes, and then produced the pistol. He fled from the store after getting the money and drove away in an automobile. Milford hailed a passing autoist, John Kearns of Falkland terrace, Brighton, and told him of the robbery. Kearns pursued the thief to Langley rd., Newton Centre, but lost sight of the bandit there. The registration numbers of the car used by the bandit were taken, and the car was later found abandoned in Brookline. The police learned that the car had been stolen in Somerville about 40 minutes before the robbery occurred.

Fished Without License, Fined $10

John Mancini of Middle st., Boston, was fined $10 in the Newton court on Monday for fishing without a license. The fine was suspended. Deputy Game Warden Parlee testified that he came upon Mancini and another man in a canoe on the Charles River near Upper Falls. In the canoe were three fish which Mancini claimed his companion, who had a fishing license, had caught.

Waban Lodge I. O. O. F. elected officers on Wednesday evening, September 26: Noble Grand, Lyman Merrill; Vice Grand, Archie Billinger; Rec. Sec., Stanley Beal; Fin. Sec., Frank Stevens; Treasurer, Edgar Locke; Trustee 3 yrs., W. E. Ginsburg.

"Treasure Island" Is Film Feature At Paramount

Starting Sunday for four days, the Paramount Theatre, Newton, is showing for everyone with the glowing heart of Youth—for all those with the ageless craving for high adventure—the screen's version of the story that has captivated the world like no other, Robert Louis Stevenson's famous pirate story "Treasure Island." Wallace Beery plays the character role of Long John Silver and Jackie Cooper as Jim Hawkins. Lionel Barrymore plays old Billy Jones in his immortal classic of adventures on board the good ship Hispaniola. Wallace Beery, the ferocious sea raider, is chosen as a friend by young Cooper, the boy adventurer. Their experiences together during the search for treasure are packed with thrills and pathos that bring gasps and tears to everyone.

On the same program will be shown "Friend of Mr. Sweeney" with Charles Ruggles. Starring with him will be Ann Dvorak.

Drunken Driver Fined $110

Arthur P. McFadd of 186 Naples rd., Brookline, was fined $50 in the Newton court on Monday for driving a car while under the influence of liquor, and $50 for leaving the scene of an accident without identifying himself. He was also fined $10 for drunkenness. He appealed. Sunday night a car driven by McFadd hit a car parked on Adams st., Nonantum. Two young men, who were standing alongside the car hit, attempted to halt McFadd's car, but were thrown off the running board. Mrs. Elizabeth Veduccio, 52 Clinton st., Newton, a passenger in the car struck, was reported as having received injuries. McFadd's car proceeded to Newton Corner, and at Nonantum square hit another car operated by Arnold Lefort of 404 California st., Nonantum. McFadd was then arrested by Patrolmen Mooney and Walker.

MORE OF THAT RIDICULOUS FENCE

When the football season opened at the Newton high school last Saturday afternoon many spectators noticed that the wire fence which had been erected some years ago had been extended so that it now almost encircles the entire Clafin field area. When entirely completed the fence, except for an ornamental type fence along Walnut street, will be of wire, four to five feet high, with posts about eight feet high at intervals. At the time the first sections of the fence were installed we characterized the fence as "ridiculous" in an editorial in this column. We stated that the fence "intended to be a barrier to prevent the active youth of today from eluding the ticket taker at the gate served only as an invitation to get in without detection." Since that time we have been a frequent attendant at sports affairs at the athletic field and have witnessed the futile attempts of school officials and police to prevent many boys from entering without detection. In fact at some of the football games groups of boys have rushed across the field with little difficulty. The type of fence which the playground department erected does not make it possible for school authorities to reduce the number of police needed properly to guard the field. It seems to us that at a slight additional cost the fence could be raised to a height making it more difficult to climb and thus permitting the use of fewer police. Although maintenance of the area is under the jurisdiction of the playground department the school is obliged to furnish police protection. Thus it would seem that the school should have the co-operation of the playground department in furnishing it with the kind of fencing the school officials desire.

A MODIFIED NO-MARKING SYSTEM

The school committee, it would seem, is planning to leave the question of the "no-marking system" in the hands of the teachers and parents for a decision. Superintendent Warren has had considerable experience in Lakewood, Ohio, with a no-marking plan considerably modified from that installed in Newton a year ago by former Superintendent Lund. There seems to be little question but a system of no-marking has its advantages. But it is also true that greater responsibility is placed upon the teacher. It is possible that much of the agitation against the no-marking system last spring and early summer was due to the fact that many teachers, as well as parents, did not grasp the full significance of the plan. We do not believe that one year of the system gives an accurate idea of its real worth. The modified system used by Mr. Warren in which the pupil's progress, as well as his strong and weak points are reported to the parents at intervals, has much to commend its adoption. We trust that teachers and parents will not abandon entirely the so-called no-marking system with the brief trial of last year, but that major objections to it will be overcome by modification.

The best political remark of the week—referring to the Bacon-Curley campaign Sen. Wragg of Needham says, "They may say he (Bacon) is of the House of Morgan . . . we know where he got his money."

Gen. Daniel Needham leaves the State service to return to his private law practice. It may not be for long as he is mentioned as a potential successor to Mayor Weeks. Gen. Needham became Commissioner of Public Safety at a time when the department was in need of attention. He left it with a renewed morale, greater efficiency, and with several important cases creditably handled. It is evident that the popular official has executive ability.

History was made in Newton this month when the schools opened with an enrollment of over twelve thousand pupils. Incidentally it will soon be necessary to provide further facilities in order to take care of further anticipated increases.

Twelve Newton Residents Pass Bar Examinations

On Tuesday announcement was made by William H. Hitchcock, chairman of the Massachusetts board of bar examiners that 274 persons had passed the examinations held last June. These examinations were taken by 555 candidates. Of those who passed, twelve are residents of this city. They include—John H. Calver, 154 Langley rd., Newton Centre; George W. Cashman, 204 Eliot st., Upper Falls; Dorothy Crannell, 95 Commonwealth ave., Chestnut Hill; Rose Feldberg, 229 Auburn st., Auburndale; Charles E. Hughes, 16 Washburn st., Newton; Walter F. Kelly, 45 Richardson st., Newton; Edgar Kent, 67 Grove Hill ave., Newtonville; Edward F. Quinn, r 49 West st., Nonantum; Arthur S. Scipione, 146 Walnut st., Newtonville; Arthur T. Wasserman, 126 Manet rd., Chestnut Hill; Francis Welch, 6 Westchester rd., Newton; Eliot U. Wyman, 28 Normandy rd., Auburndale.

Miss Rose Feldberg has been employed for the past 6 years as a clerk at Newton City Hall, most of that time in the City Engineer's office. Charles E. Hughes is a son of Chief of Police Michael Hughes. Arthur S. Scipione is a son of Constable Charles Scipione and has been engaged as a title examiner. Walter F. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin E. Kelly of 45 Richardson st., Newton, was born in Waltham 25 years ago, graduated from Natik High School, from Harvard College in 1930 with honors, and from Harvard Law School in 1934. His father is associated with the Hubbard Pharmacy.

Three Hurt In Car Crash at Chestnut Hill

Wednesday night at 8:30 cars driven by George Hibbard of Auburn, Massachusetts, and David Shannon of Ripley st., Newton Centre, collided at Beacon and Hammond streets, Chestnut Hill. Three occupants of Hibbard's car received injuries and went to the Newton Hospital for treatment. They were—Mrs. Elizabeth Hibbard of Auburn; Mrs. Daniel Flynn and her son, Daniel Flynn, Jr., of Worcester.

Girl Injured When Auto Hits Her Bicycle

Adele Sargent, 10, of 63 Institution ave., Newton Centre, was injured last Saturday afternoon when the bicycle she was riding collided on Institution ave. with an automobile driven by Ruth Bigglestone of Morgan st., Melrose. The Sargent girl received a bruised knee and cuts on her body and on an elbow. She was treated by Dr. Rutherford.

Analysis of the Primary Election

The high spots of the recent primaries, in which more voters participated than ever before, were as follows: First, the tremendous personal and political victory for former Mayor James M. Curley; second, the consequent removal from leadership of the Democratic party of Governor Ely and Senator Walsh; third, the decline of Frank A. Goodwin's prestige, although he still remains a serious threat to Gaspar Bacon's candidacy; fourth, the crushing defeat of General Charles H. Cole, and the repudiation by the voters of the lone woman candidate on either State ticket—Mrs. Elizabeth Pigeon of East Boston.

Let us consider the Curley triumph first. Judge it from any angle you like and the result will be the same. Curley won the most smashing victory against the greatest odds in his entire spectacular career. He polled 233,583 votes, while Cole was running up 128,111, and Goodwin 128,084, a plurality of 155,472 over Cole. Curley received 64% of the entire Democratic vote for Governor. He carried 32 out of the 38 cities in the Commonwealth. Cole beat him in Gardner, Leominster, North Adams, Northampton, Pittsfield, and Westfield—Governor Ely's home town. Again, Curley received 114,390 votes in Boston; Senator Walsh only $3,510—a margin of 30,880 for the former Mayor. Who would have dared predict such a fate for the senior Senator, who ran behind Curley 15,460 votes in the State as a whole. James Michael's total vote was the largest ever recorded in a Democratic primary contest for Governor. Cole got 165,174 in 1928, with mild opposition (J. J. Cummings—39,643). Ely got 117,548 in 1930 (John F. Fitzgerald—84,744 and J. J. Cummings—12,701) and Ely got 255,290 in 1932 with no opposition. If you like to figure as much as I do, you can see that Curley's vote on September 20 substantially exceeded the total Democratic gubernatorial vote in each of these years.—Curley's vote, mind you, and not the total Democratic vote, which was 439,778 compared to the G. O. P. total of 361,350. That is something else to worry about. You will note that the Democratic vote for Governor was 78,428 in excess of the Republican vote. Don't try to laugh that off by saying that Bacon had an easier fight than Curley. He did, but that will not account for a deficit of nearly 80,000 votes. No, it is obvious that thousands of new voters and unenrolled voters rallied to Curley. It is also likely that many former Republicans have changed their enrollment and are now voting as Democrats. The trend of the times is obvious. Party lines have weakened, and the independent voter holds the whip hand. He snapped the whip on September 20th and he is more than likely to send Bacon down to defeat on November 6, unless the G. O. P. assemblies its various leaders and would-be leaders, and agrees now on the selection of a master mind who will dictate the entire strategy of the campaign, compel adherence to the policies he may lay down, and at the same time provide, in company with Bacon, a militant and enthusiastic leadership.

My personal feeling is that the campaign should be waged on State issues, and that Curley's entire past record should be hammered mercilessly with due regard for the fact that unnecessary personalities and irrelevant dirt might easily prove a boomerang, as they did in the days when John F. Fitzgerald defeated James J. Storrow for Mayor of Boston. Everyone knows that there are certain portions of the Curley record which will not stand up in the light, and the Republicans may safely assume that the great mass of independent voters throughout the State will gradually swing toward Bacon as the election nears. Furthermore, there are thousands of Western Massachusetts Democrats who will never under any circumstances vote for Curley; and if you add to this group some of General Cole's following, which can hardly be expected to endorse over James Michael, you begin to feel a little bit more optimistic. Then, too, there are those who suspect that even Governor Ely will shed crocodile tears if Gaspar Bacon should win out, for the Governor and Lieutenant-Governor have worked together most harmoniously for several years; and you don't have to be very smart to realize that Governor Ely and Bacon have much more in common than the Governor and former Mayor.

Now for a few comments regarding Frank A. Goodwin and his influence in the campaign. Two points are, of course, obvious: The Bacon cohorts naturally desire Goodwin's withdrawal as an independent candidate on November 6. The G. O. P. margin of victory, if any, will scarcely permit the deduction of 132,000 votes (Goodwin's vote in the Republican primary) from the normal party strength. Curley might conceivably win out even against a united Republican party. If Goodwin persists in running, the situation will be critical for the G. O. P. Curley, conversely, would relish the candidacy of the stormy petrel of the G. O. P. From his point of view it would very nearly insure his election. So what? Well, both parties will work desperately on Goodwin and endeavor to make it attractive to him to get out or stay in, as the case may be. Working on the assumption that Curley has a distinct edge and would be elected Governor if the battle were to be settled today, and this is the prevailing view "on the street," it would seem that Curley is in a better position to make a trade with Goodwin than Bacon. Quite a few political plums will be available for distribution in 1935, and Goodwin, who was handed a lemon by Governor Ely, might enjoy sweeter fruit from the Curley stand. I earnestly hope that Goodwin will prefer to maintain his Republican status and will play the game with Bacon by withdrawing. Bacon will prove just as grateful to him as Curley, and incidentally, Goodwin would be able to retain his self-respect.

A word or two about the leaderless Democratic party, which I mentioned as one of the high spots. Most certainly Governor Ely and Senator Walsh are out as leaders, but I agree with the Worcester Telegram that Curley cannot be regarded as in. For the moment he outranks the statesmen just mentioned, but it is difficult to conceive of his occupying the throne completely or permanently. The Governor is, of course, retiring to private life, and the senior Senator is skidding on a slippery pavement, but he is by no means upside down in the ditch yet. Even though Robert M. Washburn did designate him on the radio the other night as "Mr. Facing Both Ways," neither General Cole nor Mayor Mansfield will view with equanimity the prospect of a prolonged reign of Curleyism; and John F. Fitzgerald is also a factor to be reckoned with. What, then, will Walsh do during the campaign? Very obviously stress even more than usual that he is the people's candidate, whatever that may be. He will have to run his own campaign, but that will be no new experience for him. He has always played a lone hand and co-operated rather perfunctorily with the Democratic State organization. Present indications are that Walsh will receive the smallest plurality of his career, and this will be due not so much to the inherent strength of the Washburn candidacy as to Walsh's growing weakness in the Democratic party. It must not be forgotten that 152,000 votes were cast for the Senator's two opponents, while he was polling 268,000. Incidentally, there is some concern being manifested over the possibility that Washburn may finish the campaign with a reputation as a court jester, who has provided merriment for both parties but who may alienate as many votes as he will attract.

A word about the pre-primary convention arrangements. It would appear that the voters still are in the habit of looking for familiar names and voting to continue in public office those whom they have known for years. Recent reports suggest the possibility of a sticker candidacy for Mrs. Pigeon. I think this would be poor judgment, for present indications are that the Democratic candidate, Mr. Buckley, will doubtless win the election anyway, and if the Republican vote were split in half, there would be nothing to it. Space will not permit me to say more than a few words regarding the other primary contests. The outcome of the Sheriff free for all in Middlesex County was not entirely unexpected, although Harry Brown of Billerica received that many of us felt he would win out. The official vote has not yet been published, but unofficial newspaper figures give McElroy 30,079, Brown 21,099, Walker 12,230, Kidder 6,315, Robert 5,307, with the other six candidates running well behind. It will, of course, be impossible to appraise the extent of the damage to Brown's cause as a result of the endorsement of the Republican City Committee. I have been told on all sides that Brown was cut in other cities and towns in the same way that Newton's candidate for the Governor's Council was cut outside of Newton. Incidentally, the Democratic nomination for this office was secured by Ralph W. Robart, of Cambridge, so that the November election will be fought between two Republicans running under different labels.

The Governor's Council contest resulted as I had indicated two weeks ago. In addition to the factor I have mentioned above, the McGill defeat may be attributed to the wide acquaintance and personal popularity of Frank A. Brooks throughout the District and to the fact that the voters were not impressed with the only issue which Miss McGill seemed to present, namely, that she was a woman candidate.

The local contest for Representative came out true to form, the only surprise being that Representative Luitwieler gave Alderman Gordon a bad beating. Rather sharp practices were resorted to in an endeavor to defeat Luitwieler, but the net result was a boomerang.

Finally, Congressman Robert Luce was nominated without opposition, but

ONE THING.... AND ANOTHER

By L. D. G. BENTLEY

Mood of many returned vacationists—Little pocketbook, what now?

Dry Dipping in the Deep

I shall always remember the Summer of 1934 because it marked my first trip through the East Boston (Summer to you) vehicular tunnel. An indulgent friend provided me with a seat in his car and also paid the toll. Notwithstanding my deep sense of gratitude and obligation I kept my few wits about me (you may say they were working well when I chiseled my way) and exercised my powers of observation.

As we rolled down the incline from the East Boston side I was seized with the thought that we were entering a Broddingnagian bathroom but I doubt if Swift in writing "Gulliver's Travels" ever imagined anything quite as extensive, due perhaps to the fact that in those days bathrooms were not the chief feature of every home.

It would not have surprised me had I seen hot water gushing from hundreds of shiny faucets and above them racks fully supplied with huge towels. Instead, the only suggestion of modern plumbing was the rail guarding the footpath on one side. Lights, and plenty of them, made brilliant the glow of the white tiling, with a decidedly happy effect. As we rolled forward I could not dismiss the thought we would reach an appropriate place for a plunge, but before I fully realized it we were on the Boston side, confronted with a tangle of traffic, and our ride under Boston harbor ended.

If the dire forebodings, which seem now to be approaching fact, should prove sound prophecy and the tunnel become a disastrous financial investment from the viewpoint of increased transit facilities, it might be used as a gigantic salt-water bath available at trivial cost to those who yearn for novelty in their daily or weekly ablution.

Vacation a la Ritz

If necessary to bring the argument to a head I am willing to admit that there was a vacation season although I had no extensive participation therein. Otherwise occupied, I kept informed of the doings at this, that and the other popular Summer resort through the medium of the society pages of the daily press. Thanks to the industry of the reporters of social news and the resourceful photographers assigned to work with them I became not only well informed but very near an authority on high life, or, as I feel it should be referred to, haut monde.

My tendency to use an appropriate French phrase now and then I acquired from the very same journalistic source. The pages this year seemed to drip with chic verbiage. The writers may have exhausted the resources of the English language or it may be that they felt a deeper impression would be made by occasionally tossing in a foreign word, providing it had its origin in la belle France. Another possible explanation is the fact that many who would have visited France this year remained at home because of the lower value of the American dollar or the higher cost of the franc. Thoughtful purveyors of news not intended for the bourgeois no doubt felt that those who wanted to but did not make Paris this year would feel less homesick for gay Paree if their eyes feasted discreetly on French words whenever the opportunity permitted.

The first inkling I got of what was going on among the typewriters of our society editors was the reference to aperitif parties. It struck me that this was far more elegant than cocktail parties and might draw a patronage otherwise inclined to be uppity over the vernacular of the place which I could have referred to as a saloon had not that institution been wiped out by repeal. As far as I was able to judge aperitif gatherings enjoyed a wide patronage due, of course, to the pate de foie gras, coquillages and other dainties provided rather than the liquors or alcoholic piece de resistance.

Since, however, I seem to be wandering off into the moral side of the question I think it would be wiser if I paused in my bilingual diatribe and concluded with the sincere wish that your Summer was as educational and product as mine.

After the Battle

Unattended by the noise of public meetings, radio addresses and other forms of political ballyhoo many contesting candidates who figured in last week's State primaries are now celebrating "Recovery Week." The observance is practically the same in every instance. The candidate, win or lose, has been catching up on lost sleep, seeking to overcome the ravages of complete fatigue and studying with red-rimmed (and in some cases tear-filled) eyes the pile of campaign bills due for payment.

The interest of the voters may drop the day after the voting but the strain on the candidate remains and only he and his friends realize it. Lucky is he who can start off on a vacation trip and get away from that "it all" is frequently referred to as "it all." If the results of such a struggle are justified, at least in the opinion of the combatants, I suppose the rest of us have no right to criticize. There can be no objection to the comment, "How can they do it?" and this is as good a time as any to point out that his supporters must work night and day if they are to defeat the Democratic nominee, Mayor Richard M. Russell of Cambridge.

In my next article I will outline current developments in the Bacon-Curley contest.

yet the numbers are greater every year so the problem remains unsolved. Nevertheless, I could not refrain from questioning a candidate who, by the way, came through the battle, riding high, wide and handsome. "Yes," he admitted, "it was some experience."

"Did you train for it?" I inquired. "In a way," he answered. "I had some one drive me on most of my trips throughout the district. I ate sparingly, declined offers of refreshment, especially midnight feeds and grabbed off a nap whenever I could. Regularly I was up until 2 a. m. and back in the fray at 6.30 or four and one-half hours later. That went on for practically several weeks but, as you see, I've survived."

I wanted to ask him if it was worth it but prudently held my tongue. "They tell me," he went on, with evident weariness of tone, "that I could have made 10,000 more votes if the campaign had lasted another week. I might have, but I wouldn't have been alive to accept the nomination."

About Town

By Edward H. Powers

A Newton youth recently went to an adjoining State to take entrance examinations at a college. As soon as he learned the result he sent a telegram to his father. The message was restricted to the minimum number of words, ten. It read as follows: "Didn't flunk; not sunk; no bunk; send trunk; Love—Dunc."

The very severe sentence inflicted on Norma Millen, will, doubtless, act as an effective deterrent on other excited seeking young women and girls who are tempted to associate with criminals.

If Lieut. Governor Bacon were older, he would have better knowledge of the utility of placing too much stress on the campaign slogan—"Keep the gang out of the State House." A similar argument was used many years ago, when Mr. Bacon was a boy, in a famous Boston Mayoralty contest. The argument hurt, rather than helped James Storrow, in whose interest it was used. It acted as a boomerang. We are living in peculiar times. The youth of today in large part has been made quite cynical from reading and hearing of the lack of ethics on the part of a large percentage of those who occupy high places in political and business life in this country. They do not look on "chiseling" or grafting with the same disfavor that the past generation did. They can't be blamed for thinking—"everybody's doing it." Campaign arguments more convincing than the "Gang" argument will have to be used by the Republican candidate for Governor and his supporters.

A few days ago the major gasoline companies reduced the retail price of gasoline 3c per gallon at their stations in Greater Boston, except in Newton, Arlington, Lexington and Waltham. In these four places the price was reduced only 1½ cents on the gallon. The next day the full reduction was put into effect in Waltham. Yesterday we telephoned the Boston offices of the Standard Oil Company, Gulf Refining Company and Colonial Beacon Oil Company and asked for explanations as to why their stations in Newton were instructed to charge 1½ cents more on the gallon than the surrounding territory. We asked, "Does the fact that Newton has the reputation of being a wealthy community cause the big gasoline companies to think that Newton motorists can and will pay more for this fuel than residents of adjoining towns and cities? Do you think Newton's residents will buy gasoline here when they can purchase it for less in Waltham, Watertown, Boston, Brookline?"

We were informed by representatives of the three gasoline companies questioned that the fair, retail price which should be charged for gasoline in Greater Boston is 16½ cents, but because of price cutting by independent gasoline companies and dealers, the big companies were forced to meet competitive conditions and reduce the price to 13c, except in Newton, Arlington and Lexington, where it seems there are no cut-price independent dealers. We were also informed that the cut-price war will probably last only a few days and the retail price will again be raised in those places where it is reduced. In the meantime the Newton gasoline stations certainly face a handicap in competition, although retail dealers owning their stations here do not have to take the cut in profits which station owners in the places where the 3c cut is in effect have to take.

That the fight in the 9th Congressional District will be bitter is evidenced by the establishment in West Newton of headquarters of this city by Mayor Russell of Cambridge, Democratic candidate. A thorough canvass of the city will be made to increase the Democratic registration, with special attention paid to Wards 5 and 6.

Miss Edith Longsdorf, granddaughter of Mr. George Booth Rowbotham of Newton Centre, was married to Asbury Winfield Schley, son of Dr. R. Montford Schley of Buffalo, N. Y., on Saturday evening, Sept. 22nd, at a candle-light service in Trinity Church, Newton Centre. Rev. Edward T. Sullivan performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white satin and rose point lace with a veil of rose point. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Miss Betty Wight of Newton Centre was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Alden Barnes and Miss Eleanor Bell, both of Newton Centre. They were gowned in white lace and carried deep red roses. Miss Anne Drummond Leonard, the flower girl, wore a Kate Greenaway dress of point d'esprit.

Sherburn Worthing Merrill of Newton Centre was the best man and the ushers were H. Allen Greer, Jr., of Nashua, and Wilton, New Hampshire; Robert Brookings of Alexandria, Virginia; Harry Benjamin Burley, Jr., and W. Henry Slade of Newton Centre.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. Rowbotham on Kenmore st.

The bride is a graduate of Bradford Junior College, Class of 1931. The groom attended Exeter Academy and is now at Harvard. He is a member of the Pi Eta Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Schley will make their home in Cambridge.

GRAHAM—NORCROSS

Miss Ruth Norcross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Slayton Norcross of Medford, was married at four-thirty o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 22nd, at Eliot Church, Newton, to John Modess Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. H. Graham of 555 Centre st., Newton. Rev. Ray A. Eustad performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a brown suit with beige fox trimming, a brown hat and a corsage bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Elizabeth Norcross, sister of the bride, was her only attendant, wore a gown of carcioa red with brown hat and corsage of yellow roses.

Dr. Warren K. Lewis of Newton was the best man. The ushers were Edward Graham, brother of the groom, of Newton, and John Sumner Adams of Medford, a cousin of the bride.

On their return from a motor trip, Mr. and Mrs. Graham will be at home at 11 Stephenson ave., Dunellen, N. J., after November first.

The bride is a graduate of the Katherine Gibbs School, 1928, and the groom of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, 1932, and received his M.S. degree in 1933.

Recent Engagements

Gets Two Months Jail Sentence for Careless Driving

John J. McDonald of 377 Linwood ave., Newtonville, was sentenced to serve two months in Middlesex County prison when he was found guilty in the Newton court on Saturday of driving an automobile so as to endanger the lives and safety of the public. He was also fined $20 for driving without a license. He appealed. He denied he was the driver of a truck which was in collision with a car on Aug. 17 at Commonwealth ave., Auburndale. McDonald and others were injured in the crash. Serg. Bannon testified that McDonald told him at the Newton Hospital, following the accident, that he was the driver of the truck.

Newton Trust Association Held Outing and Banquet

The members of the Newton Trust Company Associates, an organization which is composed of the employees of the eight different banking offices of the Newton Trust Co., held one of their seasonal get-togethers at the New Ocean House, Swampscott, Tuesday afternoon and evening, Sept. 25. About 150 attended.

A program of sports was run off in the afternoon, beginning with a baseball game between two mixed teams headed by Captains Theresa Tangey and Mary Hickey. Miss Tangey's team triumphed in a 19 to 16 victory. This was followed by various track events.

The pipe-smoking contest was won by Allen Richardson; the three-legged mixed race tied between Clinton Roper, Elinor Hutching, George Degrasse and Ruth Burns; the 50-yard dash for women was won by Theresa Tangey and George Degrasse for the men; the potato race for girls was won by Dorothy Stanfield, while the contest for men was tied between Edward Butler and George Degrasse.

The relay race was contested by five teams and was won by Theresa Tangey, Ruth Burns, Dorothy Sweeney, George Degrasse, Raymond Heislein and Allen Richardson; after which several hard members ventured into the Atlantic ocean for a dip. At seven o'clock a banquet was held, presided over by the toastmaster, the retiring associates' president, Walter S. Packard. Guest speakers were Seward W. Jones, president of the trust company, and Frank L. Richardson, vice-president.

At a business meeting new officers were elected as follows: Pres., Ruth Burns; Vice-Pres., Raymond F. Heislein; Treas., Robert N. Sproule; Sec., Dorothy W. Sweeney; Directors, Edward T. Martin and Carl Wood.

Dancing followed the business meeting.

WROUGHT WITH ASTHMA? Read This—

Dear Sir: I have been a sufferer from asthma for forty years. Had severe attacks for weeks at a time, unable to lie down, frequently having to resort to hypodermic injections of Adrenal Chloride for relief. I tried many remedies, and spent hundreds of dollars without receiving much benefit until I tried Overseas Asthma Preparation. The first bottle on hand, although there is now two years since I had an attack.

Overseas Asthma Preparation, $2.50 per bottle (Enough for thirty days treatment) may be procured from

Women's Club Activities

Edited by EMMA D. COOLIDGE

State Federation Begins Activities

This week began in earnest the club interests of the new year with the State Federation playing hostess for the many brilliant features of the New England Conference at its scene of annual gatherings, the New Ocean House, Swampscott. For those who were unable to attend this Conference, Mrs. Edgar B. Richardson, State Federation Radio director, starts her new work efficiently by arranging that Mrs.
Frederick Glazier Smith, who was chairman of this Conference, tell of its highlights on the opening Radio broadcast of tomorrow, Saturday, the 29th, over Station WBZ, in the half-hour, 11:30 to 12 o'clock. Mrs. Frank P. Bennett, General Federation director, also will speak. Both speakers are former presidents of the State Federation and known to all clubwomen.
Music will be rendered by Howard Harrington, Tenor, and Edwin Biltcliffe, Pianist.

For the first CLUB INSTITUTE of the year, Mrs. George A. Mellen, State chairman of this department, has secured as speaker, for the opening institute, Thursday, October 4th, in the Auditorium of the Boston Young Women's Christian Association, corner of Clarendon and Stuart streets, at 10:30 a. m., Mr. Edward Weeks,
Editor of the Atlantic Monthly. Mr.
Weeks will conduct an Atlantic Monthly
Panel meeting, assisted by Mrs.
Clarence J. Howland, of North Brookfield; Mrs. Charles J. Hudson, West Boylston; Mrs. Burr J. Merriam, Framingham; Mrs. Elliot R. Scudder, Brain-tree; and Mrs. Walter J. Stanton, of Stow.

The presence of Mrs. Thomas J.
Walker, the newly-elected president of the State Federation, who will give greetings, is likely to bring together a large number of clubwomen, who will be given an opportunity of meeting the department officers. Greetings will also be extended by Mrs.
Sidney M. Harrison, president of the Young Women's Christian Association; while Mrs. Joseph E. Davidson, vice-president of the Institute, will continue with her lessons in Parliamentary law. The Institute will be presided over by Mrs. Mellen who will open and close the meeting.

Lecture on Happier Living Portent for Successful Season

Mrs. Elizabeth Stone MacDonald will give her lecture "Happier Living" at the opening meeting of the Newton Highlands Woman's Club on Tuesday, October 2nd, at 2 p. m., in the Parish House of the Congregational Church.

A report of the State Federation Annual Meeting of last May, at Swampscott, will be given by the Club's Federation secretary.

There will be special Music, and Tea will be served by the Social committee, of which Miss Marion H. Durr is chairman.

Flower Talk Is Attractive Offering At West Newton

The West Newton Women's Educational Club will hold its first regular meeting of the 1934-1935 season on Friday, October 5th, at 2:30 p. m. This year all the meetings will take place in Odd Fellows Hall, North Gate park, West Newton, with Mrs. Edgar P. Hay the presiding officer. The Club has planned a most attractive program for this opening day, with the co-operation of the Garden Club and the Conservation department of the Federation committee. Mr. Allyn W.
Hixon will give a most unusual and informative talk on "The Arrangement of Flowers in the Home," illustrating some of the most artistic groupings of flowers, and showing what combinations are most pleasing in the decoration of luncheon, dinner, and tea tables.

The first money-making project in the interests of the Scholarship Fund will also be held on this day in the form of a Food Sale. All kinds of cakes, rolls, and other foods will be on sale. The Scholarship committee, of which Mrs. James Messenger is chairman, is very anxious to raise money for the one hundred dollar scholarship.

Opportunities In Worthwhile Courses Offered

The Newtonville Woman's Club is sponsoring educational opportunities that should appeal to many clubwomen.
Courses in French and Spanish will be offered again this year under the direction of Mrs. Paul E. Ellicker, chairman of the Educational committee. There will be elementary, conversational, and advanced classes. A new course in Italian will be organized if a sufficient number of applications is received. The groups are now forming and application for enrollment

mons, Newton North 3343-W. This committee will also offer a course in Short Story Writing to be conducted by Richard Hill Wilkinson, playwright and author of the Boston Herald Daily Short Story. This series of lectures will be on the mechanics of the short story, the human interest phase of writing, and the origin and development of the short story. The course will be of interest for its general literary value as well as instructive to those who care to write. For further information those interested should telephone the chairman, Mrs.
Ellicker, West Newton 1784-M.

The Club will open its activities for the season on October 16th with the Annual Reception.

Plans are rapidly being completed for the Halloween Bazaar to be held at the Club House on October 30th and 31st.

Meeting and Luncheon of Executive Board

The president and officers of the Executive Board of the Boston City Federation and the Press and Publicity committee of this organization will meet at the Hotel Westminster on Friday, October 5th, for Luncheon at 12:30 o'clock. A business meeting will be held previous to this hour to complete details of the year's plans and for committee functions. Among these groups will be the Press Committee, of which Mrs. Stewart Collidge, formerly a director in the State Federation, is chairman, and the Newton member of which is Mrs. Edwin
P. Craze, president of the Newton-ville Woman's Club, and president of the Woman's Charity Club.

Newtonville Flower Show Successful

Early Fall flowers in great variety and profusion were on exhibition at the Flower Show sponsored by the Newtonville Garden Club and the Conservation committee of the Newtonville Woman's Club, held on September 20th, at the Newtonville Club House. This first exhibition undertaken by the Garden Club proved most successful both as a flower show and as a social event. Mrs. Walter S.
Adams, president of the Garden Club,
and Mrs. Henry E. Johnson, chairman of the Conservation committee of the Woman's Club, were in charge.

Among the features, the design for a formal garden was executed on the stage by Miss Harriette W. Patey, the central attraction of which was a statue of a child and a cat, the artistic work of Miss Helen Blair. This statue was at the edge of a lily pool. At either side of the stage were garden seats, the back of the stage being lined with evergreen trees, behind a hedge of euonymus and Scotch marigolds, and the steps being banked with yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. The lighting effect was obtained by two lamps concealed at the sides of the stage.

The flower and plant tables around the room were arranged according to the various classes of exhibits and were remarkable for their perfection and beauty. Each division was given three awards as follows: Class I. A.
Annals from seed, judged on horticultural merit, harmony and arrangement, won by Mrs. Samuel Thurber, for bronze and lemon zinnias in green pottery jar; by Mrs. George S. Maynard, for petunias in glass bowl; and by Mrs. Horace P. Coleman, for Josephine marigolds in glass pitcher. In Class B, by Mrs. Donald D. McKay, for annual thionia in pottery jug; by Mrs. Paul A. Chandler, for single orange and red dahlias in pewter dish; and by Mrs. Walter H. Dietz, for zinnias, ageratum, and annual salvia in square green pottery dish.

Class II was judged on horticultural merit and relation of flowers to container, and awards were made to Mrs.
Horace P. Coleman, for red and white variegated dahlias in antique red and white glass vase; to Mrs. George A.
Edmunds, for apricot dahlias in blue pottery vase; and to Mrs. Herbert L.
Slade, for dahlias in pottery jug.

In Class III, judged on suitability of flower to container and arrangement, the awards went to Mrs. Austin
H. Decatur, for token roses, gerbera, and gypsophila in turquoise bowl; to Mrs. Samuel Thurber, for pink zinnias in dark blue pottery jar;
and to Mrs. Albert D. Auryansen, for French marigolds and calendula in midnight-blue glass dish.

In Class IV, Dahlias, judged on cultural excellence, the winners were Mrs. Arthur W. Church, for dark red blooms; Mrs. George A. Edmunds, for huge assorted specimens; and Mrs.
George A. Edmunds, for very large and handsome flowers.

In the Parlor adjoining the hall were the porch tables set for two,
which were judged on attractiveness and proportion. The awards were given to Mrs. J. Walter Allen, who showed a white and gold scheme with fruit centerpiece; Mrs. Edwin P. Mc-Gill, green and yellow scheme with white roses; and Mrs. Fred W. Rust, a table in Italian setting.

A large table showing fruit centerpieces was arranged in the centre of the Main Hall, and the awards were made to Mrs. Horace P. Coleman, for antique excellence, platter of mixed fruit; to Mrs. Donald D. McKay, for a pewter plate with mixed fruit; and to Mrs. Albert D. Auryansen, for a tray of nine or ten varieties of grapes. Mrs. Auryansen's grapes, all home-grown, received the honor of being the best exhibit in the Show and
